sculpture and science that looks at the archetype of the human ascent to the heavens Popular Culture in a Globalised India K. Moti Gokulsing, Wimal Dissanayake, 2009-01-13 This book explores India's rich popular culture and provides illuminating insights into various aspects of the social, cultural, economic and political realities of contemporary globalised India. It is essential reading for courses on Indian popular culture and a useful resource for more general courses in the field of cultural studies, media studies, history, literary studies and communication studies Hindu Gods And Heroes Lionel D. Barnett, The Hero's Quest and the Cycles of Nature Rachel S. McCoppin, 2016-10-25 This examination of the heroic journey in world mythology casts the protagonist as a personification of nature, a botanical hero, one might say, who begins the quest in a metaphorical seed-like state, then sprouts into a period of verdant strength. But the hero must face a mythic underworld where he or she contends with mortality and sacrifice, embracing death as a part of life. For centuries, humans have sought superiority over nature, yet the botanical hero finds nothing is lost by recognizing that one is merely a part of nature. Instead, a cyclical promise of continuous life is realized in which no element fully disappears and the hero's message is not to dwell on death Four Illusions Candrakirti, 2003-02-27 This book provides the first English translation of Candrakirti's commentary, ca. 6th century C.E., on four illusions that prevent us from becoming Buddhas. Lang's translation captures the clarity of Candrakirti's arguments and the lively humor of the stories and examples he uses. Lang's introduction explores the range of Candrakirti's interests in religion, philosophy, psychology, politics and erotic poetry Hindu Approaches to Spiritual Care Lucinda Mosher, Vineet Chander, 2019-10-21 Showing how spiritual care is practiced in a variety of different contexts such as healthcare, detention and higher education, as well as settings that may not have formal chaplaincy arrangements, this book offers an original and unique resource for Hindu chaplains to understand and practice spiritual care in a way that is authentic to their own tradition and that meets the needs of Hindus. It offers a Hindu perspective for all chaplains to inform their caregiving to Hindus. The book explores the theological and metaphysical roots of Hindu chaplaincy and puts forward the case for Hindu chaplaincy as a valuable spiritual practice. It covers the issues that arise in specific locations such as college, healthcare, prison, military and the corporate sector. Chapters also examine Hindu pastoral care offered in other non-chaplaincy settings such as LGBT centres, social justice work and environmental activism. Made up of some 30 essays by chaplains, scholars and other important voices in the field, Hindu Approaches to Spiritual Care provides spiritual caregivers with a comprehensive theoretical and practical approach to the relationship of Hinduism and chaplaincy.

Women, Subalterns, and Ecologies in South and Southeast Asian Women's Fiction Chitra Sankaran, 2021-11-01 In recent decades, East Asia has gained prominence and has become synonymous with Asia, while other Asian regions such as South and Southeast Asia have been subsumed under it. The resultant overgeneralization has meant that significant aspects of the global ecological crisis, as they affect these two regions, have been overlooked. Chitra Sankaran refocuses the global lens on these two rapidly developing regions of Asia. Combining South Asian and Southeast Asian philosophical views and folk perspectives with mainstream ecocritical and ecofeminist theories she generates a localized critical idiom that qualifies and subverts some established theoretical assumptions This pioneering study introducing a corpus of more than thirty ecofictions by women writers from twelve countries in South and Southeast Asia examines how recent global threats to ecosystems in both nature and culture impact subdominant groups including women This new corpus reveals how women and subalterns engage with various aspects of critical ecologies Using ecofeminist theory augmented by postcolonial and risk theories as the main theoretical framework Sankaran argues that these women writers present unique perspectives that review Asian women s relationships to human and nonhuman worlds
