

THE SUZUKI

Several groups support this for various reasons. One is a general concern with the growing dependence on the U.S. Treasury, especially for the U.S. government bond market. A change of leadership, especially regarding the Treasury Secretary, would be a positive step toward greater independence and transparency in the Treasury's operations. Another reason is the desire to have a more balanced approach to the Treasury's role in the economy, particularly in the context of the current economic challenges.
