Today Show Weather Report:

The Today Show Cathleen M. Londino, 2016-11-15 In the early 1950s when television networks did not broadcast regular programming before 11 a.m. radio and newspapers were the most popular and reliable ways for Americans to get their morning news. Then Sylvester Pat Weaver, vice president of programming at NBC, pitched a bold new concept to the network: a two-hour early morning news show that would run Monday through Friday starting at 7 a.m. By developing Today, Weaver filled a programming void before viewers even realized there was one and revolutionized the viewing habits of millions. In The Today Show: Transforming Morning Television, Cathleen M. Londino provides an entertaining and informative look at the first twenty-five years of NBC's innovative program from 1952 through 1977. Focusing on Today's broadcast history, the personalities instrumental to the show's success, and the show's contributions to the entertainment industry, this account illustrates how the evolution of Today closely paralleled the development of the broadcast industry and rise of the major networks. In addition to chronicling the show's history, the author profiles some of the key players both behind and in front of the camera, including Dave Garroway, Barbara Walters, Tom Brokaw, and Jane Pauley. The vision of morning news developed by Weaver more than sixty years ago endured far beyond his wildest expectations, establishing a model that would eventually be adopted not only by competing networks but also by television programmers around the globe. The Today Show: Transforming Morning Television is a fascinating account of the unprecedented success of this influential program and will appeal to anyone interested in television history. Hearings United States. Audition Barbara Walters,2009-05-05 1 NATIONAL BESTSELLER An inspiring and riveting memoir from the most important woman in the history of television journalism A delightful tale of the golden age of television Juicy behind the scenes details of the celebrities she s interviewed mixed in with stories of her own trials and tribulations The Washington Post After more than fifty years of interviewing heads of state world leaders movie stars criminals murderers inspirational figures and celebrities of all kinds Barbara Walters turns her gift for examination onto her own extraordinary life Walters was the product of a turbulent childhood that featured a glamorous father who made and lost several fortunes as well as the companionship of a mentally challenged sister Feelings of responsibility for her family played a large part in the choices she made as she grew up the friendships she developed the relationships she had the marriages she tried to make work Ultimately thanks to her drive and a decent amount of luck Walters made it to the top of a male dominated industry She was the first woman cohost of the Today show the first female network news coanchor the host and producer of countless top rated Specials the star of 20/20 and the creator and cohost of The View She has not only interviewed the world s most fascinating figures she has become a part of their world These are just a few of the names that play a key role in her life career and book Yasir Arafat Warren Beatty Menachem Begin George H W Bush George W Bush Jimmy Carter Fidel Castro Hugo Chavez Bill and Hillary Clinton Roy Cohn the Dalai Lama Princess Diana Katharine Hepburn King Hussein Angelina Jolie Henry Kissinger Monica Lewinsky Richard Nixon Rosie O Donnell Christopher Reeve Anwar Sadat John Wayne the list goes on Barbara Walters has spent a lifetime auditioning for her bosses at the TV networks for millions of viewers for the most famous people in the world and even for her own daughter with whom she has had a difficult but ultimately quite wonderful and moving relationship This book in some ways is her final audition as she fully opens up both her private and public lives In doing so she has given us a story that is heartbreaking and honest surprising and fun sometimes startling and always fascinating Homeland Richard Beck,2025-03-11 For twenty years after September 11 the war on terror was simultaneously everywhere and nowhere With all of the military violence occurring overseas Americans found themselves living in two worlds at the same time In one of them soldiers fought abroad so that nothing at home would have to change at all In the other life in the United States took on all kinds of unfamiliar shapes altering people s sense of themselves their neighbours and the strangers they sat next to on aeroplanes In a fascinating and exhaustive account of the meaning of twenty first century America Richard Beck delivers a gripping exploration of the transformation of American life wrought by the war He describes sports stadiums fortified to look like military bases The surging sales of guns SUVs and pickup trucks

The racism and xenophobia, the erosion of free speech and the normalisation of mass surveillance Beck searchingly asks why those Americans who excused the worst abuses of the war on terror also had the easiest time understanding themselves as patriots. The war fuelled an impunity culture he argues that came to a head with Trump's rise to power. To see America through the lens of Homeland is to understand the country like never before.

A Funny Thing Happened on My Way to a Career Bill Saylor, 2013-12-18 Bill Saylor provides an interesting well-written trip through the last half of the Twentieth Century. His insights are those honed by years of an observer who was bound to report the facts. His disappointments and successes are detailed with his humor close at hand. His experience covering the nudist convention is, shall we say, reveling and worth the price of admission. J. Richard Gray, Mayor, City of Lancaster, PA. The pleasure of reading Mr. Saylor's biography and historical narrative comes from his wealth of anecdotes. Enriched by the details of a life lived with passion, spontaneity and frequently on the edge, readers will be transported by boyhood adventures during the Great Depression, coming of age near the mid-20th Century, career struggles and successes as well as personal triumphs and disappointments. For readers familiar with life and personalities in Lancaster, PA in the 1960s-1990s, this is a must-read. Sally Lyall, Chair, Lancaster County Democratic Committee
