Carter,2009-06-17 Ten African American leaders in the church tell their stories of how they embraced Reformed theology and what effect it has had on their lives and ministries The ten men who have contributed to this book are often asked How did you come to embrace Reformed theology With the recent surge in popularity of Reformed theology in the broader evangelical world and the growing interest among African Americans it shouldn't seem curious that more and more African American churchmen are embracing Reformed theology But the question remains and Glory Road provides an answer using personal accounts tracing their conversion to Christianity their introduction to and embrace of Reformed theology and this theology's effect on their lives and ministries Ultimately Glory Road is about the glory of God in providentially bringing men and women to the truths of salvation In addition to the book's editor Anthony J Carter Glory Road includes contributions from such notable pastors as Thabiti Anyabwile Ken Jones Michael Leach and Eric Redmond Golden Anniversary Journal Greater New Mt. Latin America but also goes beyond it to discuss women's interaction not only with literature but also with art and language itself in the Hispanic and Lusophone contexts. It acts as a showcase for contemporary scholarship undertaken in Hispanic and Lusophone gender studies, developing earlier insights and forging new ones to refine the debate continuing in the subject. The contributors include both established scholars with a proven track record and promising newcomers to the field. The volume arises from the individual research projects and sustained discussions of Women in Spanish, Portuguese and Latin American Studies WiSPs, an organisation that exists to promote scholarship by and about women in the field of Iberian, Lusophone and Latin American Studies. This volume celebrates the first seven years of WiSPs's life and presents some of the research presented under its auspices at annual conferences and study days. Herald and Presbyter, 1907 Renewal and
