Zimbabwean Grade Past Exam Papers:

Teacher in Zimbabwe, 2014 Education in the New Zimbabwe, 1988 Zimbabwe National Bibliography, 1996
Primary School Achievement in English and Mathematics in Zimbabwe Levi M. Nyagura, Abby Rubin Riddell, 1993 In Zimbabwe's primary schools higher achievement in math is associated with the amount of teacher training and instructional time as well as the pupil teacher ratio Higher achievement in English is associated with the pupil teacher and textbook to pupil ratios as well as the amount of teacher training School Science Practical Work in Africa Umesh Ramnarain, 2020-06-01 School Science Practical Work in Africa presents the scope of research and practice of science practical work in African schools It brings together prominent science educators and researchers from Africa to share their experience and findings on pedagogical innovations and research informed practices on school science practical work The book highlights trends and patterns in the enactment and role of practical work across African countries Practical work is regarded as intrinsic to science teaching and learning and the form of practical work that is strongly advocated is inquiry based learning which signals a definite paradigm shift from the traditional teacher dominated to a learner centered approach The book provides empirical research on approaches to practical work contextual factors in the enactment of practical work and professional development in teaching practical work This book will be of great interest to academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of science education and educational policy Membering the Rhodesian Linguistic Agenda in Zimbabwe Isaac Mhute, 2023-07-28 Membering the Rhodesian Linguistic Agenda in Zimbabwe reports on a study carried out in Zimbabwe to ascertain the degree and effect of honouring the colonial linguistic agenda The book employs an interpretivist philosophy and qualitative research approach that relies on participatory observations interviewing purposively sampled informants and focus group discussions involving snowball sampled graduates It was inspired by the Critical Language Policy Theory that considers language choice a critical determinant factor in how communities are administered politically economically socioculturally and educationally It establishes that whereas linguistic imperialism meant to serve as the lifeblood of the Southern Rhodesian colonial machine the former coloniser ensured coloniality in Zimbabwe by presenting the English language as a sacred media in political economic sociocultural and educational settings forever The study establishes that the only way Zimbabwe and other such post colonies could find redemption is by eradicating the sacredness of former colonisers languages by adding value to all their languages and the indigenous knowledge systems associated with them It also demonstrates that the bigger the delay the more is irretrievably lost together with custodians of the languages This book will be informative for undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in linguistics communication sociology anthropology and history It may also serve well as a resource to government researchers politicians and other policymakers Resources in Education, 1996 Keeper of Faith Tatenda Taibu, 2019-05-23 Tatenda Taibu's first autobiography is his complete life story from his uncompromising upbringing in the township of Highfield Harare to becoming the youngest international cricket captain in history to quitting the game that made him at the age of 29 to pursue his faith In this revealing tome Taibu lifts the lid on the challenges of representing Zimbabwe in the era of Robert Mugabe and details how constant controversy and conflict ultimately restrict meaningful progress

Hope Deferred Peter Orner, Annie Holmes, 2023-06-15 Hope Deferred asks the question How did Zimbabwe a country with so much promise a stellar education system a growing middle class a sophisticated economic infrastructure a liberal constitution and an independent judiciary come so close to collapse In their own words Zimbabweans tell their stories of losing their homes land livelihoods and families as a direct result of political violence They describe being tortured in detention firebombed at work or beaten up or raped to punish votes for the opposition Those forced to flee to neighboring countries recount their escapes cutting through fences swimming across crocodile infested rivers and entrusting themselves to human smugglers This book includes Zimbabweans of every age class and political conviction from farm laborers and academics to doctors and artists ordinary people surviving the fragmentation of a once thriving nation

Conducting Educational Research R. Murray Thomas, 1998-09-30 Emphasizing the comparative aspects of research this introduction to educational research traces the process through five stages choosing what to study including specifying the research problem collecting information organizing and summarizing information interpreting results and reporting the outcomes Each of the stages offers diverse options available to researchers for solving the problems of that stage and a research project checklist at the end of each chapter guides readers in applying the chapter's contents to their own research studies In much educational discourse comparative education has referred solely to the study of educational similarities and differences between regions of the world or between two or more nations This book uses the broader definition of the term to encompass a large body of research including studies focusing on comparisons between local educational systems schools classrooms language groups religious denominations genders social classes and individual students Students who are planning research projects as well as staff members of such organizations as ministries of education school systems bureaus of educational research and educational aid agencies will find this volume indispensable
