Tourism and Hospitality for Sustainable Development Emmanuel Ndhlovu, Kaitano Dube, Tawanda Makuyana, 2024-09-12 The travel and hospitality industry in the 21st century cannot be conceived planned advertised run or researched without the use of digital technology and innovation Sustainable development in this sector cannot be achieved without considering the Fourth Industrial Revolution The use of technology not only enhances the industry s profitability but also helps it to respond effectively to pressing global sustainability issues such as pandemics climate change energy crises workforce shortages and hyperinflation Furthermore technology allows the sector to fully evaluate its current and future economic social and environmental impacts addressing the needs of tourists businesses the environment and destinations However implementing technology is not a simple process and involves various opportunities costs and challenges that differ depending on the geopolitical and socio economic context With the drive towards disability inclusion digitalisation technological innovations and inventions can play a significant role in universal design and reasonable accommodation for older people and populations with disabilities in the Global North and South such forms one of the key pillars of accessible tourism and hospitality In the context of the above and in response to the thoughtful need for new and sustained study of the developments interrelationships potentialities of the topic and synergies this edited book explores the trends opportunities challenges and complexities of digitalisation and technology integration in the tourism and hospitality industry as well as strategic shifts that will contribute to emerging research streams The book comprises contributions that generate theoretical insights empirical findings and evidence based recommendations by focusing on emerging and forecasted technologies used in the tourism and hospitality industry such as blockchains robots Artificial Intelligence Virtual Reality big data and analytics The aim is to provide a better understanding of how disruptive technologies and digitalisation are currently being utilised and how they currently and potentially influence various stakeholder groups as well as their future possibilities and impossibilities The third volume in a three volume set primarily covers how these new technologies impact consumers and employees of tourism related services Higher Education, Community Engagement and Entrepreneurship in Southern Africa I. G. Govender, 2021-02-24 This volume explores the pressing issues of entrepreneurship education and development in Southern Africa It discusses the various roles of higher education institutions in enhancing entrepreneurship in localised communities and provides a systematic solution for improving the Southern African economy by realising the importance of empowering the youth with entrepreneurial skills In addition successful development requires effective policies and contemporary approaches to both community engagement and entrepreneurship management The book uses different Southern African case studies to discuss the various issues and innovations in entrepreneurship in the country Proceedings of 9th Edition of International Conference on BIOFUELS AND BIOENERGY 2018 EuroScicon, 2018-03-23 March 29 30 2018 Edinburgh Scotland Key Topics Biomass Biogas Bioenergy Renewable Energy Biorefineries Bioethanol Biodiesel Aviation Biofuels Advanced Biofuels Algal Biofuels Nanotechnology In Biofuels Food V S Fuel Debate Bioeconomy Energy And Environment Green Energy And Economy Advances In Renewable Chemicals Entrepreneurs Investment Meet Southern Resistance in Critical Perspective Marcel Paret, Carin Runciman, Luke Sinwell, 2017-03-27 From the Arab Uprising to anti austerity protests in Europe and the US Occupy Movement to uprisings in Brazil and Turkey resistance from below is flourishing Whereas analysts have tended to look North in their analysis of the recent global protest wave this volume develops a Southern perspective through a deep engagement with the case of South Africa which has experienced widespread popular resistance for more than a decade Combining critical theoretical perspectives with extensive qualitative fieldwork and rich case studies Southern Resistance in Critical Perspective situates South Africa's contentious democracy in relation to both the economic insecurity of contemporary global capitalism and the constantly shifting political terrain of post apartheid nationalism The analysis integrates worker community and political party organizing into a broader narrative of resistance bridging historical divisions between social movement studies labor studies and political sociology Deanship in the Global South Oliver J.J. Seale, 2021-02-08 The university today is a postmodern neo liberal competitive boundary less knowledge conglomerate a far cry from its historical traditional classical and collegial roots There is a body of literature on deanship that points to its evolving nature in the contemporary academe characterised by complexity and change Balancing academic demands simultaneously with the requirements for effective performance leadership and management lies at the heart of this very challenging bridging role nowadays Deans are generally former academics emerging from a traditional collegial space and often catapulted into the relatively unknown domain of executive management with its related problems Deans nowadays are required to be more than collegial intellectual leaders They are also meant to be fiscal and human resource experts fundraisers politicians and diplomats Deanship in the Global South Bridging Troubled Waters is about the deans lived reality as they try to balance the demands of both the academe from which they emerge and the administration to whom they now need to account Their lack of preparation and inadequate support points to the need for a more strategic integrated approach to leadership development within their critical bridging roles between the academe and administration

Fees Must Fall Susan Booyesen,2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and it s double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co-opted students into their ranks to create co-responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution. This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt. Student voices dissect colonialism, improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa, feminism, worker rights and meaningful education. In-depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism, its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt.

Institutional Research in South African Higher Education Jan Botha, Nicole J Muller, 2016-11-01. The book provides a thorough overview of Institutional Research (IR) i.e. applied higher education research undertaken within universities in South Africa. It is a collection of essays focusing on the character and institutional setting of IR, how IR is embedded into the mechanisms of steering, shaping and reforming higher education and what the major results were of IR in select thematic areas. The book is a valuable resource for higher education researchers and social researchers in South Africa interested in higher education. It also deserves to be read by practitioners and policymakers in the field of higher education in South Africa. It serves as an interesting case study for higher education researchers all over the world.

The Social Impacts of Mine Closure in South Africa Lochner Marais, 2022-09-05. This book investigates the relationship between mining, mine closure and housing policy in post-apartheid South Africa using concepts from new institutional economics and evolutionary governance theory. Mine closures present a major challenge to the mining industry and governments, with this being particularly noticeable in the Global South. This book argues that the dependencies created by the mining industry and mine housing policies while a mine is operational cause serious societal problems when it closes. To demonstrate this, the book applies the concepts of place attachment, asset-based development and social disruption. Conceptually, the book challenges the view that place attachment and asset-based development are the most appropriate and often the only policy responses in mining areas. In South Africa, the mining industry and the government have created comprehensive housing programmes linked to homeownership to promote place attachment, stability and wealth among mine workers. These programmes do not consider the disruption that mine closure might bring. The book challenges the blind application during boom periods of policies which create long-term dependencies that are difficult to manage when a mine closes. This book will be of interest to students and scholars researching the social impacts of mining and the extractive industries, social geography and sustainable development, as well as policymakers and practitioners working with mine closure or social impact assessments.
