Workday has also taken its efforts to build its client base. The company built a series of Web-based tools for customers, an online resource it is now releasing. They have dozens of tools that help to lower customer service and support-related issues. They spend little money on salespeople, so sales is done primarily through direct sales and through partnerships with other companies. They spend little money on advertising, either. They rely on word-of-mouth to help to spread the word. "We're not the only company in the world that does it," says a former executive at Sun, "but we're the only one that does it right."
