Tehran Blues Youth Culture In Iran:

Tehran Blues Kaveh Basmenji, 2014-06-29 More than two decades after their parents rose up against the Shah's excesses increasing numbers of young Iranians are risking jail at the hands of religious paramilitaries roughly their own age for things their counterparts in the West take for granted wearing makeup slow dancing at parties holding hands with members of the opposite sex Every day anxious parents queue at courthouses to bail out sons and daughters who have been detained for moral crimes Kaveh Basmenji who spent his own youth amidst the turbulence of the Islamic Revolution argues that Iran's youth are in near open revolt for want of greater freedoms in furious defiance of the mullahs and their brand of sombre religiosity Through candid interviews with young people and in a careful assessment of Iran today including a special chapter on the implications of the recent election to the presidency of hardliner Mahmoud Ahmadinejad Basmenji gets to the heart of the matter What do Iran's youth want and how far are their elders prepared to go to accommodate them Young and Defiant in Tehran Shahram Khosravi, 2008 In this ethnography of contemporary youth culture in Iran's capital Shahram Khosravi examines the practices of everyday life through which young Tehranis demonstrate defiance against the official culture and the parental generation

Space, Culture, and the Youth in Iran Behnoosh Payvar, 2016-04-29 This book analyzes the Artists House a cultural center in Tehran to place Iran's social and cultural transformation in a local global context The text addresses the interaction of Iranian youth with technology and mass communications law tradition and contemporary questions concerning body identity and lifestyle

Arab Youth Samir Khalaf, Roseanne Saad Khalaf, 2012-01-30 In 2011 Arab youth took to the streets in their thousands to demand their freedom Although it is too early to speculate on the ultimate outcome of the uprisings one auspicious feature stands out they reveal the genesis of a new generation sparked by the desire for civil liberties advocacy for human rights and participatory democracy This unique volume explores some of the antecedents of the upheavals and anticipates alternative venues of resistance that marginalized youth from Lebanon Syria and Palestine to Saudi Arabia Morocco and Iran can mobilize to realize their emancipatory expectations Themes covered include the forging of meaningful collective identities in times of risk and uncertainty youth militancy neighborhood violence and youth gangs the surge of youthful activism and youths expressive outlets through popular arts and street music

Iran's Long Reach Suzanne Maloney, United States Institute of Peace, 2008 As the third book in the series from the Institute's Muslim World Initiative on pivotal states in the Muslim world this lucid and timely volume sheds much needed light on Iran's strikingly complex political system and foreign policy and its central role in the region

Iranian Culture Nasrin Rahimieh, 2015-08-27 Throughout modern Iranian history culture has served as a means of imposing unity and cohesion onto society The Pahlavi monarchs used it to project an image of Iran as an ancient civilisation re-emerging as an equal to Western nations while the revolutionaries deployed it to remake the country into an Islamic nation Just as Iranian culture has been continually re-interpreted the representations and avocations of Iranian identity vary amongst Iranians across the world Iranian Culture Representation and Identity demonstrates these fissures and the incompatibilities that refuse to be written out of national culture analysing works of literature popular music graphic art and film as well as oral narratives Using works produced before and after the 1979 revolution created both inside and outside of Iran this study reveals neglected complexities and contradictions in the field of Iranian cultural production It considers how contested claims to culture whether they originated in Iran or the Iranian diaspora shape our understanding of this culture and what spaces they create for new articulations of it and in doing so offers an important re examination of our collective concept of culture This book would be an excellent resource for students and scholars of Middle East Studies and Iranian Studies specifically Iranian culture including film and contemporary literature and the Iranian diaspora

Contemporary Iran Ali Gheissari, 2009-04-02 Iran is a key player in some of the most crucial issues of our time But because of its relative diplomatic isolation and the partisan nature of conflicting accounts voiced by different interest groups both inside and outside the country there is a shortage of hard information about the scale and depth of social change in today's Iran In this volume and imposing roster of both internationally renowned Iranian scholars and rising young Iranian academics offer contributions many based on recent fieldwork on the nature and evolution of Iran's economy significant aspects of Iran's changing society and the dynamics of its domestic and international politics since the 1979 revolution focusing particularly on the post Khomeini period The book will be of great interest not only to Iran specialists but also to scholars of comparative politics democratization social change politics in the Muslim world and Middle Eastern studies

Generation in Waiting Navtej Dhillon, Tarik Yousef, 2011-09-01 Young people in the Middle East 15-29 years old constitute about one third of the region's population Growth rates for this age group trail only sub-Saharan Africa This presents the region with an historic opportunity to build a lasting foundation for prosperity by harnessing the full potential of its young population Yet young people in the Middle East face severe economic and social exclusion due to substandard education high unemployment and poverty Thus the inclusion of youth is the most critical development challenge facing the Middle East today A Generation in Waiting portrays the plight of young people urging greater investment designed to improve the lives of this critical group It brings together perspectives from the Maghreb to the Levant Each chapter addresses the complex challenges facing young people in many areas of their lives access to decent education opportunities for quality employment availability of housing and credit and transitioning to marriage and family formation This volume presents policy implications and sets an agenda for economic development creating a more hopeful future for this and future generations in the Middle East Selected contributors include Ragui Assaad University of Minnesota Brahim Boudarbat University of Montreal Jad Chaaban American University in Beirut Nader Kabbani Syria Trust for Development Taher Kanaan Jordan Center for Public Policy Research and Dialogue Djavad Salehi Isfahani Wolfensohn Center for Development and Virginia Tech and Edward Sayre University of Southern Mississippi

International encyclopedia of adolescence Jeffrey Jensen Arnett, 2007

Publisher description Adolescent Psychology in Today's World Michael J. Nakkula, Andrew J.

Schneider-Muñoz, 2018-11-02 This groundbreaking three volume set spotlights how conditions around the world are affecting the healthy development of adolescents in their respective environments on all six continents Continually unstable or perpetually poor economic conditions globalization and rapid technological change are just three of the forces affecting a group of 1.2 billion strong today a demographic poised to become our world leaders and catalysts in the not too distant future the world's adolescents Led by two editors who have been dedicated to studying adolescent development worldwide for decades this novel collection of works from contributors in more than 40 countries emphasizes how possibilities for healthy mental and physical development are affected by the difficulties youths face in their countries and how these challenges have shaped and are shaping contemporary teenage life today The set comprehensively addresses issues for adolescents across the globe such as the day to day challenges of poverty inadequate education violence or war disease reproductive matters globalization and technological challenges and more while also providing a strengths based focus in the volumes showing how and why some teenagers in each country have surmounted the challenges and forged stronger characters to better their worlds These stories document more than personal victories and their experiences matter to far more than the adolescents themselves In its State of the World's Children 2011 report UNICEF noted that the world community needs to turn its attention to adolescents in need explaining that focusing on this large and potentially powerful group makes economic sense as well as being a necessary step in working towards achieving human justice By addressing the risks challenges and strengths of teenagers as a group in countries worldwide this work serves to break the cycle of poverty violence discrimination and death for adolescents

A Social History of Iranian Cinema, Volume 3 Hamid Naficy, 2011 Covering the late nineteenth century to the early twenty first and addressing documentaries popular genres and art films this four volume set explains Iran's peculiar cinematic production modes as well as the role of cinema and media in shaping modernity and a modern national identity in Iran Page 4 of cover Drugs, Deviancy and Democracy in Iran Janne Bjerre

Christensen, 2011-09-30 In the aftermath of the Iranian Revolution the government of the Islamic Republic initiated a stringent anti drug campaign that included fining addicts imprisonment physical punishment and even the death penalty Despite these measures drug use was and is still commonplace Based on her most recent fieldwork Janne Bjerre Christensen explores the mounting problems of drug use in Iran how treatment became legalized in 1998 how local NGOs offer methadone treatment in Tehran and face continuous political challenges in doing so and how drug use is critically discussed in Iranian media and cinema Drugs Deviancy and Democracy in Iran is thus a unique account of Iran's recent social and political history drawing important conclusions about the complexity of state power and the growing impact of civil society vital for all those interested in Iran's history politics and society

Vanguard of the Imam Afshon Ostovar, 2016 Iran's Revolutionary Guards are one of the most important forces in the Middle East today but remain poorly understood to outside observers In Vanguard of the Imam Afshon Ostovar has written the first comprehensive history of the organization Situating the rise of the Guards in the contexts of Shiite Islam Iranian history and international affairs Ostovar takes a multifaceted approach in demystifying the organization and detailing its evolution since 1979 The book documents the Guards transformation into a power player and explores why the group matters now more than ever to regional and global affairs It is simultaneously a history of modern Iran and an engrossing entryway into the complex world of war politics and identity in the Middle East

Iran Negin Nabavi,2012-08-30 Recent Iranian history has been full of unexpected turns Whether it was the 1979 revolution which resulted in the establishment of the first ever Islamic Republic in the history of the Muslim world the rise to power of the reformist movement in 1997 or the emergence of the Green Movement an opposition movement that took shape spontaneously in the days immediately following the presidential elections in June 2009 the world has been taken unawares at every juncture This book brings together essays that both speculate on the import of the developments of 2009 and shed light on the complexities and the ever changing dynamics of post revolutionary Iran

Nomads in Postrevolutionary Iran Lois Beck,2014-09-19 Examining the rapid transition in Iran from a modernizing westernizing secularizing monarchy 1941 79 to a hard line conservative clergy run Islamic republic 1979 this book focuses on the ways this process has impacted the Qashqa i a rural nomadic tribally organized Turkish speaking ethnic minority of a million and a half people who are dispersed across the southern Zagros Mountains Analysing the relationship between the tribal polity and each of the two regimes the book goes on to explain the resilience of the people s tribal organizations kinship networks and politicized ethnolinguistic identities to demonstrate how these structures and ideologies offered the Qashqa i a way to confront the pressures emanating from the two central governments Existing scholarly works on politics in Iran rarely consider Iranian society outside the capital of Tehran and beyond the reach of the details of national politics Local level studies on Iran accounts of the ways people actually lived are now rare especially after the revolution Based on long term anthropological research Nomads in Postrevolutionary Iran provides a unique insight into how national level issues relate to the local level and will be of interest to scholars and researchers in Anthropolgy Iranian Studies and Middle Eastern Studies

A Social History of Iranian Cinema, Volume 4 Hamid Naficy,2011 In the fourth and final volume of A History of Iranian Cinema Hamid Naficy looks at the extraordinary efflorescence in Iranian film and other visual media since the Islamic Revolution

Iran and the Shia Janey Levy,2009-08-15 Discusses the history of the Shia community in Iran including its rise to power during the Islamic Revolution and how it influences both political and daily life in the nation

Book of Queens Pardis Mahdavi,2023-08-22 The untold story of generations of Middle Eastern freedom fighters horsewomen who safeguarded an ancient breed of Caspian horse and their efforts to defend their homelands from the Taliban and others seeking to destroy them A

brehtaking book that revisits nearly one hundred years of Iranian history highlighting the power and beauty of women who refuse to be subdued Alison Hawthorne Deming author of A Woven World Book of Queens reaches back centuries to the Persian Empire and a woman disguised as a man facing an invading army protected only by light armor and the stallion she sat astride Mahdavi draws a thread from past to present from her fearless Iranian grandmother who guided survivors of domestic violence to independent mountain colonies in Afghanistan where the women led by a general named Mina became their country's first line of defense from marauding warlords To the female warriors who helped train and breed the horses used by US Green Berets when they touched down in October 2001 with a mission but insufficient intelligence on the ground women whose contributions were then forgotten Pardis Mahdavi chases the legacy of Caspian horses and the women whose lives are saved by them drawing on decades of research newly discovered diaries and exclusive military sources Among those intersecting stories is that of American Louise Firouz who helped bring the breed back from the brink of extinction connecting Virginia traders to British royals to the son of the Shah Firouz's life is forever changed when she meets Mahdavi's own family who run an unusual smuggling operation in addition to raising horses in a wild bid for freedom Book of Queens is an epic tale of hidden women whose communal knowledge was instrumental in saving an animal as ancient as civilization and who were the genesis of their own liberation

Becoming Visible in Iran Mehri Honarbin-Holliday, 2009-02-28 The state of women in Islamic societies is the subject of much interest and heated debate Yet these discussions and representations in the media and elsewhere rely on inadequate information and misperceptions imagining Muslim women as oppressed victims in need of liberation by outside forces Becoming Visible in Iran disputes these widespread stereotypes providing a vivid account of women in contemporary Iran as they go about their daily lives Beginning at home women are infusing dramatic change by challenging the patriarchal conceptions of their fathers brothers uncles and others within the intimate sphere of family and home Empowered by education they transport the power of their minds and being from the domestic to the public and political Mehri Honarbin Holliday presents the experiences of these young women who wield a key if indirect political influence on the seemingly male dominated politics of this society as they achieve a new visibility She shows us how women understand their place in contemporary Iranian society and how they interrogate it making demands for shifts in attitudes and behaviours both at home in relation to male relatives and in the wider world Women's daily existence weaves between the public and the private from home to classrooms parks metros cafes and taxis negotiating socio political limitations and the current regime's policies of female invisibility Detailed interviews and striking narratives draw our attention to the women's reflexive and critical stance and their desires to be recognized as independent and active architects of their own personal lives whilst also contributing to the discourses of change and a more just civil society From this fieldwork and focusing especially on young women Honarbin Holliday presents women's views on such key topics as public visibility body presentation and sexual curiosity in addition to education civil society and political and social change Highlighting links and continuities with the history of women in Iran from the early twentieth century to the present moment she shows how Iranian women today strive to be the author of one's fate to resist narrow interpretations of religion to conduct meaningful rich and complex lives to bring about change in the mindsets of male relatives and to contribute to legal and political debates in the country For its direct presentation of women's voices as well as its analysis and insight this book is a vital contribution to our understanding of the lives of Muslim women and the possibilities before them today Becoming Visible in Iran is indispensable for those concerned with women in Islamic societies gender studies sociology anthropology as well as Iran and the Middle East
