MY AUTOBIOGRAPHY

I am Alea Mae D. Benitez, I was born on May 7, 2000 in Pasay City, Philippines. We are two siblings in the family, I am the second child. My mother's name is Divina D. Benitez from Sorsogon, Bicol. My father's name is Nelson D. Benitez. And he is from Camarines Sur, Bicol.

During weekends, we usually spend our days in the family. We always go to church. We helped each other in our activities. My family was a happy and loving family. I had a happy childhood living with my parents and my siblings. I completed my elementary education at Don Carlos Velez Elementary School. During my junior high school, I completed my junior high school at President Corazon Aquino National High School and I usually spend my time with my friends. Since the lockdown, I have a daily routine with my friend for a Google meet until dawn, and we do various things when we do, such as talk about what is going on in our lives and watch movies that have been shown several times. We have been watched pitch perfect all seasons. I finished it several times. When I am not with them, I watch shows like Mr. Queen and Ghost Doctor. And I am a senior at Pasay City South High School, I work hard on everything I can to get into a good university where I can continue my college.

Tomorrow An Educational Autobiography Essay:

Modern Mathematics Dirk De Bock, 2023-03-08 The international New Math developments between about 1950 through 1980 are regarded by many mathematics educators and education historians as the most historically important development in curricula of the twentieth century It attracted the attention of local and international politicians of teachers and of parents and influenced the teaching and learning of mathematics at all levels kindergarten to college graduate in many nations After garnering much initial support it began to attract criticism But as Bill Jacob and the late Jerry Becker show in Chapter 17 some of the effects became entrenched This volume edited by Professor Dirk De Bock of Belgium provides an outstanding overview of the New Math modern mathematics movement Chapter authors provide exceptionally high quality analyses of the rise of the movement and of subsequent developments within a range of nations The first few chapters show how the initial leadership came from mathematicians in European nations and in the United States of America The background leaders in Europe were Caleb Gattegno and members of a mysterious group of mainly French pure mathematicians who since the 1930s had published under the name of a fictitious Nicolas Bourbaki In the United States there emerged during the 1950s various attempts to improve U S mathematics curricula and teaching especially in secondary schools and colleges This side of the story climaxed in 1957 when the Soviet Union succeeded in launching Sputnik the first satellite Undoubtedly this is a landmark publication in education The foreword was written by Professor Bob Moon one of a few other scholars to have written on the New Math from an international perspective The final epilogue chapter by Professor Geert Vanpaemel a historian draws together the overall thrust of the volume and makes links with the general history of curriculum development especially in science education including recent globalization trends Schooling for Tomorrow's America Marcella L. Kysilka, O. L. Davis, 2013-09-01 This book can be read by educators at all stages in their careers What a great selection for a book study group of practicing teachers or for a seminar with graduate students The authors share their thoughts about education for the future but also inform us about the past Whether you encounter this book as a textbook or for a professional learning community the contents will inform and inspire you encouraging you to think deeply and work towards the improvement of education Essays in Twentieth-Century Southern Education Wayne Urban, 2014-03-05 A comprehensive treatment of the defining issues race class reform regarding education in this century of the American South The approaches range from broad based historical comparisons to analyses of select case studies Autobiographical Writing and Identity in EFL Education Shizhou Yang, 2013-09-11 The book explores the pedagogical potential of autobiographical writing in English as a foreign language approaching the topic from an educational longitudinal dialogical and social perspective Through a number of case studies the author delineates four phases that EFL writers may experience in their identity construction processes illustrating the complexity of EFL writers social identities This book will provide a valuable resource for language teachers and researchers interested in the pedagogical applications of autobiographical writing All Tomorrow's Cultures Samuel Gerald Collins, 2021-06-11 The first edition of All Tomorrow's Cultures explored the legacy of futures thinking in anthropology and marked the beginning of a resurgence of interest in anthropological futures The new edition has been updated to reflect some of the outpouring of work since then particularly in science and technology studies and in anthropological analyses of indigenous futures In addition Collins has updated the final chapter to expand the field of anthropological possibility in an age of both despair and hope A Richer, Brighter Vision for American High Schools Nel Noddings, 2015-05-14 Nel Noddings advocates a unifying educational aim of producing better adults and presents strategies to achieve this in high schools Dire Straits-Education Reforms Montserrat Gomendio, José Ignacio Wert, 2023-02-14 Responding to an educational emergency generated largely by the difficulties of implementing education reforms this book compares education policies around the world in order to understand what works where To address the key question of why education reforms are so difficult the authors take into account a broad range of relevant factors such as governance ideology and stakeholder conflicts of interest and their interactions with one another Drawing on their experiences as policymakers in the Spanish government and as governmental advisors worldwide Montserrat Gomendio and Jose Ignacio Wert produce a publication like no other shifting the usual Eurocentric narrative and shedding light on frequently overlooked educational policies from elsewhere In this context they dive deeper into details of educational failures and successes the processes of implementation and investment priorities in different countries They provide revealing accounts of stakeholder conflicts of interest and the challenges of implementing educational reform during a financial crisis The authors also investigate why the evidence from international large scale assessments ILSAs has contrary to expectation not generated improvements in most education systems Gomendio and Wert investigate the evolution of different education systems closely examining their advances or declines Gomendio and Wert's expert voices illuminate the current state of global education systems and the necessary changes to ensure long awaited improvements This is a revelatory and informative resource for policymakers teachers and academics alike Condensed Financial Report of the Board of Education, 1895 Curriculum Fragments Thomas S. Poetter, 2024-07-12 This book builds upon Louise Berman's late 20th century framing of life processes to inform school curriculum by proposing a new curriculum project that extends and reframes Berman in and beyond schooling Using the well established curriculum theorizing method currere the author focuses on seven life processes including knowing loving losing growing forgiving relating and hoping Each of these is approached using currere oriented autobiographical fragments stories from the author's own lived experiences in education and life that illuminate the educational curricular and pedagogical possibilities of each of the seven processes using past present and future perspectives which the author calls curriculum fragments These curriculum fragments are tied to historical and contemporary curriculum theorizing and educational theory and practice in order to suggest considerations for movement for the reader scholar educator and leader It ultimately asks whether humanity can create a joyful beautiful and just curriculum of life for each and every person through schooling and beyond and consequently a better world built on love Focusing on real life experiences in school and life that have educational implications and that can inform the curriculum the field of curriculum studies and the act of curriculum theorizing this book will appeal to curriculum scholars interested in using currere understanding patterns of use participating in the production of curriculum and educational knowledge in the field and perceiving and using curriculum theorizing as an integral part of their daily work Notes and Essays on Education for Adults, 1955 Resources in Education, 1997 Occupational Information and Guidance Bibliography, 1937-38--, 1941 Vocational Division Bulletin, 1941 Credit Problems of Families, 1940 The Cambridge Companion to Literature and the Posthuman Bruce Clarke, Manuela Rossini, 2017 This book gathers diverse critical treatments from fifteen scholars of the posthuman and posthumanism together in a single volume Growing a Soul for Social Change Tonya Huber-Warring, 2008-04-01 For readers new to the field of multicultural education and human relations education the recency of these publications heralded as seminal may be confusing for certainly the concepts building the field of multicultural education and human relations education have been around much longer True But for the first time we found the conceptual framework guiding principles and critical works across disciplines and fields in Smith s encyclopedic organization Because of the comprehensive nature of Pritchey Smith s knowledge bases they have been employed as the organizing themes for this volume I would clarify that I have not burdened authors to study Smith s analysis and then apply it to their works the categorization is my own And as is true of any topic the interpretation and application may be broadly applicable One of my major goals in founding this series has been to further develop the knowledge bases with voices from those in the trenches literally and figuratively and at the chalkface while proverbial for some parts of the world chalk remains a teaching staple in many regions of the world Throughout this volume authors will explore and research their own discoveries on this journey narratives of crossing cultures and developing communities reconceptualizing democracy and reinterpreting traditions seeking solidarity and sowing the seeds of social justice Through critical reflection in the shade of these giants the reader may discover Ming Fang s bamboo tree The Gratifications of Whiteness Ella Myers, 2022 The first book length study of W E B Du Bois s conceptualization of American whiteness W E B Du Bois famously argued that whiteness in the US in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries functioned as a public and psychological wage offering valuable social standing to even the poorest of whites Such compensation dependent on the devaluation of Black existence helped secure the US capitalist regime and prevent interracial class solidarity This book argues that Du Bois s influential account of compensatory whiteness is crucially important but also incomplete For Du Bois whiteness was never one thing but many Focusing on Du Bois s middle period work about 1920 1940 Ella Myers uncovers an overlooked complex analysis that theorizes whiteness as a source of varied gratifications These gratifications include not only the status rewards of racial capitalism but also the enjoyment of gratuitous Black suffering and the conviction that the planet belongs to those marked as white The book shows that Du Bois's analysis developed in response to the pressing political problems of his own day also offers insight into 21st century struggles for racial justice Myers argues that it is important to recognize the extent to which anti Blackness continues to underwrite plural and deeply disturbing forms of white gratification here and now Doing so helps explain the tenacity of America's unequal racial order and also reveals why creative multifaceted strategies of resistance are necessary to end it Tomorrow's Cures Today? Donald R Forsdyke, 2003-09-02 Discussing the laws in the current research funding decision process the author suggests ways to improve future funding of health research systems Chapters recount ways of raising funds the tragic way authorities improperly introduced diphtheria immunization consideration of how the peer review system evolved in response to massive infusion of funds in the nineteen forties and the status quo generating a climate conducive to ethics violations among others This fascinating work will be an invaluable tool to researchers health care workers members of government agencies and those in charitable organizations that support health research as well as to anyone interested in current trends in this area including patients The Papon Affair Richard Joseph Golsan, 2000 First Published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Interpretive Pedagogies for Higher Education Jon Nixon, 2012-03-29 Interpretive Pedagogies for Higher Education focuses on providing a humanistic perspective on pedagogy by relating it to the interpretive practices of particular public educators thinkers and writers whose work has had an immeasurable impact on how we understand and interpret the world and how our understandings and interpretations act on that world Jon Nixon focuses on the work of four public intellectuals each of whom reaches out to a wide public readership and develops our understanding regarding the nature of interpretation in the everyday world Hannah Arendt's work on representative thinking John Berger's injunction to hold everything dear Edward Said's notion of democratic criticism and Martha Nussbaum's studies in the intelligence of feeling These thinkers provide valuable perspectives on the nature and purpose of interpretation in everyday life The implications of these perspectives for the development of a transformative pedagogy and for the renewal of an educated public are examined in relation to the current contexts of higher education within a knowledge society
