Women and Photography in Africa Darren Newbury, Lorena Rizzo, Kylie Thomas, 2020-10-26 This collection explores women's multifaceted historical and contemporary involvement in photography in Africa The book offers new ways of thinking about the history of photography exploring through case studies the complex and historically specific articulations of gender and photography on the continent and attending to the challenge and potential of contemporary feminist and postcolonial engagements with the medium The volume is organised in thematic sections that present the lives and work of historically significant yet overlooked women photographers as well as the work of acclaimed contemporary African women photographers such as H la Ammar Fatoumata Diabat Lebohang Kganye and Zanele Muholi The book offers critical reflections on the politics of gendered knowledge production and the production of racialised and gendered identities and alternative and subaltern subjectivities Several chapters illuminate how contemporary African women photographers collectors and curators are engaging with colonial photographic archives to contest stereotypical forms of representation and produce powerful counter histories Raising critical questions about race gender and the history of photography the collection provides a model for interdisciplinary feminist approaches for scholars and students of art history visual studies and African history Fallen Giants Maurice Isserman, Stewart Angus Weaver, Dee Molenaar, 2010-01-01 In the first comprehensive history of Himalayan mountaineering in 50 years the authors offer detailed original accounts of the most significant climbs since the 1890s and they compellingly evoke the social and cultural worlds that gave rise to those expeditions Alfred Kazin's Journals Richard M. Cook, 2011-06-01 At the time of his death in 1998 Alfred Kazin was considered one of the most influential intellectuals of postwar America What is less well known is that Kazin had been contributing almost daily to an extensive private journal which arguably contains some of his best writing These journals collectively tell the story of his journey from Brooklyn s Brownsville neighborhood to his position as a dominant figure in twentieth century cultural life To Kazin the daily entry was a psychological and spiritual act To read through these entries is to reexperience history as a series of daily discoveries by an alert adventurous if often mercurial intelligence It is also to encounter an array of interesting and notable personalities Sketches of friends mistresses family figures and other intellectuals are woven in with commentary on Kazin s childhood early religious interests problems with parents bouts of loneliness dealings with publishers and thoughts on the Holocaust The journals also highlight his engagement with the political and cultural debates of the decades through which he lived He wrestles with communism cultural nationalism liberalism existentialism Israel modernism and much more Judiciously selected and edited by acclaimed Kazin biographer Richard Cook this collection provides the public with access to these previously unavailable writings and in doing so offers a fascinating social historical literary and cultural record The Canadian Magazine ,1916 Postcolonial Cinema Studies Sandra Ponzanesi, Marguerite Waller, 2012-03-12 This collection of essays foregrounds the work of filmmakers in theorizing and comparing postcolonial conditions recasting debates in both cinema and postcolonial studies Postcolonial cinema is presented not as a rigid category but as an optic through which to address questions of postcolonial historiography geography subjectivity and epistemology Current circumstances of migration and immigration militarization economic exploitation racial and religious conflict enactments of citizenship and cultural self representation have deep roots in colonial postcolonial neocolonial histories Contributors deeply engage the tense asymmetries bequeathed to the contemporary world by the multiple diverse and overlapping histories of European Soviet U S and multi national imperial ventures With interdisciplinary expertise they discover and explore the conceptual temporalities and spatialities of postcoloniality with an emphasis on the politics of form the postcolonial aesthetics through which filmmakers challenge themselves and their viewers to move beyond national and imperial imaginaries Contributors include Jude G Akudinobi Kanika Batra Ruth Ben Ghiat Shohini Chaudhuri Julie F Codell Sabine Doran Hamish Ford Claudia Hoffmann Anik Imre Priya Jaikumar Mariam B Lam Paulo de Medeiros Sandra Ponzanesi

Richard Rice Mireille Rosello and Marguerite Waller The World Broke in Two Bill Goldstein, 2017-08-15 A revelatory narrative of the intersecting lives and works of four revered authors during 1922 the birth year of modernism A Lambda Literary Awards Finalist Named a Best Book by NPR's Book Concierge The World Broke in Two tells the fascinating story of the intellectual and personal journeys four legendary writers Virginia Woolf T S Eliot E M Forster and D H Lawrence make over the course of one pivotal year As 1922 begins all four are literally at a loss for words confronting an uncertain creative future despite success in the past The literary ground is shifting as Ulysses is published in February and Proust's In Search of Lost Time begins to be published in England in the autumn Yet dismal as their prospects seemed in January by the end of the year Woolf has started Mrs Dalloway Forster has for the first time in nearly a decade returned to work on the novel that will become A Passage to India Lawrence has written Kangaroo his unjustly neglected and most autobiographical novel and Eliot has finished and published to acclaim The Waste Land As Willa Cather put it The world broke in two in 1922 or thereabouts and what these writers were struggling with that year was in fact the invention of modernism Based on original research Bill Goldstein's The World Broke in Two captures both the literary breakthroughs and the intense personal dramas of these beloved writers as they strive for greatness Entertaining Goldstein shines a welcome spotlight back onto an age when literary giants walked the earth San Francisco Chronicle Superbly researched a beautiful mosaic The book is a joy USA Today Gossipy accessible and fascinating People Our Beloved Kin Lisa Tanya Brooks, 2018-01-01 With rigorous original scholarship and creative narration Lisa Brooks recovers a complex picture of war captivity and Native resistance during the First Indian War later named King Philip's War by relaying the stories of Weetamoo a female Wampanoag leader and James Printer a Nipmuc scholar whose stories converge in the captivity of Mary Rowlandson Through both a narrow focus on Weetamoo Printer and their network of relations and a far broader scope that includes vast Indigenous geographies Brooks leads us to a new understanding of the history of colonial New England and of American origins In reading seventeenth century sources alongside an analysis of the landscape and interpretations informed by tribal history Brooks's pathbreaking scholarship is grounded not just in extensive archival research but also in the land and communities of Native New England Jacket flap Roots, Family Histories of Familiar Words Peter Davies, 1981 This book offers case histories of 100 Indo European roots and shows how they appear in modern English It provides a look at the ways in which language prehistory affects everyday modern vocabulary Each entry consists of a definition and discussion of the root a concise history of its descent to present day English and a chart that presents the story visually Crimes of Passion Since Shakespeare Adrian Howe, 2023-04-28 Bringing key Shakespeare texts into dialogue with feminist socio legal research this book investigates the notion of a crime of passion indicatively wife killing Its key concern is to bring attention to a cultural and legal revolution widely overlooked even in the law field where it occurred In 2009 the English Parliament passed a controversial law abolishing the defence of provocation Explaining the new law reformers said that this so called heat of passion defence had allowed men to get away with murder by blaming the victim Abolishing it in cases of alleged infidelity would end the culture of excuses Unpacking what was at stake in the reformers revolutionary challenge to the English law of murder s age old concession to human frailty in red mist rage cases this book charts passion s progress in wife killing cases over the centuries It commences in the early modern era when jurists were busy distinguishing murder from manslaughter and contemporaneously Shakespeare set about querying culturally inscribed excuses for femicide in his plays Titus Andronicus and Othello This book will appeal to feminist and socio legal scholars criminologists and those working in the fields of law and literature legal theory and Shakespeare studies More widely it will appeal to anyone interested in so called crimes of passion

Routledge Handbook of Modern Korean Literature Yoon Sun Yang,2020-03-26 The Routledge Handbook of Modern Korean Literature provides a comprehensive overview of a Korean literary tradition which is understood as a multifaceted nexus of practices both homegrown and transnational The handbook discusses the perspectives from which modern Korean literature has thus far been defined analyzing which voices have been enunciated underappreciated or completely silenced and how we can enrich our understanding of it Taking up diverse transnational and interdisciplinary standpoints this volume aims to encourage readers not to treat modern Korean literature as a self evident category but to examine it anew as an uncultivated and uncharted space unearthing its internal chasms and global connections Divided into five parts the themes covered include the following Literature and power Borders and boundaries Rationality in literature and its limits Language ethnicity and translation Korean literature in the changing mediascape By introducing new conceptual paradigms to the field of modern Korean literature this book will appeal to students and scholars of Korean East Asian and world literature alike

Sex, Violence and Crime Adrian Howe,2009-01-21 Theoretically informed yet entirely accessible style this book provides a novel critical approach to questions of sex and violence in contemporary Western society

Jovial Bigotry Jana Verhoeven,2012-03-15 This book revisits the debate over manners and morals that raged in France Britain and the United States in the late nineteenth century It was in essence a debate about gender and sexuality and one of the foremost figures in the transnational discussions was the French writer and lecturer Paul Blouet alias Max O Rell 1847 1903 Although largely forgotten today O Rell deserves remembrance as a major phenomenon of the fin de si cle publishing and entertainment world A Frenchman living in England but catering primarily to the American market he disseminated national and gender stereotypes in an unprecedented way Admired for the wit deployed in his lectures and his many best selling books he is a colorful exemplar of the many bourgeois commentators male and female most of them with mainstream political social and cultural views who engaged in these discussions producing dense webs of assertion and opinion across countries and even continents The elegant French salonniers the independent but trustworthy English girl the bitter American spinster activist meddling in public affairs these are just a few examples of the many caricatural representations of women thrust into the debate Max O Rell and his fellow observers commented on women's position in family and society their partnership in the couple their education their sexual fulfillment their right to paid work aspects of social etiquette feminism domestic abuse adultery and prostitution There were frequent disagreements and sometimes hostile exchanges but this analysis of the debate reveals a fundamentally common outlook among its participants an agreement on patriarchy as the foundation of bourgeois society and on the necessity to confine women in carefully stereotyped roles
