The HiSET is an alternative to the GED test and the TASC test. In some states it is the only acceptable test for earning a high school equivalency diploma. In other states it is just 1 test option out of 2 or 3. To find out whether your state will be using the HiSET for high school equivalency tests visit hiset.org or contact your state's department of education. The previous edition of this book was titled HiSET Exam Third Edition.

Economics, Business, and Islamic Finance in ASEAN Economic Community Ordoñez de Pablos, Patricia, Almunawar, Mohammad Nabil, Abduh, Muhamad, 2020-01-03 The economic integration of Southeast Asia or ASEAN Economic Community AEC offers enormous opportunities for its members to develop and collectively collaborate with other economies. Combining the culture of the region with global business in an expanding digital atmosphere however has caused numerous challenges on an international scale. Due to the importance of this economic player in Asia research on key topics including Islamic economics, Islamic finance, technology and cultural issues in doing business are essential to understand the ASEAN competitive landscape and its relations with other countries. Economics Business and Islamic Finance in ASEAN Economic Community is a pivotal reference source that explores key issues and enhances understanding of business and economics in the ASEAN community and explores the collaboration between this community and Islamic finance and technology. While highlighting topics such as global business, smart manufacturing and human resource management this publication explores sustainable development practices as well as the methods of cultural appreciation in economics. This book is ideally designed for deans, heads of department, directors, politicians, policymakers, economists, corporate heads, senior general managers, managing directors, information technology directors and managers, libraries, academicians, researchers and students.
