together Morrison's trilogy of Beloved, Jazz and Paradise alongside Dos Passos' USA trilogy work which links Morrison to such Black Atlantic artists as Lubaina Himid and others as well as work which offers a reading of influence that goes both directions between Morrison and Faulkner. Another cluster of essays treats seldom discussed works by Morrison including an essay on Morrison as writer of children's books and as speaker for children's education. In addition a Teaching Morrison section is designed to help teachers and critics who teach Morrison in undergraduate classes. The Bloomsbury Handbook to Toni Morrison is wide ranging, provocative and satisfying, a fitting tribute to one of the greatest American novelists. A

Misrepresented People Darrius D'wayne Hills, 2025-01-21. Offers a Black male response to the challenge of womanist thought. Although much Black religious scholarship has engaged with feminist theory and womanist thought, a gap remains where little work has been done in religious studies to investigate the Black male experience. A Misrepresented People explores how African American men grapple with identity and masculinity in relation to Black religious thought. This book counters the dominant portrayal of Black men in American society as suspicious, morally defective and irredeemable and showcases the strength and relevance of Black religious thought in developing alternative notions of Black manhood. Drawing on womanist discourses, African American religious thought, literature and Black male studies as well as an examination of the writings and sermons of Howard Thurman and Martin Luther King Jr, Darrius D'wayne Hills offers a vision of Black male identity that is grounded in interpersonal relationships and connection. Positioning identity formation as a religious concern, Hills expands the application of religious scholarship toward the complex social and material realities faced by Black men. In doing so, this volume offers a much needed new model for understanding Black male gender identity, illustrating how religious thought fosters more holistic and livable futures for African American men. Traumatic Memory and the Ethical, Political and Transhistorical Functions of Literature Susana Onega, Constanza del Río, Maite Escudero-Alías, 2017-12-01. This volume addresses the construction and artistic representation of traumatic memories in the contemporary Western world from a variety of inter and trans disciplinary critical approaches and perspectives ranging from the cultural, political, historical and ideological to the ethical and aesthetic, and distinguishing between individual, collective and cultural traumas. The chapters introduce complementary concepts from diverse thinkers including Cathy Caruth, Jacques Derrida, Judith Butler, Homi Bhabha, Abraham and Torok and Joyce Carol Oates; they also draw from fields of study such as Memory Studies, Theory of Affects, Narrative and Genre Theory and Cultural Studies. Traumatic Memory and the Political Economic and Transhistorical Functions of Literature addresses trauma as a culturally embedded phenomenon and deconstructs the idea of trauma as universal, transhistorical and abstract. Contemporary Women's Gothic Fiction

Comparative Postcolonialism in the Works of V.S. Naipaul and Toni Morrison Alshaymaa Mohamed Ahmed, 2022-07-07 Comparative Postcolonialism in the Works of V S Naipaul and Toni Morrison Fragmented Identities begins with an overview of its theoretical framework highlighting the intersectional relationship between postcolonial literature and comparative literature Tracing selected novels by Naipaul and Morrison the book takes as a starting point Fanon's three phase journey of the decolonizing process In the first phase of mimicry Naipaul's and Morrison's earlier novels represent the assimilation of indigenous people into dominant hegemonic cultures The second phase is envisioned as the re narration or re interpretation of the past and old legends of indigenous culture Morrison succeeds in asserting that her ancestors past is the only way to celebrate a cultural identity but Naipaul tends to criticize and neglect his past and his original indigenous culture The third phase marks the emergence of a revolutionary literature in which Naipaul and Morrison guide their people to hybridity as a new way of becoming and resisting the hegemonic dichotomies in dominant societies

Toni Morrison and the Classical Tradition Tessa Roynon, 2013-10-10 In this volume Roynon explores Toni Morrison's widespread engagement with ancient Greek and Roman tradition Discussing all ten of her published novels to date Roynon examines the ways in which classical myth literature history social practice and religious ritual make their presence felt in Morrison s writing Combining original and detailed close readings with broader theoretical discussion she argues that Morrison s classical allusiveness is characterized by a strategic ambivalence Adopting a thematic rather than novel by novel approach Roynon demonstrates that Morrison s classicism is fundamental to the transformative critique of American history and culture that her work effects Building on recent developments in race theory transnational studies and Classical Reception studies the volume positions Morrison within a genealogy of intellectuals who have challenged the purported conservative nature of Greek and Roman tradition and who have revealed its construction as a white or pure and purifying force to be a fabrication of the Enlightenment Exploring the ways in which Morrison s dialogue with Homer Aeschylus Euripides Virgil and Ovid relates to her simultaneous dialogue with many other American literary forebears from Cotton Mather to Willa Cather or from Pauline Hopkins to F Scott Fitzgerald and William Faulkner Roynon shows that Morrison s classicism enables her to fulfil her own imperative that the past has to be revised Toni Morrison's The Bluest Eye Christopher Hubert,1996 Provides a study guide synopsis and analysis of Toni Morrison s novel The Bluest Eye and contains topics for papers and reports and study questions

Theory of Racelessness Sheena Michele Mason,2022-05-27 This book presents a skeptical eliminativist philosophy of race and the theory of racelessness a methodological and pedagogical framework for analyzing race and racism It explores the history of skeptical eliminativism and constructionist eliminativism within the history of African American philosophy and literary studies and its consistent connection with movements for civil rights Sheena M Mason considers how current anti racist efforts reflect naturalist conservationist and constructionist reconstructionist philosophies of race that prevent more people from fully confronting the problem of racism not race thereby enabling racism to persist She then offers a three part solution for how scholars and people aspiring toward anti racism can avoid unintentionally upholding racism using literary studies as a case study to show how race often translates into racism itself The theory of racelessness helps more people undo racism by undoing the belief in race Toni Morrison Lawrie Balfour,2023 In this study of Toni Morrison s writing Lawrie Balfour explores the idea of freedom through Morrison s novels and nonfiction Morrison s writing illuminates the meanings of freedom and unfreedom in a democratic society founded on both the defense of liberty and the right to enslavement Balfour considers how Morrison s writing ignites new ways of being free in the shadow of racial slavery and colonialism Re-forming the Past A. Timothy Spaulding,2005 The slave experience was a defining one in American history and not surprisingly has been a significant and powerful trope in African American literature In Re Forming the Past A Timothy Spaulding examines contemporary revisions of slave narratives that use elements of the fantastic to redefine the historical and literary constructions of American slavery In their rejection of mimetic representation and traditional historiography postmodern slave narratives such as Ishmael Reed s Flight to Canada Octavia Butler s Kindred Toni Morrison s Beloved Charles Johnson s Ox Herding Tale and Middle Passage Jewelle Gomez s The Gilda Stories and Samuel Delaney s Stars in My Pocket like Grains of Sand set out to counter the usual slave narrative s reliance on realism and objectivity by creating alternative histories based on subjective fantastic and non realistic representations of slavery As these texts critique traditional conceptions of history identity and aesthetic form they simultaneously re invest these concepts with a political agency that harkens back to the original project of the 19th century slave narratives In their rejection of mimetic representation and traditional historiography Spaulding contextualizes postmodern slave narrative By addressing both literary and popular African American texts Re Forming the Past expands discussions of both the African American literary tradition and postmodern culture Postmodern Utopias and Feminist Fictions Jennifer A.
