101 Great, Ready-to-Use Book Lists for Teens Nancy J. Keane, 2012-03-14 Building on the author's work in The Big Book of Teen Reading Lists, this book provides 101 new and revised reading lists created in consultation with teachers and public librarians, an invaluable resource for any educator who plans activities for children that involve using literature. Nancy J. Keane is the author of the award-winning website Booktalks Quick and Simple (nancykeane.com/booktalks) as well as the creator of the open collaboration wiki ATN Book Lists. With her latest book 101 Great Ready to Use Book Lists for Teens, she provides another indispensable resource for librarians and teachers. The lists in this book are the result of careful consultation with teachers and public librarians and from discussions on professional email lists. These indispensable lists can be utilized in many ways, for example as handouts to teachers, as suggested reading to create book displays, or as display posters in the library. This collection will facilitate the creation of valuable reading lists to support the extended reading demands of today's teens.

Global Media Giants Benjamin Birkinbine, Rodrigo Gomez, Janet Wasko, 2016-07-01 Global Media Giants takes an in-depth look at how media corporate power works globally, regionally, and nationally, investigating the ways in which the largest and most powerful media corporations in the world wield power. Case studies examine not only some of the largest media corporations, News Corp, The Microsoft Corporation, in terms of revenues, but also media corporations that hold considerable power within national, regional, or geolinguistic contexts: Televisa, The Bertelsmann Group, Sony Corporation. Each chapter approaches a different corporation through the lens of economy, politics, and culture, giving students and scholars a thoughtful and data-driven guide with which to interrogate contemporary media industry power.

Improving Reading Comprehension of Self-Chosen Books Through Computer Assessment and Feedback Keith James Topping, 2022-07-12 Schools around the world use online programs like Accelerated Reader and Reading Counts to improve students' reading comprehension of real books, but how can such software be used most effectively? In this unique resource, researcher Keith Topping analyzes independent research studies and brings you best practices on quality implementation to enhance effectiveness. He explains the evidence base for the programs in a comprehensible way and addresses many common questions such as: Does it work? How should it be implemented to make it work? and Is it cheaper and more efficient in teacher time than what we were doing before? He also discusses best practices for using the assessment data for tailoring implementation in elementary vs. high schools and for working with disadvantaged students. Appropriate for teachers, literacy coaches, curriculum leaders, and other stakeholders, the book will provide you with a strong research foundation and easily accessible information to help you fine-tune your understanding of the reading programs and implement them more successfully in your schools and classrooms.
