Wine, Water and Song G. K. Chesterton, Aeterna Press, 2011-04 St George he was for England And before he killed the dragon He drank a pint of English ale Out of an English flagon For though he fast right readily In hair shirt or in mail It isn't safe to give him cakes Unless you give him ale St George he was for England And right gallantly set free The lady left for dragon's meat And tied up to a tree But since he stood for England And knew what England means Unless you give him bacon You mustn't give him beans St George he is for England And shall wear the shield he wore When we go out in armour With the battle cross before But though he is jolly company And very pleased to dine It isn't safe to give him nuts Unless you give him wine Aeterna Press

The Christological Metaphors of Wine, Water, and Bread in the Gospel of John in Relation to Their Sapiential Background Michał Filip Powęska, 2024-12-09 When focusing on the sapiential traits in the text of the Fourth Gospel, it should be noted that in its images of wine, water, and bread, connected by the common theme of eating and drinking, one can see Jesus the Giver, who like the Old Testament personified wisdom, bestows his gifts on man. Although single references to the Old Testament sapiential texts have been suggested for the Johannine images of wine, water, bread, light, and the vine, no detailed study of these images as well as their juxtapositions, even in the aspect of eating and drinking, has been published so far. The selected topic seems to be important for showing a comprehensive approach to the Johannine banquet motif in its sapiential aspect, broken down into particular Johannine images which are the events related to wine, water, and bread. It is ultimately significant to present Jesus' full identity through these three metaphors referring to the personified and preexisting wisdom as described in the Old Testament sapiential literature.
