Mexican Literature as World Literature is a landmark collection that for the first time studies the major interventions of Mexican literature of all genres in world literary circuits from the 16th century forward. This collection features a range of essays in dialogue with major theorists and critics of the concept of world literature. Authors show how the arrival of Spanish conquerors and priests, the work of enlightenment naturalists, the rise of Mexican academies, the culture of the Mexican Revolution and Mexican neoliberalism have played major roles in the formation of world literary structures. The book features major scholars in Mexican literary studies engaging in the ways in which modernism, counterculture and extinction have been essential to Mexico's world literary pursuit as well as studies of the work of some of Mexico's most important authors: Sor Juana, Carlos Fuentes, Octavio Paz and Juan Rulfo among others. These essays expand and enrich the understanding of Mexican literature as world literature, showing the many significant ways in which Mexico has been a center for world literary circuits.

Borges and the Politics of Form Jose Eduardo Gonzalez, 2013-05-13 Jorge Luis Borges, one of the most important Latin American writers, has also attained considerable international stature and his work is commonly cited in a wide array of scholarship on contemporary fiction. Partly as a consequence of Borges' international identity and partly because of a long standing view in Borges criticism that his writing is principally concerned with abstract ideas, critics have been reluctant to address the question of politics in his writing. Filling this critical gap, Gonzalez begins by rejecting the proposition that Borges withdraws from the real and provides a detailed analysis of the various political issues that Borges takes up in his essays and short stories. The author places particular emphasis on the turbulent questions that shaped Argentine social history during the period of Borges output
