Just Here for the Comments Gina Siple, 2024-05-28 We all sometimes lurk in online spaces without posting or engaging just reading the posts and comments But neither reading nor lurking are ever passive acts In fact readers of social media are making decisions and taking grassroots actions on multiple dimensions Unpacking this understudied phenomenon this book challenges the conventional perspective of what counts as participatory online culture Presenting lurking as a communication and literacy practice that resists dominant power structures it offers an innovative approach to digital qualitative methods Unique and original in its subject this is a call for internet researchers to broaden their methods to include lurkers participation and presence Lower-Middle-Class Nation Nicola Bishop,2020-12-10 Lower Middle Class Nation provides an unparalleled interdisciplinary cultural history of the lower middle class worker in British life since 1850 Considering highbrow lowbrow and middle brow forms across literature film television and more Nicola Bishop traces the development of the lower middle class from the mid 19th century to the present day tackling a number of pressing consistent concerns such as automation commuting and the search for a life work balance Above all this book brings together ideas about class nationhood and gender demonstrating that a particularly British lower middle class identity is constructed through the spaces and practices of the everyday Aimed at undergraduate postgraduates and scholars working in media and social history literature popular culture cultural studies and sociology Lower Middle Class Nation represents a new direction in cultural histories of work labour and leisure The Pearson CSAT Manual 2011 Edgar Thorpe, Showick Thorpe, The Politics of Time and Youth in Brand India Jyotsna Kapur,2014-12-01 This book traces the heightened time consciousness that has emerged since the 1990s in popular Indian discourses across cinema television print and consumer culture and argues that these anxieties concerning time are symptomatic of the struggle between labor and capital Drawing on critical theory cinema and media studies and Marxist feminist concepts Kapur shows how the recent political economic shift in India toward neoliberalism has been accompanied by a new emphasis on youth and a preoccupation with change novelty and the acceleration of time with profound consequences for conceptions of time youth and the relations between generations

Making Online News Chris A. Paterson,Chris Paterson,David Domingo,2008 Volume 2 summary Online journalism has taken center stage in debates about the future of news Instead of speculating this volume offers rich empirical evidence about actual developments in online newsrooms The authors use ethnographic methodologies to provide a vivid close analysis of processes like newsroom integration the transition of newspaper and radio journalists to digital multimedia production the management of user generated content the coverage of electoral campaigns the pressure of marketing logics the relationship with bloggers or the redefinition of news genres Publisher description Like Nobody's Business Andrew C. Comrie,2021-02-23 How do university finances really work From flagship public research universities to small private liberal arts colleges there are few aspects of these institutions associated with more confusion myths or lack of understanding than how they fund themselves and function in the business of higher education Using simple approachable explanations supported by clear illustrations this book takes the reader on an engaging and enlightening tour of how the money flows How does the university really pay for itself Why do tuition and fees rise so fast Why do universities lose money on research Do most donations go to athletics Grounded in hard data original analyses and the practical experience of a seasoned administrator this book provides refreshingly clear answers and comprehensive insights for anyone on or off campus who is interested in the business of the university how it earns its money how it spends it and how it all works Zizek and Media Studies M. Flisfeder, L. Willis, 2014-04-09 Film media and cultural theorists have long appealed to Lacanian theory in order to discern processes of subjectivization representation and ideological interpellation Here the contributors take up a Zizekian approach to studies of cinema and media raising questions about power ideology sexual difference and enjoyment The 2000s: A Decade of Contemporary British Fiction Nick Bentley, Nick Hubble, Leigh Wilson, 2015-10-22 How did social cultural and political events in Britain during the 2000s shape contemporary British fiction The means of publishing buying and reading fiction changed dramatically between 2000 and 2010 This volume explores how the socio political and economic turns of the decade bookended by the beginning of a millennium and an economic crisis transformed the act of writing and reading Through consideration of among other things the treatment of neuroscience violence the historical and youth subcultures in recent fiction the essays in this collection explore the complex and still powerful relation between the novel and the world in which it is written published and read This major literary assessment of the fiction of the 2000s covers the work of newer voices such as Monica Ali Mark Haddon Tom McCarthy David Peace and Zadie Smith as well as those more established such as Salman Rushdie Hilary Mantel and Ian McEwan making it an essential contribution to reading defining and understanding the decade Children's Books in Print, 2007, 2006 No One is Illegal (Updated Edition) Justin Akers Chacón, Mike Davis, 2018-05-09 Countering the chorus of anti immigrant voices that have grown increasingly loud in the current political moment No One is Illegal exposes the racism of anti immigration vigilantes and puts a human face on the immigrants who risk their lives to cross the border to work in the United States This second edition has a new introduction to frame the analysis of the struggle for immigrant rights and the roots of the backlash Justin Akers Chacón is the author of the forthcoming Radicals in the Barrio Magonistas Socialists Wobblies and Communists in the Mexican American Working Class Mike Davis is the author many books including The Ecology of Fear and Planet of Slums Uprooting Racism - 4th Edition Paul Kivel, 2017-08-28 In 2016 the president elect of the United States openly called for segregation and deportation based on race and religion Meanwhile inequalities in education housing health care and the job market continue to prevail while increased insecurity and fear have led to an epidemic of scapegoating and harassment of people of color Yet recent polls show that only thirty one percent of white people in the United States believe racism is a major societal problem at the same time resistance is strong as highlighted by indigenous struggles for land and sovereignty and the Movement for Black Lives Completely revised and updated this fourth edition of Uprooting Racism offers a framework around neoliberalism and interpersonal institutional and cultural racism along with stories of resistance and white solidarity It provides practical tools and advice on how white people can work as allies for racial justice engaging the reader through questions exercises and suggestions for action and includes a wealth of information about specific cultural groups such as Muslims people with mixed heritage Native Americans Jews recent immigrants Asian Americans and Latino as Previous editions of Uprooting Racism have sold more than 50 000 copies This accessible personal supportive and practical guide is ideal for students community activists teachers youth workers and anyone interested in issues of diversity multiculturalism and social justice Paul Kivel is an award winning author and an accomplished trainer and speaker He has been a social justice activist a nationally and internationally recognized anti racism educator and an innovative leader in violence prevention for over forty years
