Rice Jordan,2017-05-09 This book gives an intimate look into the history of an African American National Historic Site that was located in Bordentown New Jersey It was known by many names Manual Training and Industrial School for Colored Youth M T I S or the Tuskegee of the North Most commonly however it was called just the Bordentown School Bordentown was founded in 1886 by an ex slave Walter Allen Simpson Rice Afer serving in the Civil War Rice came north and became affiliated with the African Methodist Episcopal Church A M E Seeing great promise in him the church sent him to seminary to become a minister Rice dreamed of uplifting his people but had limited resources with which to make his dreams a reality However he did have great faith in God and his faith inspired him to start a boarding school With only eight colored students he began his school in an old frame house He did not live to see this school become one of the nest institutions of learning for colored high school youth in the northeast However Reverend Rice and the principals who followed him have legacy behind a legacy which has invaluable lessons and great potential for developing educational prescriptions which will at their foundation give all black students a culturally affirming culturally relevant education This book clearly states that no matter how complicated and technologically sophisticated our Society becomes the Bordentown Schools philosophy policies and practices can still be a model which can be adapted for Reclaiming African American Students in the 21st Century 100 First Pages Donald P. H. Eaton,2007-09 This book is called 100 First Pages because that s what it is Each page in the book is supposed to be the first page of a novel Next to that page on the left are my comments about how the novel might go along with some of my personal thoughts on the subject That s the best part because it is a mini encyclopedia almanac journal and to some extent a blog The book covers a large array of topics and genres When you buy the book and read it you can go to my website listed in the back and vote for your favorite BEGINNING You can also suggest a title for the book I promise that I will write the novel which receives the most votes for publication AND if you are the person who suggests the Best Title i e the one I will use you will get a cover credit an entire page inside to write anything you like and one dollar for every copy sold Check out the preview and give it a try
