Originally developed for EngageNY and written with a focus on the shifts in instructional practice and student experiences, the standards require Paths to College and Career includes daily lesson plans, guiding questions, recommended texts, scaffolding strategies, and other classroom resources. Paths to College and Career is a concrete and practical ELA instructional program that engages students with compelling and complex texts. At each grade level, Paths to College and Career delivers a yearlong curriculum that develops all students' ability to read closely and engage in text-based discussions, build evidence-based claims and arguments, conduct research, and write from sources, and expand their academic vocabulary. Paths to College and Career's instructional resources address the needs of all learners, including students with disabilities, English language learners, and gifted and talented students. This enhanced curriculum provides teachers with freshly designed Teacher Guides that make the curriculum more accessible and flexible, a Teacher Resource Book for each module that includes all of the materials educators need to manage instruction, and Student Journals that give students learning tools for each module and a single place to organize and document their learning. As the creators of the Paths ELA curriculum for grades 6-12, PCG Education provides a professional learning program that ensures the success of the curriculum. The program includes Nationally recognized professional development from an organization that has been immersed in the new standards since their inception. Blended learning experiences for teachers and leaders that enrich and extend the learning. A train-the-trainer program that builds capacity and provides resources and individual support for embedded leaders and coaches. Paths offers schools and districts a unique approach to ensuring college and career readiness for all students, providing state-of-the-art curriculum and state-of-the-art implementation.

Readicide Kelly Gallagher, 2009 Reading is dying in our schools. Educators are familiar with many of the factors that have contributed to the decline: poverty, second language issues, and the ever-expanding choices of electronic entertainment. In this provocative new book, Kelly Gallagher suggests, however, that it is time to recognize a new and significant contributor to the death of reading in our schools.

Reading Reconsidered Doug Lemov, Colleen Driggs, Erica Woolway, 2016-02-29 TEACH YOUR STUDENTS TO READ WITH PRECISION AND INSIGHT The world we are preparing our students to succeed in is one bound together by words and phrases. Our students learn their literature, history, math, science, or art via a firm foundation of strong reading skills. When we teach students to read with precision, rigor, and insight, we are truly handing over the key to the kingdom. Of all the subjects we teach, reading is first among equals. Grounded in advice from effective classrooms nationwide, enhanced with more than 40 video clips Reading Reconsidered takes you into the trenches with actionable guidance from real life educators and instructional champions The authors address the anxiety inducing world of Common Core State Standards distilling from those standards four key ideas that help hone teaching practices both generally and in preparation for assessments This Core of the Core comprises the first half of the book and instructs educators on how to teach students to read harder texts closely read texts rigorously and intentionally read nonfiction more effectively and write more effectively in direct response to texts The second half of Reading Reconsidered reinforces these principles coupling them with the fundamentals of reading instruction a host of techniques and subject specific tools to reconsider how teachers approach such essential topics as vocabulary interactive reading and student autonomy Reading Reconsidered breaks an overly broad issue into clear easy to implement approaches Filled with practical tools including 44 video clips of exemplar teachers demonstrating the techniques and principles in their classrooms note for online access of this content please visit my teachlikeachampion com
