Readings in Sexualities from Africa Rachel Spronk, Thomas Hendriks, 2020-02-04 Images and stories about African sexuality abound in today's globalized media. Frequently old stereotypes and popular opinion inform these stories and sex in the media is predominately approached as a problem in need of solutions and intervention. The authors gathered here refuse an easy characterization of African sexuality and instead seek to understand the various erotic realities, sexual practices and gendered changes taking place across the continent. They present a nuanced and comprehensive overview of the field of sex and sexuality in Africa to serve as a guide through the quickly expanding literature. This collection offers a set of texts that use sexuality as a prism for studying how communities coalesce against the canvas of larger political and economic contexts and how personal lives evolve therein. Scholars working in Africa, the U.S. and Europe reflect on issues of representation, health and bio-politics, same sex relationships and identity, transactional economies of sex, religion and tradition and the importance of pleasure and agency. This multidimensional reader provides a comprehensive view of sexuality from an African perspective.

Adolescent Psychology Around the World Jeffrey Jensen Arnett, 2012-04-05 This book paints a portrait of adolescent psychology in 4 major regions: Africa, the Middle East, Asia, the Americas and Europe. Featuring 24 revised and updated chapters from the International Encyclopedia of Adolescence 2007, readers are introduced to the way the majority of the world's adolescents actually live. Most contributors are indigenous to the country they review. As a whole, the book paints an engaging panorama of adolescent life around the world, broadening students' cultural perspective. All chapters follow the same template to make it easier to compare topics across countries: Background (including demographics, ethnic diversity and political system), Period of Adolescence, Beliefs, Gender, the Self, Family Relationships, Friends and Peers, Youth Culture, Love and Sexuality, Health Risk, Behavior, Education, Work, Media, Politics and Military, and Unique Issues. Each chapter contains a map and photos and a list of references and suggested readings. The introductory chapter explains why the countries were selected and introduces the book's common themes. The section on Africa and the Middle East introduces students to teen life in Cameroon, one of the few places left where adolescents go through formal puberty rituals. In addition, readers learn about adolescent life in Ethiopia, Israel, Morocco, Nigeria and Sudan. Next, we travel to Asia: China, India, Indonesia and the Philippines. Here, readers see how economic growth in India and China is creating opportunities for young people. In the Americas, readers are introduced to life in Argentina, Canada, Chile, Mexico, Peru and the United States. The book concludes with adolescent life in Europe, including the Czech Republic, France, Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, Russia, Sweden and the UK. Intended for courses in adolescent psychology, lifespan development and/or cultural/cross-cultural psychology taught in departments of psychology, human development and family studies sociology and education this book will also appeal to researchers and clinicians who study or work with adolescents
