Zimbabwe Brian Raftopoulos,Tyrone Savage,2004 The author is from the Institute of Development Studies at the University of Zimbabwe He examines the paradox ensuing from the Lancaster House Settlement at Zimbabwe s independence that whilst colonial rule was ended the framework was provided for continued white privilege on the basis of control of the economy by this elite and through them transnational capital He analyses the responses of the ruling including official elite the black petty bourgeoisie and the group associated with the former Rhodesian Front

MY LIFE IN THE STRUGGLE FOR THE LIBERATION OF ZIMBABWE M Mpofu,2014 This is an elucidation of accumulation of personal experience within the context of socio cultural internalization in particular and the socio political environment in general that is intended to provide some insights into a plethora of ingredients that converged and crystallized into a catalytic impetus that socially transformed my generation from village boys to highly politicised freedom fighters during the 1960s to the 1970s in Rhodesia I hvae done this by tracing the footprints of my experience which show multiple stages and strands of cultural social political and physical determinants that landed themselves on my growth path starting from socialization in my parents home all the way through the local community traditions and schooling to active service for the freedom of my country at local and national levels Here the crucial elements that moulded my social being in a very profound way have been ventilated to show when and how I became able to distinguish antagonistic differences between justice and injustice at my very early age Proceeding from here I have brought out how I teamed up with others whose political outlook and aspirations were identical with mine as we all voluntarily joined anti colonial struggle starting from invisible low intensity activism in schools and towns up to risky adventures that finished up in armed struggle within a broad national perspective the narration further demonstrates the domesticity of the movements that championed liberation struggle as drivers were citizens who grew up in the rural villages and urban African Townships where they progressively became aware that they were born unlike their parents in a country under colonial administration In doing all this I had to spell out how my interaction with informative social vectors brought awareness on how my country Zimbabwe was colonized and governed by Europeans without the consent of the indigenous natives who showed their resentment to foreign rule by rebelling First Chimurenga within six years of colonization but failed only to succeed in the second rebellion Second Chimurenga after ninety years of racial domination Furthermore I believe I have laid bare how I became a civilian freedom fighter together with peers of my generation in the second rebellion where intorable weight of oppression caused us to abandon nonviolent methods of struggle in favour of using arms of war to face a cobweb of security forces led by superb military machine of the colonial state wherein lay formidable challenges confronting rebelling citizens the armed struggle phase meant that fighters and their collaborators had to face those challenges in the theatre of operation Initially they exhibited more weaknesses than strengths and lost opportunities that were in the form of abundance of political support of masses of people in the country the overall process of the struggle exhibited strengths and costly weaknesses right from the civilian phase up to the armed struggle phase with or without my participation It was not until freedom fighters gained experience in planning and undertaking field operations that they became able to apply appropriate tactics that caused the struggle to gain sustainability in the theatre of operation More importantly the narration makes the point that the Rhodesian colonial system was presided over by European settler leaders who hardly recognized African citizens as entitled to participation in governance of the country with equal rights in social political economical and juridical spheres of societal setting of two main races Exclusion of African from consensus on the act of Unilateral Declaration of Independence UDI by Ian Douglas Smith was a fundamental blunder that precipitated nationwide fury that lead to a civil war in which a deprived citizen fought against a privileged citizen who was indoctrinated with falsehood that his adversary freedom fighter was sponsored by foreign powers of a communist type while the latter rightly believed that he was fighting to free his country from racially imposed injustices of deprivation More importantly the narration lays emphasis on the creation of massive political structures throughout the country well below the radar of legality for the purpose of sustaining guerrilla warfare in the face of the super professional Rhodesian security forces In this connection the final phase of armed struggle demonstrated to all at home and abroad that freedom fighters became significantly effective because they were politically rooted in the oppressed population whence came their strength against superior military hard ware and a water tight counter insurgency strategy of the Rhodesian security forces Essentially it was that political strength not Communist powers or betrayal by the West which caused all stakeholders to become willing to come to a negotiating table at Lancaster House in Britain in 1979 to settle the armed conflict decisively

The History of Cartography, Volume 6 Mark

Monmonier,2015-05-18 For more than thirty years the History of Cartography Project has charted the course for scholarship on cartography bringing together research from a variety of disciplines on the creation dissemination and use of maps Volume 6 Cartography in the Twentieth Century continues this tradition with a groundbreaking survey of the century just ended and a new full color encyclopedic format The twentieth century is a pivotal period in map history The transition from paper to digital formats led to previously unimaginable dynamic and interactive maps Geographic information systems radically altered cartographic institutions and reduced the skill required to create maps Satellite positioning and mobile communications revolutionized wayfinding Mapping evolved as an important tool for coping with complexity organizing knowledge and influencing public opinion in all parts of the globe and at all levels of society Volume 6 covers these changes comprehensively while thoroughly demonstrating the far reaching effects of maps on science technology and society and vice versa The lavishly produced volume includes more than five hundred articles accompanied by more than a thousand images Hundreds of expert contributors provide both original research often based on their own participation in the developments they describe and interpretations of larger trends in cartography Designed for use by both scholars and the general public this definitive volume is a reference work of first resort for all who study and love maps industries The last section studies the continent from post World War II all the way up to modern times Aims at capturing the enthusiasms of practicing historians and encouraging similar passion in a new generation of scholars Emphasizes linkages within Africa as well as between the continent and other parts of the world All chapters include significant historiographical content and suggestions for further reading Written by a global team of writers with unique backgrounds and views Features case studies with illustrative examples In a field traditionally marked by narrow specialisms A Companion to African History is an ideal book for advanced students researchers historians and scholars looking for a broad yet unique overview of African history as a whole

War Veterans in Zimbabwe's Revolution Zvakanyorwa Wilbert Sadomba,2011 An insider's view of the land issue and farm invasions in Zimbabwe this book gives a different perspective than is normally heard revealing much about the tensions within Zimbabwean society and between the war veterans and the ruling party Bibliography of Agriculture with Subject Index,1993 Internationalization in Higher Education and Research Lars Engwall,2024-01-01

This book examines the pros and cons of the internationalization of higher education institutions which is an important feature of modern universities It makes a significant contribution to our understanding of universities and an important input to the assessment of the internationalization of higher education institutions both for regulators and for the universities themselves The book's three parts focus on a number of issues associated with internationalization The first part Perspectives on Internationalization provides critical reflections on internationalization on the globally distributed European American university and on the impact of rankings The second part The Obstacles to Internationalization deals with the significance of language challenges of mobility and environment concerns The third part Alternative Modes of Internationalization discusses internationalization at home international distance education and the establishment of international branch campuses Occasional Papers,1993 Voice and Power in Africa's Democracy Said

Adejumobi,2017-08-16 Africa has made notable progress in its nascent democracy but with uneven performance across countries However across the board challenges abound Central to Africa's checkered democratic narrative is the weakness of its democratic institutions participatory mechanisms and accountability platforms This book interrogates these elements with the role and capacity of the parliament political parties media freedom of information law trade union movements gender empowerment mechanisms and accountability methods and processes all under examination The weakness of democratic institutions has had a corrosive effect on political accountability and limits the scope for popular participation in governance In many countries innovative practices and new social and political encounters are emerging that challenge old institutional cultures promote reforms and demand accountability from the governing elite The book captures these varied innovative patterns of democratic change With first hand knowledge and expertise of the continent the contributors analyze the issues trends problems and challenges in these critical areas of Africa's democratic growth The conclusion is that strengthening democratic institutions opening up the political space for enhanced political participation and ensuring political accountability will determine the course prospects and quality of Africa's budding democracy After the Third World?

Mark T. Berger, 2013-10-18 The emergence of the Third World is generally traced to onset of the Cold War and decolonization in the 1940s and 1950s In the 1960s and 1970s the three worlds of development were central to the wider dynamics of the changing international order By the 1980s Third Worldism had peaked entering a period of dramatic decline that paralleled the end of the Cold War Into the 21st century the idea of a Third World and even the pursuit of some form of Third Worldism has continued to be advocated and debated For some it has passed into history and may never have had as much substance as it was credited with while others seek to retain or recuperate the Third World and give Third Worldism contemporary relevance Beginning with a comprehensive introduction this edited volume brings together a wide range of important contributions Collectively they offer a powerful overview from a variety of angles of the history and contemporary significance of Third Worldism in international affairs The question remains did the Third World exist what was it does it still have intellectual and political purchase or do we live in a global era that can be described as After the Third World This book was previously published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly Daily Graphic Yaw Boadu-Ayebofoh, 2003-06-03

The Zimbabwean Crisis after Mugabe Tendai Mangena, Oliver Nyambi, Gibson Ncube, 2021-12-30 This book examines the ways in which political discourses of crisis and newness are re-produced circulated naturalised received and contested in Post Mugabe Zimbabwe Going beyond the ordinariness of conventional political human and social science methods the book offers new and engaging multi-disciplinary approaches that treat discourse and language as important sites to encounter the politics of contested representations of the Zimbabwean crisis in the wake of the 2017 coup The book centres discourse on new approaches to contestations around the discursive framing of various aspects of the socio-economic and political crisis related to significant political changes in Zimbabwe post 2017 Contributors in this volume most of whom experienced the complex transition first-hand examine some of the ways in which language functions as a socio-cultural and political mechanism for creating imaginaries circulating defending and contesting conceptions visions perceptions and knowledges of the post Mugabe turn in the Zimbabwean crisis and its management by the New Dispensation This book will be of interest to scholars of African studies postcolonial studies language discourse studies African politics and culture Community-based

Water Law and Water Resource Management Reform in Developing Countries Mark Giordano, John Butterworth, 2007-01-01

The fifteen chapters of this book analyse the living community-based water laws in Africa Latin America and Asia and critically examine the interface between community-based water laws formal water laws and a variety of other key institutional ingredients of on-going water resources management reform Hydrothermal Mineral Deposits Franco Pirajno, 2012-12-06 This book is intended primarily for exploration geologists and post-graduate students attending specialist courses in mineral exploration Exploration geologists are engaged not only in the search for new mineral deposits but also in the extension and re-assessment of existing ones To succeed in these tasks the exploration geologist is required to be a generalist of the Earth sciences rather than a specialist The exploration geologist needs to be familiar with most aspects of the geology of ore deposits and detailed knowledge as well as experience play an all important role in the successful exploration for mineral commodities In order to achieve this it is essential that the exploration geologist be up to date with the latest developments in the evolution of concepts and ideas in the Earth sciences This is no easy task as thousands of publications appear every year in an ever increasing number of journals periodicals and books For this reason it is also difficult at times to locate appropriate references on a particular mineral deposit type although this problem is alleviated by the existence of large bibliographic data bases of geological records abstracts and papers on computers During my teaching to explorationists and indeed during my years of work as an explorationist the necessity of having a text dealing with the fundamental aspects of hydrothermal mineral deposits has always been compelling Metallic mineral deposits can be categorised into three great families namely 1 magmatic 2 sedimentary and residual 3 hydrothermal

China's Crisis of Success William H. Overholt, 2018-01-11 China's Crisis of Success provides new perspectives on China's rise to superpower status showing that China has reached a threshold where success has eliminated the conditions that enabled miraculous growth Continued success requires re-invention of its economy and politics The old economic strategy based on exports and infrastructure now piles up debt without producing sustainable economic growth and Chinese society now resists the disruptive change that enabled earlier reforms While China's leadership has produced a strategy for successful economic transition it is struggling to manage the politics of implementing that strategy After analysing the economics of growth William H Overholt explores critical social issues of the transition notably inequality corruption environmental degradation and globalisation He argues that Xi Jinping is pursuing the riskiest political strategy of any important national leader Alternative outcomes include continued impressive growth and political stability Japanese style stagnation and a major political economic crisis

Cultural Heritage and Tourism in Africa Dallen J. Timothy, 2023-03-13 Cultural Heritage and Tourism in Africa examines the multiple and diverse manifestations of cultural heritage based tourism in Africa from a regional social science and sustainability perspective This book delivers a comprehensive treatise on the interdependent concepts of cultural heritage and tourism Heritage is one of the most pervasive tourism assets worldwide and lies at the foundations of tourism in many localities including Africa However despite its salience there has not been a systematic examination of Africa's heritage resources markets policies practices successes and challenges in a tourism framework despite the continent's immense heritage value This book reviews the different types of heritages that pervade the cultural environment of Africa and comprises its vast heritagescapes It also examines the increasing potential for the growth of heritage tourism throughout the entire continent The contributions in this volume delve into current thinking about space and place and their effects on heritage mobilities globalization colonialism and indigeneity conflict identity and nation building connections with other regions through migration and the slave trade and a greater emphasis on the ordinary heritage of Africa which has long been ignored by tourism scholars and industry representatives The chapters herein are authored by Africa specialists most being from Africa offering a truly African perspective The chapters are conceptually rigorous and empirically rich with examples from all regions of the African continent This unparalleled interdisciplinary glimpse at cultural heritage and tourism in Africa delivers strong value and is a vital resource for all students and researchers of tourism cultural studies heritage studies geography anthropology sociology history and global studies
