Historical Novels Review on My Lady of Cleves Mary Butts and British Neo-Romanticism Andrew Radford, 2014-08-28. Mary Butts was an important figure in inter-war modernist circles and one who reviewed and associated with some of the major literary figures of the era from T.S. Eliot to Gertrude Stein. Despite her importance and the varied nature of her writing, she has been a neglected figure in modernist scholarship. Providing a new analysis of the interwar literary period, Mary Butts and British Neo-Romanticism revisits her work vividly: experimental writings spanning memoir, poetry, polemic, and fiction through the lens of mid-20th century British neo-Romanticism. The book argues that behind Butts's eco-feminist writings lies an intricate political and philosophical commentary. Reliable Poultry Journal, 1925 The National and English Review, 1923 The New English Review Magazine, 1923 Revolving Around India(s) Juan Ignacio Oliva-Cruz, Antonia Navarro-Tejero, Isabel Sánchez Berriel, 2020-01-21. This book highlights a variety of approaches to the study of contemporary India and offers a transnational gender and social research perspective on the concepts of Indian tradition, the representation of the Indian diaspora, and the emergent political activism in India. The contributions suggest questions and answers about the various temporal and spatial loci inherent to India and its gender and ethnic differences. The volume analyses different cultural texts and explores how they refer to equality and interculturality or promote discourses of fear and racism. The multiple viewpoints and analyses found in this volume will broaden and stimulate both upcoming outcomes and studies on the future of India. CPR for Dead or Lifeless Fiction: A Writer's Guide to Deep and Multifaceted Development and Progression of Characters, Plots, and Relationships Karen S. Wiesner, 2020-08-31. Characters: Do your characters have no obvious signs of life, nothing that gives them unique personality, perspective, and passion? Plots: Are plots and conflicts created spur of the moment with no set up, build up, curiosity, or tension? Relationships: Are your characters merely going through the motions with each other? All of these and more are signs of dead or lifeless stories. The three core elements of story: Characters, Plots, and Relationships. CPR need to be developed three dimensionally. To truly be living characters aren't simply existing and going through the motions. They possess fully developed external and internal conflicts. They're interacting in dynamic, realistic, and believable relationships. They have multidimensional character attributes that give them both vitality and voice. Finally, they're engaged in what makes life worthwhile with definable goals and motivations. This resource teaches writers how to identify dead or lifeless characters, plots, and relationships, establish proper setup, plant the seeds early with in-depth sketches, and pinpoint weak areas in CPR development. The only one-stop everything you need to know 9-1-1 for deep, multifaceted Character, Plot, and Relationship development. Wanted: Billionaire's Wife Susannah Erwin, 2019-05-01.
