Zimsec A Level Literature 2012 Poem

Mbandlwa, Zamokuhle

Zimsec A Level Literature 2012 Poem:

National Democratic Reforms in Africa Said Adejumobi, 2015-12-27 From putative success stories such as Ghana and Rwanda to failed efforts in Zimbabwe and other countries this volume brings together seven incisive case studies from diverse contexts including post war Sierra Leone Uganda and the new nation of South Sudan to distil insights into the troubled progress of reform across the African continent

Gendered Spaces, Religion and Migration in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Sophia Chirongoma, Molly Manyonganise, 2022-10-12 This book explores the intersections of gender religion and migration within the context of post independent Zimbabwe with a specific focus on how gender disparities impact economic development By demonstrating how these interconnections impact women s and girls lived realities the book addresses the need for gender equity gender inclusion and gender mainstreaming in both religious and societal institutions This book assesses the gender and migration nexus in Zimbabwe and examines the impact of religious cultural ideologies on the status of women In doing so it assesses the transition of Zimbabwean women across spaces and provides insights into the practical strategies that can be utilised to improve their status both at home and on the move Furthermore chapters show how space continues to be gendered in ways that perpetuate structural inequality to challenge the exclusion of women from key social processes Contributing to ongoing scholarly debates on gender in Africa this book will be of interest to academics and students of Gender Studies Women s Studies African Studies Development Studies as well as advocates of human rights and gender activists

Digital Activism in Zimbabwe Tenford Chitanana, 2024-10-21 This book investigates the role of the internet and social media in political processes in non western and non democratic contexts Using Zimbabwe as a case study the book demonstrates how activists and ordinary people deploy social media particularly Facebook to subvert an enduring hegemonic state However the book also highlights how authoritarian regimes are in turn learning and adapting to the information age challenging the impact of digital activism Studies of digital activism in the Global South are often centred around democracy but this book paints a more complex picture examining the role and effect of digital activism in challenging state hegemony in authoritarian contexts The book notes that while communication technologies help mediate activism they are also simultaneously constrained by pre existing and emergent challenges tied to the social and political context and the inherent limitations of those technologies The book investigates the tactics used by digital activists the contextual factors and restrictive political environment they operate in including the role of pro government activists and ultimately the impact of digital activism given these constraints From the case of Zimbabwe the book builds out a broader theoretical analysis of the evolution of third world protest in the digital age examining the limitations of activists actions and the ideological deficit in online activism to ferment a virulent counter hegemony

The Cultural and Intercultural Dimensions of English as a Lingua Franca Prue Holmes, Fred Dervin, 2016-03-01 This book investigates the cultural and intercultural aspects of English as a Lingua Franca ELF Authors discuss how culture and the intercultural can be understood theorised and operationalised in ELF and how the concepts can be integrated into formats of ELF oriented learning and teaching The various cultural connotations are also discussed ideological political religious and historical and whether it is possible to use and or teach a lingua franca as if it were culturally neutral The chapters consider the communication and pedagogical implications of the cultural and intercultural dimensions of ELF and offer suggestions for new directions in ELF research pedagogy and curriculum development Handbook of Research on Protecting and

Managing Global Indigenous Knowledge Systems Tshifhumulo, Rendani, Makhanikhe, Tshimangadzo Justice, 2021-10-08 Indigenous knowledge systems IKS are a combination of knowledge systems encompassing technology social economic and philosophical learning or educational legal and governance systems The lack of documentation of these systems presents a problem as the knowledge is fading away over time In response it is essential that policies and strategies are undertaken to ensure that these systems are protected and sustained for generations to come The Handbook of Research on Protecting and Managing Global Indigenous Knowledge Systems is a comprehensive reference source that works to preserve indigenous knowledge systems through research Focusing on key concepts such as tools of indigenous knowledge management and African indigenous symbols the book preserves and promotes indigenous knowledge through research and fills the void staff and students within the field of indigenous knowledge systems face with the current lack of research and resources This book is ideal for university students lecturers researchers academicians policymakers historians sociologists and anyone interested in the field of indigenous knowledge systems Because Sadness is Beautiful? Tanaka Chidora, 2020-05-15 Tanaka

Chidora writes with the nerve and verve of firework displays in these poems There is a peace armed to the teeth here and over there words are just fugitives scuttling away from the recognition of the reader Through this burst of iron vocabulary discipline the poet suggests that even if sadness could be all we are left with we still need to give sadness a try until it becomes beautiful because sadness has always been beautiful anyway Memory Chirere University of Zimbabwe
