Joshua Mqabuko Nkomo of Zimbabwe Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni,2017-08-17 This book is a pioneering study of Joshua Mqabuko Nkomo a Zimbabwean nationalist whose crucial role in the country s anti colonial struggle has largely gone unrecognized These essays trace his early influence on Zimbabwean nationalism in the late 1950s and his leadership in the armed liberation movement and postcolonial national building processes as well as his denigration by the winners of the 1980 elections Mugabe s Zimbabwe African National Union Patriotic Front The Nkomo that emerges is complex and contested the embodiment of Zimbabwe s tortured trajectory from colony to independent postcolonial state This is an essential corrective to the standard history of twentieth century Zimbabwe and an invaluable resource for scholars of African nationalist liberation movements and nation building Development Naivety and Emergent Insecurities in a

Monopolised World Munyaradzi Mawere,2018-09-17 It is common knowledge that development without security is like a runaway horse Yet development in Africa has been plagued by insecurities since the extractive periods of slave trade and colonialism In spite of political independence and the euphoria of sovereignty as states Africa has failed to address insecurity which continues to loom large and to threaten aspirations towards truly inclusive and sustainable development A consequence has been Africa s development naivety vis vis the monopolisation of development by the predatory elite actors of the global North and their local facilitators To salvage the continent from such predation and the insecurities engendered requires novel and innovative imagination and praxis This book draws from both the haunted landscapes and bitter memories of past exploitations and from the feeding of the insatiable North with African resources and humanity It brings together essays by a concerned generation of scholars driven by the urgent need for radical decolonisation of African development and its legacies of insecurities It is handy to students and practitioners in economics policy studies political science development studies global and African studies Infrastructures for Peace in Sub-Saharan Africa Mediel Hove, Geoff Harris, 2019-06-14 Cultures of violence are characteristic of many countries in sub Saharan Africa and attempts to move towards cultures of peace have often proved difficult and ineffectual And yet the wide variations in levels of violence within and between countries show that it is not inevitable rather it is the result of choices made at individual community and societal levels This book examines the potential of peace infrastructures as vehicles to strengthen and spread progress towards cultures of peace Peace infrastructures vary hugely in sophistication and level The examples examined in this book range from tiny structures which help resolve conflicts between individuals and within community organisations peace committees which serve local communities peace education and peace club programmes in schools mediation mechanisms to prevent election violence and to ministries of peace to coordinate government and non government efforts in peacemaking and peacebuilding The overall finding is that the development of peace infrastructures at all levels has great potential to build cultures of peace 1 It is the only book available which documents the experience and potential of nonviolence in post independence sub Saharan Africa 2 It makes a persuasive case for the development of various peace infrastructures in order to make peace sustainable 3 It explains how strategic planning can be utilised both to bring about change and to institutionalise it Dispute Settlement Reports 2018: Volume 10, Pages 5247 to 5864 World Trade

Organization, 2020-03-12 The Dispute Settlement Reports are the WTO authorized and paginated reports in English They are an essential addition to the library of all practicing and academic trade lawyers and needed by students worldwide taking courses in international economic or trade law DSR 2018 Volume 10 reports on Australia Certain Measures Concerning Trademarks Geographical Indications and Other Plain Packaging Requirements Applicable to Tobacco Products and Packaging WT DS435 WT DS441 WT DS458 WT DS467 and United States Certain Methodologies and their Application to Anti Dumping Proceedings Involving China Arbitration under Article 21 3 c of the DSU WT DS471 Civil Society in

Zimbabwe Mandlenkosi Mpofu, Dion Nkomo, Kirk Helliker, 2025-09-01 This book considers the historical and spatial dimensions of civil society in Zimbabwe s Matabeleland region an area suffering from severe development and democratic deficits over many decades Transcending an organisational conception of civil society and a simplistic state civil society dualist understanding it recognises the dynamic character of civil society as a social space inclusive of less formalised associational forms of collective life as well as the colonial character and legacies of civil society both analytically and empirically This book facilitates a nuanced understanding of the specificities of the social political and economic evolution of Matabeleland in colonial and post colonial Zimbabwe and the region s troubled relations with the central state Historically it traces civil society in Matabeleland from the region s resistance against the colonial settler state to contemporary struggles for justice given the unresolved Gukurahundi legacy Civil society is depicted as constituted by a set of complex and shifting struggles for justice not simply between Matabeleland and the central state but also internally within Matabeleland along multiple fault lines including class and culture The relevance of understanding civil society in Matabeleland for Zimbabwe and Africa more widely is brought to the fore The book will be of interest and value to scholars of civil society politics and democratisation across the African continent Mugabeism after Mugabe? Thomas Duri,Ngonidzashe

Marongwe,2019-10-22 Arguably one of the long waited political handover of power globally happened in November 2017 in Zimbabwe when the former and now late 37 year long serving and divisive President Robert Gabriel Mugabe was forced out of power by a combination of forces that were spearheaded by the militarys Operation Restore Legacy Mugabes departure ushered in President Emmerson Dambudzo Mnangagwas reign This transition has variously been characterised as marking the inauguration of the Second Republic or New Dispensation or as heralding a new Zimbabwe that is Open for Business From the moment of the investiture of President Mnangagwas government anticipations of seismic changes to the order of doing business by both the incoming government and the larger Zimbabwean society in general were extremely high There was an expectation that international cooperation with global partners especially in the West would be restored alongside the reinvigoration of a near comatose domestic economy But did this ever happen This volume interrogates the impact of the introduction of the Mnangagwa administration from November 2017 The book seeks to broadly dissect and troubleshoot issues of continuity and change from Mugabes reign into Mnangagwas Second Republic In doing so the book attempts to respond to the grand question To what extent has Mugabeism that was the hallmark of Mugabes reign continued or discontinued into the Second Republic The volume which comes as a sequel to The end of an era Robert Mugabe and a conflicting legacy is sure to generate interest and responses from students and academics in the fields of History International Studies Political Science Sociology and Social anthropology as well as from practitioners in the human rights transitional justice conflict resolution security studies and diplomatic fields Black and White Agnieszka

Piotrowska,2016-10-04 In Black and White Agnieszka Piotrowska presents a unique insight into the contemporary arts scene in Zimbabwe an area that has received very limited coverage in research and the media The book combines theory with literature film politics and culture and takes a psychosocial and psychoanalytic perspective to achieve a truly interdisciplinary analysis Piotrowska focuses in particular on the Harare International Festival of the Arts HIFA as well as the cinema featuring the work of Rumbi Katedza and Joe Njagu Her personal experience of time spent in Harare working in collaborative relationships with Zimbabwean artists and filmmakers informs the book throughout It features examples of their creative work on the ground and examines the impact it has had on the community and the local media Piotrowska uses her experiences to analyse concepts of trauma and post colonialism in Zimbabwe and interrogates her position as a stranger there questioning patriarchal notions of belonging and authority Black and White also presents a different perspective on convergences in the work of Doris Lessing and iconic Zimbabwean writer Dambudzo Marechera and how it might be relevant to contemporary race relations Black and White will be intriguing reading for psychoanalysts psychotherapists and psychotherapeutically engaged scholars film makers academics and students of post colonial studies film studies cultural studies psychosocial studies and applied philosophy Kanyenze: Zimbabwe: The Link Between Politics and

,2023-03-20 In this accessible and authoritative book Godfrey Kanyenze provides a comprehensive and far reaching analysis of the socio economic development in Zimbabwe in light of the expanding authoritarianism and the ongoing destruction of democratic institutions during the four decades after independence Kanyenze describes the various phases of the socio economic development starting with 1980 when the people of Zimbabwe saw their hard won independence and new democracy as a promise for a Neo-Liberal Urban Development in Post-Colonial Zimbabwe Terence Tapiwa

Muzorewa,2025-07-14 This book investigates the role of private land developers in the development of Ruwa Town in post colonial Zimbabwe Whereas other post colonial established towns in the country emerged from direct public investment through the Growth Point policy Ruwa emerged from a public private partnership approach The development of Ruwa Town is therefore a valuable example of a new post colonial experience in urban planning and development which is a clear departure from the colonial town planning which was premised on racial segregation This book offers unique insights into the historical context the role of private developers in the growth of the city the impact of their involvement bringing a comparative analysis with state led development It offers a valuable contribution to the field of urban studies particularly within the context of urban development in post colonial Zimbabwe and in Africa Ivory Keith Somerville,2019-10-30

Comprehensive exploration of history and politics of ivory in Africa Zimbabwe International Monetary Fund. African Dept.,2015-10-08 This paper discusses Zimbabwe s Second Review of the Staff Monitored Program The program is on track Four of the five quantitative targets for end June 2015 and all the structural benchmarks for the second review were met Although a recently contracted 200 million nonconcessional loan breached the quantitative target on nonconcessional borrowing it avoided the accumulation of additional external arrears The IMF staff welcomes the authorities intentions to continue seeking financing through grants and loans that are as concessional as possible and to limit contracting non concessional loans to within the ceiling set under the program and to prioritize investment that would eventually raise Zimbabwe s capacity to repay Language Matters in Contemporary Zimbabwe Collen Sabao,Esther

Mavengano,2024-06-17 Speaking to a broader global preoccupation with the state of languages and language development this book considers issues surrounding the diverse languages linguistic communities and cultures of Zimbabwe Reflecting on Shona Xitsonga Sotho Xhosa Tjwao Nambya IsiNdebele Nyanja Tshivenda English and Braille the book uncovers both the internal and external factors that impact language structures language use and language ideologies across the country The book considers how colonial legacies and contemporary language domination and minoritisation have led to language endangerment It considers the fate of communities whose languages are marginalised and in the process poses questions on what can and should be done to preserve Zimbabwean languages The authors offerings range across subjects as diverse as music linguistic innovation education human rights literature language politics and language policy in order to build a rich and nuanced picture of language matters in the country Coming at a critical moment of increasing mobility migration cultural plurality and globalisation this book will be an important resource for researchers across African literature linguistics communication policy and politics

Disability and Sexuality in Zimbabwe Christine Peta, 2017-10-25 Disabled women represent one of the most marginalised minority groups in the world hence they are largely silent while their sexuality is ignored suppressed forbidden and buried underneath the carpet Until recently most of the Global Northern published literature on the subject of the sexuality of disabled women has predominantly been constructed from hearsay and second hand narratives in studies which draw from the perspectives of parents service providers and advocates without much consultation of the relevant women By facilitating the voice of disabled women in Zimbabwe and illuminating their experiences of sexuality this book hopes to shift the experiences of sexuality of disabled women from the periphery of society to the fore Disability and Sexuality in Zimbabwe presents original research on an issue that is thus far not found in local research data Whilst addressing the paucity of literature on the subject the book informs policy and practice and enhances the existing body of knowledge by making recommendations towards the development of a disability and sexuality framework that is rooted in the African context This book is of interest to students and scholars of African studies disability studies sociology psychology social work nursing education studies geography women s and gender studies and interdisciplinary studies Additional audiences include a wide range of health social care and educational professionals and practitioners as well donors disabled people s organisations charities government departments NGOs supranational organisations and policy makers

The African Conundrum Mawere, Munyaradzi, Mubaya, Tapuwa R., 2017-05-22 The African conundrum is rooted out of the historical philosophical and cultural bastardisation imbalances and inequalities which many post colonial African governments have always sought to address though with varying degrees of success since the 1960s Lamentably this African conundrum is rarely examined in a systematic manner that takes into account the geopolitical milieu of the continent past and present This volume seeks to interrogate and examine the extent of the impact of the geopolitical seesaw which seems poised to tip in favour of the Global North The book grapples with the question on how Africa can wake up from its cavernous intellectual slumber to break away from both material and psychological dependency and achieve a transformative political and socio economic self reinvention and self assertion While the African conundrum is largely a result of historic oppression and a resilient colonial legacy this book urges Africans to rethink their condition in a manner that makes Africa responsible and accountable for its own destiny The book argues that it is through this rethinking that Africa can successfully transcend the logic of post imperial dependency

Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Zimbabwe's Liberation Struggle Munyaradzi Nyakudya, Wesley Mwatwara, Joseph Mujere, 2022-11-15 This book provides a timely reconceptualization of Zimbabwe s anti colonial liberation struggle resisting simple binaries in favour of more nuanced critical analysis Most historiographies characterize Zimbabwe's liberation struggle as being defined by simple bifurcations along racial ethnic class and ideological perspectives This book argues that the nationalist struggle is far more complex than such simple configurations would suggest and that many actors have been overlooked in the analysis The book broadens our understanding by analysing the roles of a wide range of political figures organizations and members of the military as well as the media and the often overlooked part that women played Over the course of the book the contributors also reflect on the ways in which revolutionary figures have been repainted as sellouts in particular by the ZANU PF ruling party and what that means for the country's interpretation of their recent past Highlighting in particular the expertise of leading scholars from within Zimbabwe across a range of disciplines this book will be of interest to researchers of African history politics and postcolonial studies

Urban Informality in South Africa and Zimbabwe Inocent Moyo, Trynos Gumbo, 2021-01-09 This book adds to the research of urban informality in the Global South with a specific focus on South Africa and Zimbabwe It addresses the agency and the potential transformative capacity of the phenomenon of urban informality in connection with Southern African cities and towns It adopts a political economy approach to analyse the evolution of informality in cities and its implications for urban planning It brings to bear how the South African and Zimbabwean historical and or ideological and contemporary political and economic trajectories have impacted on the ever changing nature of urban informality both spatially and structurally and or compositionally thus resulting in unique urban materialities which are aspects that have scarcely been studied or discussed in the extant literature This book therefore seeks to close the academic gap by dealing with the dearth of literature on spatial re locational discourses of urban informality The work positions urban informality as a resilient force with potency in terms of political mobilisation and re shaping urban spaces Though these are fundamental issues they have received comparatively little attention especially in literature that focuses on the Southern African region Accordingly undergraduate and post graduate students as well as academics in the fields of Urban Geography Political Science Development Studies Sociology Town and Regional Planning among others will find the range of topics and depth of coverage in this book particularly valuable Similarly practitioners and activists on issues of urban informality and urban governance will find the book very useful

Religion, Women's Health Rights, and Sustainable Development in Zimbabwe: Volume 2 Sophia Chirongoma, Molly Manyonganise, Ezra Chitando, 2022-08-26 This volume brings to the fore the interface of religion women s sexual reproductive health and rights SRHR and the sustainable development goals SDGs in Zimbabwe It emphasizes that empowering African women is a pivotal pillar for attaining sustainable development Contributors discuss the need for implementing structural changes as a prerequisite for social progress and development to occur in Southern Africa They interrogate the extent to which religious beliefs and practices either promote or impede women s SRHR The contributors also proffer several ways in which addressing the themes of health for all and equality for all women and girls can make a meaningful contribution towards the fulfillment of the goals set for Agenda 2030
