Zimbabwe Step Ahead Olevel Revision Guide:

(Re)Constructing Memory: Textbooks, Identity, Nation, and State James H. Williams, Wendy D.

Bokhorst-Heng, 2016-07-08 This book engages readers in thirteen conversations presented by authors from around the world regarding the role that textbooks play in helping readers imagine membership in the nation. Authors' voices come from a variety of contexts: some historical, some contemporary, some providing analyses over time. But they all consider the changing portrayal of diversity, belonging, and exclusion in multiethnic and diverse societies where silenced, invisible, marginalized members have struggled to make their voices heard and to have their identities incorporated into the national narrative. The authors discuss portrayals of past exclusions around religion, ethnicity, sexual orientation as they look at the shifting boundaries of insider and outsider. This book is thus about who we are, not only demographically but also in terms of the past, especially how and whether we teach discredited pasts through textbooks. The concluding chapters provide ways forward in thinking about what can be done to promote curricula that are more inclusive, critical, and positively bonding in increasingly larger and more inclusive contexts.

States and the Making of Others Jeanne Bouyat, Amandine Le Bellec, Lucas Puygrenier, 2024-06-17 This volume offers a unique interdisciplinary and comparative perspective on contemporary processes of othering by state institutions in relation to dynamics of racism, xenophobia, sexism, homo transphobia, as well as ethnic and class-based discriminations. It focuses on eight original case studies empirically grounded in various domains of the social state in Southern African and Western European contexts: the education and health care systems, the regulation of work and of procreation rights, and institutions in charge of granting asylum. The authors provide key insights on how states produce Others and on how othering contributes in turn to the process of state formation and the politicization of public action.

Kudzai Mutuwira, 2014-05-27 It is about an orphan girl called Tambudzai. Tambudzai stays with her grandmother. The two live in abject poverty, manifested by a monotonous diet of sadza, thick maize meal porridge served with wild vegetables or mufushwa, dried cowpeas, leaves as relish every day. To break the monotony, Tambudzai goes out fishing in a crocodile-infested mighty Save River. She catches a lot of fish. She is attacked by a crocodile. The crocodile drags her across a pool in the river and into a tunnel that leads to its nest. The crocodile dumps into its nest what it thought was a corpse to feed its young ones. The young crocodiles hungrily attack Tambudzai, trying to tear off some flesh from her body. Tambudzai recovers consciousness and kills all the young crocodiles. She burrows her way out of the crocodile nest in a bid to escape. On coming to check on its young ones, the mother crocodile finds them all dead. It follows Tambudzai's footprints and crawls out of the nest through the same hole Tambudzai had made and used. Once outside, it sees Tambudzai and it goes after her to avenge the death of its young ones. Tambudzai tries to quicken her step but she cannot run fast because her leg was broken during the attack. Tambudzai is saved by some dogs that were chasing a duiker. The duiker passed between the crocodile and

Tambudzai The dogs saw the crocodile and attacked it This gave Tambudzai a chance to escape from the jaws of the crocodile Catalogue ,2001 STEM Education in Poverty Brantina Chirinda,Gladys Sunzuma,Perkins
