Shona Set S For A Level 2015:

Gendered Spaces, Religion and Migration in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Sophia Chirongoma, Molly Manyonganise, 2022-10-12 This book explores the intersections of gender religion and migration within the context of post independent Zimbabwe with a specific focus on how gender disparities impact economic development By demonstrating how these interconnections impact women s and girls lived realities the book addresses the need for gender equity gender inclusion and gender mainstreaming in both religious and societal institutions This book assesses the gender and migration nexus in Zimbabwe and examines the impact of religious cultural ideologies on the status of women In doing so it assesses the transition of Zimbabwean women across spaces and provides insights into the practical strategies that can be utilised to improve their status both at home and on the move Furthermore chapters show how space continues to be genderised in ways that perpetuate structural inequality to challenge the exclusion of women from key social processes Contributing to ongoing scholarly debates on gender in Africa this book will be of interest to academics and students of Gender Studies Women s Studies African Studies Development Studies as well as advocates of human rights and gender activists

Religion, Women's Health Rights, and Sustainable Development in Zimbabwe: Volume 2 Sophia Chirongoma, Molly Manyonganise, Ezra Chitando, 2022-08-26 This volume brings to the fore the interface of religion women s sexual reproductive health and rights SRHR and the sustainable development goals SDGs in Zimbabwe It emphasizes that empowering African women is a pivotal pillar for attaining sustainable development Contributors discuss the need for implementing structural changes as a prerequisite for social progress and development to occur in Southern Africa They interrogate the extent to which religious beliefs and practices either promote or impede women s SRHR The contributors also proffer several ways in which addressing the themes of health for all and equality for all women and girls can make a meaningful contribution towards the fulfillment of the goals set for Agenda 2030

Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events Information and Communication Technology for Competitive Strategies (ICTCS 2021) Amit Joshi, Mufti Mahmud, Roshan G.

Ragel, 2022-06-22 This book contains best selected research papers presented at ICTCS 2021 Sixth International Conference on Information and Communication Technology for Competitive Strategies The conference will be held at Jaipur Rajasthan India during December 17 18 2021 The book covers state of the art as well as emerging topics pertaining to ICT and effective strategies for its implementation for engineering and managerial applications This book contains papers mainly focused on ICT for computation algorithms and data analytics and IT security The book is presented in two volumes African Womanhood and the Feminist Agenda Musungafi, Maxwell Constantine Chando, Hungwe, Chipso, 2024-01-16 Within academic circles there is a longstanding issue concerning the portrayal and understanding of African womanhood Frequently these narratives are crafted by outsiders predominantly Western scholars often distorting the lived experiences and unique perspectives of African women This has led to a skewed and sometimes negative perception of African women reinforcing stereotypes and sidelining their voices in critical discussions Moreover this misrepresentation has real world consequences as it impacts social justice initiatives and development projects that rely on misguided narratives rather than the authentic voices of African women African Womanhood and the Feminist Agenda emerges as an essential solution to the misrepresentation of African women This comprehensive and meticulously researched book offers an alternative narrative one that is rooted in African perspectives and experiences It addresses the historical cultural and political dimensions of African womanhood providing a rich and nuanced understanding of this multifaceted topic Surrogate Languages and the Grammar of Language-Based Music Yoad Winter, Laura McPherson, 2022-04-01 Speaking Subjects in Multilingualism Research Judith Purkarthofer, Mi-Cha Flubacher, 2022-07-22 This book discusses salient moments of multilingual encounters and brings together contributions focused on the interplay between language use by individuals and societies and language related inequalities or opportunities for speakers The chapters demonstrate how biographical and speaker centred approaches can contribute to an understanding of linguistic diversity how researchers can empirically account for lived experiences of languages and how such accounts are embedded in a larger discussion on social inequality Together the chapters make a powerful case for the importance of speaker centred methodologies in multilingual and multilingualism research The book is a rich source of theoretical and methodological reflections and will thus be a valuable resource for both experienced researchers and students beginning to explore biographical research methods Disputed Archival Heritage James Lowry, 2022-10-10 Disputed Archival Heritage brings important new perspectives into the discourse on displaced archives In contrast to shared or joint heritage framings the book considers the implications of force violence and loss in the displacement of archival heritage With chapters from established and emerging scholars in archival studies Disputed Archival Heritage extends and enriches the conversation that started with the earlier volume Displaced Archives Advancing novel theories and methods for understanding disputes and claims over archives the volume includes chapters that focus on Indigenous records in settler colonial states literary and community archives sub national and private sector displacements successes in repatriating formerly displaced archives comparisons with cultural objects seized by colonial powers and the relationship between repatriation and reparations Analysing key concepts such as joint heritage and provenance the contributors unsettle Western understandings of records place and ownership Disputed Archival Heritage speaks to the growing interest in shared archival heritage repatriation of cultural artefacts and cultural diasporas As such it will be a useful resource for academics students and practitioners working in the field of archives records and information management as well as cultural property and heritage management peace and conflict studies and international law Helping Scientists to Communicate Well for All Considered: Strategic Science Communication in an Age of
