Education Reform in the American States Jerry McBeath,Maria Elena Reyes,Mary Ehrlander,2008-04-01 Education Reform in the American States is a timely evaluation of the accountability movement in American public education culminating in the No Child Left Behind Act federal legislation of 2002 The authors treat the current accountability movement placing it in historical context and addressing the evolution in public education policymaking from the overwhelming emphasis on state and local discretion to increasing federal oversight and mandates related to federal funding They provide case studies of the educational accountability movements in nine states and analyze the factors and forces which explain progress in achievement levels as measured on standardized tests and the states prospects for meeting their NCLB targets The book and the individual case studies acknowledge the merits of NCLB while exposing several significant flaws and unintended harmful consequences of the act particularly its incentives for states to lower their standards in order to meet annual yearly progress targets and its threat to withdraw federal funds from districts with the highest percentage of disadvantaged students The audience for this study includes local state and federal education policy makers administrators and instructors in schools of education and other teaching programs educators and the general public Brookings Papers on Education Policy: 2002 Diane Ravitch,2010-12-01 Published annually Brookings Papers on Education Policy BPEP analyzes policies intended to improve student performance In each volume some of the best informed analysts in various disciplines review the current situation in education and consider programs for reform In this fifth annual issue of the series prominent educators and other social scientists discuss accountability and its consequences for students Contents include Grade Retention and Social Promotion in Texas 1994 99 A Gary Dworkin Jon Lorence Laurence Toenjes and Antwanette Hill University of Houston Reform Resistance Retreat The Predictable Policies of Accountability in Virginia Frederick Hess University of Virginia School Accountability in California An Early Evaluation Julian Betts UC San Diego and Public Policy Institute of California and Anne Danenberg Public Policy Institute of California Standards and Accountability in Washington State Paul Hill and Robin Lake University of Washington Volatility in School Test Scores Implications for Test Based Accountability Systems Tom Kane Kennedy School of Government Harvard University and Douglas O Staiger Dartmouth College Building a High Quality Assessment Program The Philadelphia Example Andy Porter Wisconsin Center for Education and Research and Mitchell Chester Philadelphia School System Accountability in Chicago Alfred Hess Northwestern University Journal of Social Studies Research ,2006 Roadmap to the Virginia Sol: Eoc World History Laura York,Princeton Review,2005 Virginia Journal of Education ,2003 Re-Membering History in Student and

Teacher Learning Joyce E. King, Ellen E. Swartz, 2014-03-05 What kind of social studies knowledge can stimulate a critical and ethical dialog with the past and present Re Membering History in Student and Teacher Learning answers this question by explaining and illustrating a process of historical recovery that merges Afrocentric theory and principles of culturally informed curricular practice to reconnect multiple knowledge bases and experiences In the case studies presented K 12 practitioners teacher educators preservice teachers and parents use this praxis to produce and then study the use of democratized student texts they step outside of reproducing standard school experiences to engage in conscious inquiry about their shared present as a continuance of a shared past This volume exemplifies not only why instructional materials including most so called multicultural materials obstruct democratized knowledge but also takes the next step to construct and then study how re membered student texts can be used Case study findings reveal improved student outcomes enhanced relationships between teachers and families and teachers and students and a closer connection for children and adults to their heritage
