Brad Gilbert, Steve Jamison

Winning Ugly Mental Warfare In Tennis Lessons From A Master:

Winning Ugly Brad Gilbert, Steve Jamison, 1994-05-31 He's been called the best in the world at the mental game of tennis. Brad Gilbert's strokes may not be pretty but look anything but ordinary. He has beaten the Tour's biggest names all by playing his ugly game. Now in Winning Ugly, Gilbert teaches recreational players how to win more often without necessarily even changing their strokes. The key to success, he says, is to become a better thinking player, to recognize, analyze, and capitalize. That means outthinking opponents before, during, and after a match, forcing him or her to play your game. Gilbert's unconventional advice includes: How to identify the seven Hidden Ad Points and what to do when they come up; Six reasons why you should never serve first; How to beat a Lefty, a Retriever, a Serve Volley player, and other troublesome opponents; How to keep a lead or stop a match from slipping away; How to handle psyching and gamesmanship. Winning Ugly is an invaluable combat manual for the court, and its tips include some real gems, according to Tennis magazine. Ultimately, Winning Ugly will help you beat players who have been beating you. Winning Ugly Brad Gilbert, Steve Jamison, 1993-01-01 Advice from a pro on how to improve your tennis game lists the six reasons never to serve first, discusses psychological aspects of the game, and reveals how McEnroe and Connors could steal a match. Simon, 2024-06-10 Tennis Beyond Mechanics explores the five levels of mind states. At any given moment, a player's mind state is at a given level. The higher the level, the better they will perform. Most of us mentally operate at level 1 or 2, whether on the tennis court or in daily life. Few operate at level 3, and even fewer at level 4. We've all heard of players who have experienced the zone, a state where one is playing flawlessly, almost effortlessly. It has been described by those who have experienced it as a meditative state of clarity. That is the level 5 state of mind, the highest level. Tennis Beyond Mechanics is about understanding those mental levels. It is about being aware of the level we find ourselves in and learning to elevate to higher levels for better performance. Thought-provoking, captivating, and inspiring, this book also follows the fascinating journey of a tennis prodigy who happens to be one of those rare individuals who intuitively functions at level 4. The ISSP Manual of Sports Psychiatry Ira D. The Other Side of Sadness George A. Bonanno, 2019-11-05 In this thoroughly revised and updated classic a renowned psychologist shows that mourning is far from predictable and all of us share a surprising ability to be resilient The conventional view of grieving encapsulated by the famous five stages of grief denial anger bargaining depression and acceptance is defined by a mourning process that we can only hope to accept and endure In The Other Side of Sadness psychologist and emotions expert George Bonanno argues otherwise Our inborn emotions anger and denial but also relief and joy help us deal effectively with loss To expect or require only grief stricken behavior from the bereaved does them harm In fact grieving goes beyond mere sadness and it can actually deepen interpersonal connections and even lead to a new sense of meaning in life

Winning Francesco Duina, 2013-08-25 Why winning doesn't always lead to happiness Most of us are taught from a young age to be winners and avoid being losers But what does it mean to win or lose And why do we care so much Does winning make us happy Winning undertakes an unprecedented investigation of winning and losing in American society what we are really after as we struggle to win our collective beliefs about winners and losers and much more Francesco Duina argues that victory and loss are not endpoints or final destinations but gateways to something of immense importance to us the affirmation of our place in the world But Duina also shows that competition is unlikely to provide us with the answers we need Winning and losing are artificial and logically flawed concepts that put us at odds with the world around us and ultimately ourselves Duina explores the social and psychological effects of the language of competition in American culture

Primarily concerned with our shared obsessions about winning and losing Winning proposes a new mind set for how we can pursue our dreams and in a more satisfying way find our proper place in the world

basketball and ice hockey and the proliferation of stars imported and now exported to and from North America provides some better examples of sport s international power It also creates a very new kind of sport celebrity albeit one that often shows a rather limited reach beyond that star s own country or continent Thus rather than focusing on the Western Hemisphere this collection of some of world sport s most heralded celebrities including stars of Motocross surfing distance running and more serves as a sort of passport to many places that make up our global sporting environment
