There is also a bonus downloadable chapter with information from the key professionals involved in the diagnostic process so you know who you can turn to for the support and help you need.

Primary School People Jean Mills, 2002-01-04 Beginning to teach in a primary school means establishing a whole new set of relationships with your class of course but also with the other adults who work in the school. These include teachers and teaching assistants, support staff of various kinds from the visiting educational psychologist to the essential school secretary and parents both as helpers in the school and as the major influences on their children's lives outside school. This book is designed to give students and newly qualified teachers a taste of what they can expect and to help them to get the most out of these relationships both for themselves and for their children. Throughout it draws upon the experiences of new teachers often in their own words but it also uses the voices of other primary school people to show students the view from the other side. Throughout the text is supported by points for discussion, questionnaires and check lists to help new teachers to define and analyse their own situation.

Clinical Handbook of Obsessive-Compulsive and Related Disorders Eric A. Storch, Adam B. Lewin, 2015-07-03 This handbook examines evidence based treatment of obsessive compulsive and related disorders for a broad clinical audience. Focusing on both children and adults with these conditions it discusses various manifestations of OCD e.g. contamination, perfectionism related conditions e.g. hoarding, trichotillomania and Tourette syndrome and cases with complicating factors. Chapters describe case specifics, offer assessment guidelines and illustrate evidence based psychotherapy. Case examples depict real life complexities of presentation notably in terms of comorbid conditions and hard to treat subpopulations. Topical areas addressed in the Handbook include Phenomenology, assessment and treatment of multiple types of OCD in adults and children, Treating not just right experiences in children with OCD, Treating obsessive compulsive disorder in very young children, Treatment of OCD comorbid with other disorders like depression and Autism Spectrum Disorder, Treatment of OCD when presenting with complicating factors like limited insight, extreme family accommodation and poor motivation. The Clinical Handbook of Obsessive Compulsive and Related Disorders is an essential resource for clinicians and professionals as well as researchers and graduate students in clinical psychology, psychiatry, social work, counseling programs, pediatrics, public health and related disciplines.

Fundamentals of AAC Nerissa Hall, Jenifer Juengling-Sudkamp, Michelle L. Gutmann, Ellen R. Cohn, 2022-03-11 Fundamentals of AAC: A Case Based Approach to Enhancing Communication is a course friendly textbook designed to walk readers through the theoretical and clinical underpinnings of assessment, intervention and consultation for individuals with complex communication needs across the lifespan. Augmentative and alternative communication (AAC) encompasses a variety of communication methods and is used by those with a wide range of speech and language impairments. With a consistent framework and descriptive case studies as well as input from various stakeholders, readers can gain a comprehensive understanding of the needs of persons who use AAC and how to provide them with ethically and culturally considerate support. Unlike other texts on this topic, this book empowers the reader to visualize AAC in action. Each chapter offers evidence-based information about the topic along with a case study. The case studies combined with short essays from various stakeholders illustrate the variety of ways in which AAC can enhance an individual's connection with their communication partners and community and the role of the speech language pathologist as integral to this process. Intended to easily translate into a 6, 8, or 13 week semester course, this textbook is divided into seven distinct sections. Section I provides an overview of AAC, no tech, mid tech, and high tech AAC systems as well as mobile technology and advancing technology. Section II discusses cultural and linguistic responsivity and how this underlies AAC systems and services. Section III reviews AAC assessment, intervention, and implementation for toddlers, preschoolers, and school-aged individuals along with goal writing and data collection. Section IV covers assessment, intervention, and implementation for young adults and adults needing AAC. Section V offers the reader detailed information and rich examples of the application of AAC for persons with developmental disabilities. Section VI provides the theoretical foundation and exemplar case studies of AAC for persons with acquired disabilities. Section VII details consultation and training for various stakeholders as well as tele AAC services. Key Features: Overviews with key terms set the stage for each section. 36 case studies with questions and visuals to clearly depict each case. Boxes with practical tips and expert advice.
