J. Maier,2004 The many adventures of the epic in modern times are fascinating topics in themselves The Romantics claimed that every self respecting nation should at some time have had one and they set out to reconstruct these epics for political as well as cultural reasons Such epics represented earlier stages in the development of nation states and in this modern world they were for a long time hard to appreciate The introduction of tape recorders however brought the epic back in the limelight It became fashionable for scholars to record long oral narratives and to present them as long written poems that reflected deeply ingrained ideas Because of this technology the idea of the epic was revitalized This volume presents critical analyses of epics in Sub Saharan Africa the former Soviet Union South East Asia Medieval Europe and America and discusses the process of revitalization sometimes even invention of epics in particular historical political and academic contexts Jan Jansen is a member of the Department of Anthropology of the University of Leiden Netherlands Henk M J Maier is professor in the Department of Languages and Cultures of Southeast Asia and Oceania of the University of Leiden Netherlands STRENGTHENING SECTOR POLICIES FOR BETTER FOOD SECURITY AND NUTRITION RESULTS: Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2018-11-07 Extreme climate events are increasing in frequency and intensity threatening the agriculture sectors and the livelihoods they support By impacting on agro ecosystems climate change and variability have socio economic implications on the livelihoods and food security and nutrition of the most vulnerable On the other hand the agriculture sectors are also significant greenhouse gas emitters This note aims to serve as orientation material for policy advisors and policymakers confronted with the challenge of ensuring food security and nutrition in the face of climate change and extreme climate events Education Networks Joel Spring,2012-03-22 Education Networks is a critical analysis of the emerging intersection among the global power elite information and communication technology and schools Joel Spring documents and examines the economic and political interests and forces including elite networks the for profit education industry data managers and professional educators that are pushing the use of ICT for online instruction test preparation and tutoring data management instructional software packages and more and looks closely at the impact this is having on schools students and learning Making a distinction between mind as socially constructed and brain as a physiological entity Spring draws on recent findings from comparative psychology on the possible effects of ICT on the social construction of the minds of students and school managers and from neuroscience regarding its effect on students brains Throughout the influence of elite networks and powerful interest groups is linked to what is happening to children in classrooms In conclusion Spring offers bold suggestions to change the course of the looming technological triumph of ICT in the brave new world of schooling
