Toby He S My Dog:

TOBY-He's My Dog Frank Barber, 2014-12-07 TOBY He s My Dog By Frank Barber This Book is the story of the Author s experiences with his dog named Toby starting when Toby was acquired as a 3 month old male Golden Retriever puppy in 2004 and continuing until the present day The Book is based on the fact that the Author has for many years sent out a Christmas Letter to family and friends recounting the events that had occurred since the previous year s Letter When Toby was acquired in April of 2004 a new paragraph was added to the 2004 Christmas Letter describing the adventures of Toby during the first eight months of his life As this book is being written Toby is now 10 years old and the Author has a collection of ten Christmas letters each of which has a Toby Paragraph describing Toby s adventures during the year This Book presents the collection of these ten Toby Paragraphs with a total of ten Chapters Chapter 1 quotes the 2004 Toby Paragraph with Pictures Chapter 2 quotes the 2005 Toby Paragraph with pictures and so on through Chapter 10 which has the 2013 Toby Paragraph In each Year s Toby Paragraph the Author always adds a small humorous twist nothing hilarious but enough to perhaps bring a smile to the reader The Book has not only the usual Title Page Table of Contents and Author s Preface at the beginning but also ends with a Table of Exhibits and Appendix of Miscellaneous Pictures and an Index The Book of Noble Dogs Estelle Ross, 1922 But It's Mine' Says Moon-Shiner Michael L. Schuh, 2008-07-07 This is Mike s very unique book where he has the main character a Hillybilly moonshiner writing poetry Poems that portray the life he lives as well as the life style of his hillybilly friends He has many tales about his daily life his dog his cap and his gun and of cause his moonshine drinking and his very run down home which he is so proud to say But It s Mine YES It is all his but get the book then you will find that you are thanking him for sharing it Whose Art is It? Jane Kramer, 1994 Whose Art Is It is the story of sculptor John Ahearn a white artist in a black and Hispanic neighborhood of the South Bronx and of the people he cast for a series of public sculptures commissioned for an intersection outside a police station Jane Kramer telling this story raises one of the most urgent questions of our time How do we live in a society we share with people who are often by their own definitions different Ahearn s subjects were not the best of the neighborhood They were a junkie a hustler and a street kid Their images sparked a controversy throughout the community and New York itself over issues of white representations of people of color and the appropriateness of particular images as civic art The sculptures cast in bronze and painted were up for only five days before Ahearn removed them This compelling narrative raises questions about community and public art policies about stereotypes and multiculturalism With wit drama sympathy and circumspection Kramer draws the reader into the multicultural debate challenging our assumptions about art image and their relation to community Her portrait of the South Bronx takes the argument to its grass roots provocative surprising in its contradictions and complexities and not at all easy to resolve Accompanied by an introduction by Catharine R Stimpson exploring the issues of artistic freedom political correctness and multiculturalism Whose Art Is It is a lively and accessible introduction to the ongoing debate on representation and private expression in the public sphere

3 Maureen Reil,2013-11-28 Dear Santa I ve been a good girl all year especially to my sister who d made me lose weight before her wedding or I would not have been allowed to attend it And some people have a strict dress code at their nuptials but Alice insisted on a strict diet for the bridal party so as not to spoil the pictures by having a fatty in the main ones which were her words not mine so no offence big guy I have loved and done my best by my family my friends and most of all the special one who shares my soul my bed but not at my parents house for they won t allow it under their roof if we re not married And I don t mean my dog either when I mention bringing me joy beyond my expectations although he does matter hugely to me but I speak about the great love of my life being the one and only Harvey Brands so do ignore and excuse the happy tear stains on the ink I ve included a little wish list if you d care to look it over and perhaps find it in your generous heart to grant me at least one or two of them then I would be eternally grateful and believe in the magic of Christmas forever and a day 1 Please make my sister Alice be nice to me 2 Please make this upcoming year the best ever 3 Please make the following week dry and bright with cold not freezing to death weather 4 Please make this Christmas New Year a joyous occasion for everyone I know and respect 5 Please make everything turn out perfect if it is going to be my last Christmas at home 6 Please make this winter white wedding the stuff of dreams not nightmares 7 Please make my gift a spa retreat as I need it to relieve the stress of organising a wedding 8 Please make wishes 1 6 come true and I can live without the spa date if I really had to Thank you for taking the time to read my begging letter I fully understand why you didn t bring me a million pounds last time it was silly of me to think that you d carry that kind of ready cash on your person to deliver down the chimney which would make it dirty money when everyone knows you only carry toys and presents in that sack If I really want to win the lottery then I will have to buy a ticket like everyone else I suppose so here is to winning my fortune in the future cheers Yours faithfully Molly Compton age 30 XXX P S This is the third and final book in the Christmas Comedy Trilogy of British short novels and comes with warm wishes all round for a Happy Holidays and a peaceful New Year once again While
