Snapped In Cornwall:

Snapped in Cornwall Janie Bolitho, 2000 Rose Trevelyan's life in Cornwall was peaceful until she was invited to a party where the hostess was found dead Snapped in Cornwall Janie Bolitho, 2000 Framed in Cornwall Janie Bolitho, 2001 Dorothy Pengelly lived alone in her remote dilapidated cottage with only her pets as company When her old friend Rose Trevelyan comes to visit and finds Dorothy dead she is devastated When Rose learns that it wasn't a heart attack but a case of suicide her suspicions are immediately roused Dorothy never would have killed herself but would anyone else have the motive to murder her Are the valuable paintings hanging on the walls the clue to the mystery Perhaps Dorothy's avaricious daughter-in-law had a hand in the old lady's death or maybe it is connected to a visit from a stranger earlier in the week As Rose seeks the truth she begins to realize that some people in this idyllic seaside town have secrets to hide

Caught Out in Cornwall (Large Print 16pt) Janie Bolitho, 2014-10-03 When Rose Trevelyan sees a young girl being carried away by someone who appears to be her father she thinks nothing of it Until that is the appearance of a frantic mother who cannot find her child Beth Jones is only four years old and her mother is adamant that the man Rose saw taking her away must be a stranger Wracked with guilt for not intervening Rose once again finds herself entangled in a criminal investigation As time passes it becomes clear that the chances of getting Beth back unharmed are very bleak indeed

Joe Plant, 2010-07 Little if anything is known about Torpoint's passage through the years of World War II in fact it is a time forgotten This book goes some way to describe what actually did happen It is not about one story but about many individual stories threaded together to record and validate one person's recollection together with others to give a true account of the incident in question which caused death and injuries to its civilian residents also the fate of its servicemen who died in battle throughout the world Due to censorship the taking of photographs was not permitted However during research for the book a few did come to light including German Reconnaissance photos identifying Torpoint as a target and American GIs leaving on 1st June 1944 bound for the D Day Landings a truthful illustration of the times and incidents that did occur This book also identifies a complete list of Torpoint's War fatalities their courage dedication and sense of sacrifice which brought about their early demise It is a chronicle of a short period in the town's history that students will learn from and that for others will hopefully rekindle lost family memories I can only congratulate Joe on a quite remarkable achievement This book will provide a permanent insight to this and future generations of the dark days our predecessors had to endure the contribution they made to eventual victory and the freedoms we enjoy today Richard Carew Pole Bt ABOUT THE AUTHOR Joe Plant was born in Crystal Palace London During the London Blitz of March 1941 his family was bombed out so he has personal experience of being involved with incidents of falling bombs during the Blitz He travelled north to Lancashire to seek refuge returning before the end of the war to the devastation of London In 1955 he was conscripted as a National Serviceman and served in Malaya during the Emergency War Demobed in 1957 in 1959 he married his wife Annette From their marriage they have three children and seven grandchildren In 1963 through a car accident Joe was left partially sighted He trained as a Design Draftsman had to change his profession to become a Purchasing Manager which took him to many foreign countries before he was seconded to Devonport Dockyard in 1987 He moved to Torpoint where the family settled In 1997 he became the Chairman of the reformed Torpoint branch of the Royal British Legion Full Circle Janie Bolitho, 2003 Donna lives on a tough housing estate She has no education but has a clear ambition to marry a rich man Helen is married to a successful doctor and has it all When their lives clash in a bizarre twist of fate it is Donna who helps Helen to rebuild her shattered life The Genesis Trust Wayne Runde, 2022-01-15 In the three centuries since Galileo science steadily advanced In the early twentieth century science and technology were the undisputed champions of everyday life Now the pride of scientists was causing science to fail Clemens Gerhardt a distinguished scientist and member of the National Academy of Sciences saw where this pride led As science failed it would lead to worsening conditions and eventually to another Dark Age Untold millions would die of starvation and disease Like Galileo before him he was ostracized by the elitist scientists as a heretic To preserve science and continue its advance Gerhardt and the American president gathered like minded scientists to preserve and promote science

They were hidden away on the island of Atlantis where the Genesis Trust was established as a rebirth of the scientific method. No explanations of nature were discarded even if it went contrary to scientists in the rest of the world. Soon the Trust found itself embroiled in events in the rest of the world. The nascent Atlantans aided the United States in its darkest hour. But a short time later the Trust was pitted against the prideful scientists in America as well as a rebellion at home. Their challenge was to defeat the US military abroad and quell unrest at home all without unnecessary violence and without revealing their existence to the world.

Saipan is just another battle as the United States leaps island to island toward an invasion of the Japanese homeland. But the Japanese have learned all too well how to defend their islands with carefully constructed and concealed bunkers and machine gun nests. Talbot and the dozen men of Second Squad have no idea they are running headlong into thirty five thousand Japanese soldiers who have sworn to fight to the last man. In vivid startling detail Shattered Jade explores the strategy and horror of battle in one of World War II's most brutal conflicts and illuminates the extraordinary courage of ordinary young men.
