

ANSWER EXPLANATION

1. Which supported the Democratic Party's view about the country's industrial population?
In a political advertisement, supporters gave the view by comparing cities close to the coast with those that were inland. Clearly, it would be more logical to think that cities closer to the coast were better.
A. Cities support the Democratic Party as they are closer to the coast.
B. Cities are supporting the view as cities are in the middle. This would not support the Democratic Party's view as they are not as close to the coast as the cities that are further inland.
C. Cities are supporting the Democratic Party's view as they are closer to the coast.
