The Art of Survival Joseph Chikowero, Anna Chitando, Angeline M. Madongonda, Government Phiri, 2015-11-25 The Art of Survival Depictions of Zimbabwe and the Zimbabwean in Crisis offers a fresh interdisciplinary examination of a period against which development in Zimbabwe is often measured one epitomized by the severe shortages and runaway inflation of 2008 While journalistic stories of the 1998 2008 era often privilege the reductive stories of woe defeat and crushed hopes this volume explores how survival was still possible in those circumstances The book offers insights into how ordinary Zimbabweans battled the odds by making startling innovations in language use to legitimize new survival strategies how they weaved new songs and reinterpreted old ones to fight for survival how social institutions such as churches reinterpreted popular gospel and how authors playwrights and dramatists crafted works that acknowledge the unprecedented difficulties and yet find humour laughter and love in unusual places This work will appeal to both scholars who will appreciate the depth of the analysis and the general reader

Zimbabwe's New Diaspora JoAnn McGregor, Ranka Primorac, 2010-06-01 Zimbabwe's crisis since 2000 has produced a dramatic global scattering of people This volume investigates this enforced dispersal and the processes shaping the emergence of a new diaspora of Zimbabweans abroad focusing on the most important concentrations in South Africa and in Britain Not only is this the first book on the diasporic connections created through Zimbabwe's multifaceted crisis but it also offers an innovative combination of research on the political economic cultural and legal dimensions of movement across borders and survival thereafter with a discussion of shifting identities and cultural change It highlights the ways in which new movements are connected to older flows and how displacements across physical borders are intimately linked to the reworking of conceptual borders in both sending and receiving states The book is essential reading for researchers students in migration diaspora and postcolonial literary studies

Options for Wastewater Management in Harare, Zimbabwe Innocent Nhapi, 2014-04-21 The sustainable management of waste water should aim at pollution prevention and reduction first followed by resource recovery and reuse This work shows that substantial water quality improvements could be achieved through a so called 3 Step Strategic Approach

Decentralizing Water Resources Management K. William Easter, Robert R. Hearne, 1993 Private sector involvement and user participation in water resource management if properly structured can provide incentives needed to stabilize and improve the efficiency of irrigation and water supply systems Cost recovery is excellent in many projects in which water management and operations and maintenance are entrusted to water users

Developing Countries and the Uruguay Round Negotiations on Services Bernard M. Hoekman, 1993 Many developing countries are pursuing regulatory reform and liberalization To what extent will signing the General Agreement on Trade and Services help governments trying to make their service sectors more efficient Is the result of the defensive negotiating strategy that was pursued consistent with the shift toward a policy of liberalizing service markets

The Oxford Handbook of Shakespeare and Performance James C. Bulman, 2017-11-16 The Oxford Handbooks to Shakespeare are designed to record past and present investigations and renewed and revised judgments by both familiar and younger Shakespeare specialists Each of these volumes is edited by one or more internationally distinguished Shakespeareans together they comprehensively survey the entire field Shakespearean performance criticism has firmly established itself as a discipline accessible to scholars and general readers alike And just as performances of the plays expand audiences understanding of how Shakespeare speaks to them so performance criticism is continually shifting the contours of the discipline The 36 contributions in this volume represent the most current approaches to Shakespeare in performance They are divided into four parts Part I explores how experimental modes of performance ensure Shakespeare's contemporaneity Part II tackles the burgeoning field of reception how and why audiences respond to performances as they do Part III addresses the ways in which technology has revolutionized our access to Shakespeare both through the mediums of film and sound recording and through digitalization Part IV grapples with global Shakespeare considering matters of cultural appropriation in productions played for international audiences Together these ground breaking essays attest to the richness and diversity of Shakespearean performance criticism as it is practiced today

Funding Defense Dan Henk, Martin Rupiya, 2001 Martin Rupiya Director of the University of Zimbabwe's Centre for Defence Studies and Daniel Henk of the Air War College provide one of the first comprehensive studies of defense budgeting practices in Africa They assess both the problems with these practices and fruitful avenues of reform By doing so they provide a solid roadmap both for African leaders and for Americans concerned with the development of greater security in the region

Funding Defense: Challenges of Buying Military Capability in Sub-Saharan Africa, 2001 Martin Rupiya Director of the University of Zimbabwe's Centre for Defence Studies and Daniel Henk of the Air War College provide one of the first comprehensive studies of defense budgeting practices in Africa They assess both the problems with these practices and fruitful avenues of reform By doing so they provide a solid roadmap both for African leaders and for Americans concerned with the development of greater security in the region The interests of the United States would be well served in the emergence of a stable secure and prosperous Africa a fact acknowledged in the rhetoric of the current and previous Administrations Since the end of the Cold War the United States has been increasingly active in efforts to promote political and economic reform in African countries including programs to democratize African security sectors While the military and other security force establishments in Africa have many problems and pose challenges to ongoing democratization efforts few challenges are as potentially significant for good or ill as that of defense sector funding The ability of African countries to provide the secure environment necessary for social and economic development requires the creation of the right kind of security establishments legitimized by democratic processes and empowered with adequate resources It is very much in the U S interest to assist African societies in reform both of the security sector and of security sector financing

Urban Informality in South Africa and Zimbabwe Inocent Moyo, Trynos Gumbo, 2021-01-09 This book adds to the research of urban informality in the Global South with a specific focus on South Africa and Zimbabwe It addresses the agency and the potential transformative capacity of the phenomenon of urban informality in connection with Southern African cities and towns It adopts a political economy approach to analyse the evolution of informality in cities and its implications for urban planning It brings to bear how the South African and Zimbabwean historical and or ideological and contemporary political and economic trajectories have impacted on the ever changing nature of urban informality both spatially and structurally and or compositionally thus resulting in unique urban materialities which are aspects that have scarcely been studied or discussed in the extant literature This book therefore seeks to close the academic gap by dealing with the dearth of literature on spatial re locational discourses of urban informality The work positions urban informality as a resilient force with potency in terms of political mobilisation and re shaping urban spaces Though these are fundamental issues they have received comparatively little attention especially in literature that focuses on the Southern African region Accordingly undergraduate and post graduate students as well as academics in the fields of Urban Geography Political Science Development Studies Sociology Town and Regional Planning among others will find the range of topics and depth of coverage in this book particularly valuable Similarly practitioners and activists on issues of urban informality and urban governance will find the book very useful Zimbabwe National

Bibliography ,1990 Quality in Higher Education as a Tool for Human Development Patience Mukwambo, 2019-04-11

Whilst many studies have explored how quality in higher education is conceptualised in the Global North less attention has been paid to quality in higher education in Africa and the Global South This book uses the human development and capabilities approach to demonstrate how quality in teaching and learning contributes to a range of benefits such as improved wellbeing economic outcomes political engagement and human capital formation amongst graduates The book interrogates the various dimensions of quality as well as factors that impact on the realisation of quality in universities and society at large Recognising that measures of quality are context and stakeholder specific the book uses the Zimbabwean context as a Global South case study It evaluates how quality is conceptualised and operationalised in Zimbabwean universities and how that impacts on teaching and learning policy and practice The book also demonstrates the need for economic resources for individuals and universities and emphasises the importance of a social and educational environment conducive to critical learning and post university opportunities This book will be of interest to researchers across Education African and Development Studies as well as to policymakers and practitioners with an interest in quality assurance and the promotion of teaching and learning in universities in the Global South Resources in Education ,2001 How Much Do Distortions Affect Growth? William Russell Easterly,1993 Contrary to the traditional view that distortions of relative prices have modest effects Easterly finds that distortions can greatly affect growth and welfare
