Jacob Wilson Chikuhwa

Zimsec Nov 2005 Economics Answers:

Zimbabwe At The Crossroads Jacob Wilson Chikuhwa, 2006-05-15 The theme of Zimbabwe at the Crossroads is on issues of governance and economic management The story being told is how a prosperous country at independence in 1980 has virtually turned from a bread basket to a begging bowl After the success with A Crisis of Governance Zimbabwe Dr Jacob Chikuhwa continues the tragic analysis of the Zimbabwean economy An analysis set against a backdrop of growing poverty in a country with abundant human and natural resources this book weaves together a cast of socio economic factors that form the causes of the economic quagmire This academic expos brings to the fore the desperate hope for democracy and economic recovery in Zimbabwe International donor agencies and institutions specialising in African development studies will be delighted with Jacob Chikuhwa's latest instalment whose driving force is the statistical analysis of events in the southern African country

Zimbabwe Will Never be a Colony Again! Munoda Mararike, 2019-06-25 This is a thought provoking original book based on a wealth of empirical case studies of how Zimbabwe experienced illegal economic sanctions It is a study of how the humanly constructed obstructions from external remittances finance flows into the country to finance embargos or total financial blockages are deliberately created by so called powerful governments to deal with an errand country The infamous Zimbabwe Democracy Economic Recovery Act of 2001 ZDERA is part of a raft of punitive measures and discourses that the USA UK and Europe used to make the economy in the words of US's Chester Crocker scream It is the same powerful countries who allow their Multinational Corporations to loot while they impose sanctions against African governments and their peoples to make them scream The book is an insightful contribution on Africa's contemporary post colonial liberation politics of development economics It focuses on Zimbabwe as a synthesis of microcosmic study that provides accessible in depth analysis of key aspects of sanctions as a weapon of control wielded by the so called powerful governments of the Global North Zimbabwe was clobbered with post independence economic sanctions after its land reform programme which benefitted its mostly colonially dispossessed African citizens The land reform was intended as a reversal of colonial injustice and a counter restitutive measure against imperialism The book invites the reader to see power differently as compassion and the capacity to right past wrongs by protecting all and sundry from inequality and poverty Sanctions even when called targeted are non discriminatory as they affect ordinary citizens with the same ferocity and savagery as against intended target albeit often missing the target Sanctions are lethal Sanctions are a graveyard for the poor weak and vulnerable This is an idea of power that the Global North failed to grasp when they decided to punish the Mugabe government for daring to contemplate justice and restitution

Business Solutions for the Global Poor V. Kashturi Rangan, John A. Quelch, Gustavo Herrero, Brooke Barton, 2007-02-03 Based on research presented at The Harvard Business School's first ever conference on business approaches to poverty alleviation Business Solutions for the Global Poor brings together perspectives from leading academics and corporate non profit and public sector managers The contributors draw on practical and dynamic how to insights from leading BOP ventures from more than twenty countries world wide This important volume reflects poverty s multi faceted nature and a broad range of actors multinational and local businesses entrepreneurs civil society organizations and governments that play a role in its alleviation Tourism and Transport David Timothy Duval,2007 This book investigates the complex relationship between transport provision and tourism While focusing on the various modes and types of transport available it also discusses the form and extent of transport networks that tie destinations together and the regulatory environments that dictate transport flows on an international scale The environmental implications for transport including climate change and emissions also features Urban Informality in South Africa and Zimbabwe Inocent Moyo,Trynos Gumbo,2021-01-09 This book adds to the research of urban informality in the Global South with a specific focus on South Africa and Zimbabwe It addresses the agency and the potential transformative capacity of the phenomenon of urban informality in connection with Southern African cities and towns It adopts a political economy approach to analyse the evolution of informality in cities and its implications for urban planning It brings to bear how the South African and Zimbabwean historical and or ideological and contemporary political and economic trajectories have impacted on the ever changing nature of urban informality both spatially and structurally and or compositionally thus resulting in unique urban materialities which are aspects that have scarcely been studied or discussed in the extant literature This book therefore seeks to close the academic gap by dealing with the dearth of literature on spatial re locational discourses of urban informality The work positions urban informality as a resilient force with potency in terms of political mobilisation and re shaping urban spaces Though these are fundamental issues they have received comparatively little attention especially in literature that focuses on the Southern African region Accordingly undergraduate and post graduate students as well as academics in the fields of Urban Geography Political Science Development Studies Sociology Town and Regional Planning among others will find the range of topics and depth of coverage in this book particularly valuable Similarly practitioners and activists on issues of urban informality and urban governance will find the book very useful OSSREA Bulletin ,2004 Groundwater Economics Charles A. Job,2009-12-21 From the western United States to the Indian subcontinent water issues have always been economic issues Considered ubiquitous under the continents groundwater varies considerably in depth quality accessibility and availability A unified discussion of groundwater and its economic importance Groundwater Economics explores the application of e The International Migration of Health Workers John Connell,2008-02-11 Drawing together work on the migration of health workers in a range of global contexts this title provides a detailed overview of the growing phenomenon of the international migration of skilled health workers nurses doctors and a range of more specialized workers Towards Democratic Development States in Southern Africa Kanyenze, Godfrey,Jauch, Herbert,2016-12-14 The dawn of the twenty first century heralded an apparent change of fortunes for most sub Saharan African economies with annual growth averaging over 5% for fifteen years However this was not accompanied by structural transformation poverty food insecurity unemployment and inequality persist Structural transformation has not been and indeed cannot be delivered by market forces and neoliberal economic policies it requires a state committed to development and to achieving it in a democratic way To what extent do the countries of Southern Africa exhibit the characteristics of such a developmental state What steps if any do they need to take in order to become one The book answers the questions with respect to South Africa Botswana Namibia Zimbabwe Angola and Malawi Godfrey Kanyenze and his colleagues have assembled a distinguished team of writers to take the temperature of the regional political economy and chart a path for its future development

Community of Insecurity Laurie Nathan, 2016-05-23 Exploring the formation evolution and effectiveness of the regional security arrangements of the Southern African Development Community SADC Nathan examines a number of vital and troubling questions why has SADC struggled to establish a viable security regime why has it been unable to engage in successful peacemaking and why has it defied the optimistic prognosis in the early 1990s that it would build a security community in Southern Africa He argues that the answers to these questions lie in the absence of common values among member states the weakness of these states and their unwillingness to surrender sovereignty to the regional organization Paradoxically the challenge of building a co operative security regime lies more at the national level than at the regional level The author s perspective is based on a unique mix of insider access analytical rigour and accessible theory

Labour Conditions for Construction Roderick Lawrence, Edmundo Werna, 2009-06-29 This authoritative guide promotes safe healthy and non exploitative working conditions for the construction industry It combines theoretical analysis and case studies from around the world offering recommendations for best practice The book results from a project funded by the Geneva International Academic Network with staff from the International Labour Office and the University of Geneva It presents and discusses the challenges and potential of local authorities to promote decent work in construction Existing literature on decent work focuses mainly on the roles and responsibilities of actors in the private sector but the contribution of the public sector should not be ignored Local authorities play a crucial role in economic development through a range of policies and programmes in the construction sector and related services Labour Conditions for Construction decent work building cities the role of local authorities includes a methodology that combines quantitative and qualitative information It defines and validates a set of criteria to evaluate the capacity of local authorities combining criteria about decent work the construction sector and the policies and programmes of the local authority in each case study city The book fills an important gap in focussing on the role of local authorities in creating and promoting decent work and will be of interest to managers and policy makers in construction health and safety and labour relations as well as to researchers and students in construction management

Encyclopedia of Social Work, 1965 The Southern African Development Community Gabriël H. Oosthuizen, 2006 This book published in July 2006 significantly complements the burgeoning literature on regional integration in Africa It is the most up to date guide to SADC s history and institutions its policies and programmes legal underpinnings and position in unfolding continental and global affairs It offers a frank analysis of SADC's shortcomings achievements and prospects and reviews its extensive restructuring

Groundwater Economics, Two-Volume Set Charles A. Job, 2022-05-29 Groundwater is a vitally important resource and as its use increases the available supply is depleted creating a ripple effect of impacts on both the environment and the economy that need to be disseminated to a larger audience of students and practitioners This second edition of Groundwater Economics accomplishes just that This two volume set is a comprehensive work focused on the economic values of groundwater resources and use and it reinforces the need for a strong economic rationale in decision making relating to that use This new edition includes a new chapter on sustainability as well as updating all chapters with a focus on sustainability It thoroughly explains the economic value of groundwater for sustainable use and needs with practical examples and includes thirteen new and updated case studies on the economics of groundwater data for decision making It also addresses both local and regional groundwater economic choices through a series of applications at an international level This set written by a sustainability professional with decades of experience in managing groundwater use and protection is written for other professionals as well as students who need to understand and evaluate water resources and manage their use from a variety of sustainable approaches

Financial Inclusion and Digital Transformation Regulatory Practices in Selected SADC Countries Howard Chitimira, Tapiwa Victor Warikandwa, 2023-03-28 This book investigates the regulation and promotion of financial inclusion and provides a comparative analysis of the regulation promotion and enforcement of the relevant laws in the SADC in particular South Africa Namibia Botswana and Zimbabwe as well as the challenges of financial inclusion In turn it evaluates financial inclusion in the context of specific challenges faced by unbanked and underbanked customers who are easy targets for cyber criminals because they tend to have lower levels of digital literacy The book presents novel discussions that identify the challenges and flaws associated with the enforcement of financial inclusion laws and related measures intended to promote financial inclusion in the SADC region This is primarily done in order to reveal the current strengths and weaknesses of financial inclusion laws in relation to certain aspects of the companies securities and financial markets in the region For example there is no common financial inclusion instrument law that is effectively and uniformly applied throughout the SADC This has impeded the enforcement authorities efforts to effectively combat financial exclusion across the region The book is likely the most comprehensive study to date on the regulation and promotion of financial inclusion in the SADC region and fills a major gap in SADC and African legal jurisprudence As such it offers a valuable asset for policymakers attorneys bankers securities share holders and other market participants who deal with financial inclusion as well as undergraduate and graduate students interested in the topic
