The Mayor of Casterbridge - Thomas Hardy Thomas Hardy, 2020-09-05 Thomas Hardy OM was an English author of the naturalist movement. Although in several poems he displays elements of the previous romantic and enlightenment periods of literature, such as his fascination with the supernatural, he regarded himself primarily as a poet and composed novels mainly for financial gain. The bulk of his work is set mainly in the semi-fictional land of Wessex, delineating characters struggling against their passions and circumstances. In a fit of drunken anger, Michael Henchard sells his wife and baby daughter for five guineas at a country fair. Over the course of the following years, he manages to establish himself as a respected and prosperous pillar of the community of Casterbridge, but behind his success there always lurks the shameful secret of his past and a personality prone to self-destructive pride and temper. Subtitled A Story of a Man of Character, Hardy's powerful and sympathetic study of the heroic but deeply flawed Henchard is also an intensely dramatic work tragically played out against the vivid backdrop of a close-knit Dorsetshire town.
