Typhoon and Other Stories Joseph Conrad, 1991-10-15 Joseph Conrad s long experience as a working seaman enriched and deepened his literary gifts making him the most brilliant and convincing writer of seafaring s greatest age In the three sea stories collected here he makes deft use of the maritime setting to enact moral dramas of men tested by the elements and by one another The Nigger of the Narcissus has been hailed as Conrad s earliest masterpiece When a West Indian sailor on board the merchant ship Narcissus falls ill his condition sparks conflict among the crew which threatens to erupt in mutiny under the pressure of a terrifying gale Typhoon the gripping story of a steamship captain who stubbornly steers into a major tempest and the crew s ensuing struggle to survive the raging waters is distinguished by one of the most thrillingly evoked storms in all of literature The Shadow Line is a dramatically fictionalized account of Conrad s first command as a young sea captain trapped aboard a becalmed fever wracked and seemingly haunted ship an ordeal that marks for him the shadow line between youth and maturity Suspenseful atmospheric and deceptively simple this intense story reflects the complex themes of Conrad s most famous novels Lord Jim and Heart of Darkness With an introduction by Martin Seymour Smith

Heart of Darkness - Ed. Goonetilleke - Third Edition Joseph Conrad, 2020-07-21 The first incarnation of this Broadview edition of Heart of Darkness appeared in 1995 the second in 1999 both were widely acclaimed and the Goonetilleke Heart of Darkness remained for many years one of Broadview s best selling titles For the third edition the book has been completely revised and updated to take account of the scholarship of the most recent generation The introduction has been extensively rewritten and the appendices of contextual materials thoroughly overhauled The two previous editions of the Goonetilleke Heart of Darkness included a substantial selection of documents on the history of Benin ranging from excerpts taken from Olaudah Equiano's eighteenth century narrative to documents concerning the Benin massacre of 1897 Those documents concerning a neighboring Bantu society were included in large part because of the paucity of known late nineteenth century documents concerning the Congo by black Africans or indeed by black observers of any nationality In place of those Benin related materials this new edition includes substantial excerpts from George Washington Williams's Letter to Leopold II as well as substantial excerpts from an extraordinary document not included in any other edition of Heart of Darkness but discussed extensively in two ground breaking twenty first century works of scholarship David Van Reybrouck's Congo The Epic History of a People and Maya Jasanoff's The Dawn Watch Joseph Conrad in a Global World the autobiography of Disasi Makulo Makulo grew up near the shore of the Congo River in the 1880s and early 1890s was enslaved by notorious ivory dealer Tippu Tip and then was taken under the wing of Henry Morton Stanley Makulo's account substantial excerpts of which are here translated into English for the first time opens an unprecedented window on life in the equatorial forest of the Congo in the late nineteenth century Henry Green at the Limits of Modernism Marius Hentea, 2013-11-01 Although Henry Green has been recognised by James Wood David Lodge and John Updike as one of the most innovative writers of his time his significant achievement remains largely neglected Henry Green at the Limits of Modernism provides a theoretically sophisticated and historically nuanced reading of Green's novels and makes the case for Green's importance in reconsiderations of modernism late modernism and post war realism This work is the most ambitious reassessment of Green's oeuvre to date and thus critical reading for scholars interested in modernism late modernism and the evolution of British post war fiction Arguing against the predominant view of Green's fiction as an autonomous literary construction the work connects Green to a number of social and literary contexts resulting in fresh readings of his novels and also a greater accessibility to an author long considered oblique and elusive With significant investigations of Green's connection to his literary generation his multifaceted and formally innovative handling of social class his negotiations of narrative authority and authorship and the importance of disability studies to understanding Green's fiction this study charts the complex trajectories of Green's fiction against both social and literary contexts The work also moves beyond the narrow confines of British literature to explore Green's connections to broader trends in European literature The Winding Stair Alfred Edward Woodley Mason, 1925 Silence, Space and Absence in Conrad's Works John G. Peters, 2023-10-12 This book considers the relationship between sound and silence in the works of Joseph Conrad along with their ties to Western and non Western space Throughout Conrad's works a pattern emerges where Western space is associated with sound and non Western space is associated with silence similarly Western space is portrayed as full of objects and activity whereas non Western space is portrayed as empty As these tales progress though Conrad's characters embark on transformational journeys that cause them to reassess the world they live in and sometimes even the nature of the universe These journeys invariably occur through encountering non Western space and during the course of these journeys the dichotomy between Western space perceived as replete with sound and activity and non Western space empty of such blurs such that the fullness of the West is revealed to be simply a surface hiding the emptiness beneath In the end both Western and non Western space are revealed to be absences as the absence of sound becomes a correlative for the emptiness of space and the emptiness of space becomes a metonym for the cosmological emptiness of nothingness Heart of Darkness - Ed. Goonetilleke - Second Edition Joseph Conrad,1999-08-16 The story of Marlow travelling upriver in central Africa to find Kurtz an ivory agent as consumed by the horror of human life as he is by physical illness has long been considered a classic and continues to be widely read and studied This edition edited by one of the leading figures in the Conrad controversy includes an introduction and explanatory notes as well as a fascinating variety of contemporary documents that help to set this extraordinary work in the context of the period from which it emerged The introduction and bibliography have been updated and two new appendices have been added the second of these is a selection of Alice Harris s extraordinary but little known photographs documenting the horrors of colonialism in turn of the century Congo Critical Approaches to Joseph Conrad Agata Szczeszak-Brewer,2015-08-31 Critical Approaches to Joseph Conrad is a collection of essays directed to both new and experienced readers of Conrad The book takes into account recent developments in literary theory including the prominence of ecocriticism ecopostcolonial approaches and gender studies Editor Agata Szczeszak Brewer offers a comprehensive and comprehensible introduction to Conrad s most popular texts also addressing the most recent academic debates as well as the conversations about narrative and genre in Conrad s canon Students and scholars of Conrad twentieth century literature and modernism will appreciate the clear accessible prose by nineteen internationally recognized contributors who approach Conrad in different ways from postcolonial and ecocritical perspectives through explorations of gender to psychoanalysis narrative theory and political analysis Beginning with a biographical introduction by Szczeszak Brewer the collection offers an essay outlining the cultural and historical contexts that influenced Conrad s fiction and an essay on reception of Conrad s work Following that contributors provide critical approaches to Heart of Darkness Lord Jim Typhoon Nostromo The Secret Agent The Secret Sharer and Under Western Eyes In these sections scholars offer insights about complex issues in Conrad s fiction ranging from the study of specific literary tools and narrative development in his books to the political theories in Conrad s portrayal of the threat of terrorism and violent revolutions Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness D.C.R.A. Typhoon, and other stories Joseph Conrad, 1921 Across the Lines, 2022-05-16 This third volume of ASNEL Papers covers a wide range of theoretical and thematic approaches to the subject of intertextuality Intertextual relations between oral and written versions of literature text and performance as well as problems emerging from media transitions regionally instructed forms of intertextuality and the works of individual authors are equally dealt with Intertextuality as both a creative and a critical practice frequently exposes the essential arbitrariness of literary and cultural manifestations that have become canonized The transformation and transfer of meanings which accompanies any crossing between texts rests not least on the nature of the artistic corpus embodied in the general framework of historically and socially determined cultural traditions Traditions however result from selective forms of perception they are as much inventions as they are based on exclusion Intertextuality leads to a constant reinforcement of tradition while at the same time intertextual relations between the new literatures and other English language literatures are all too obvious Despite the inevitable impact of tradition the new literatures tend to employ a dynamic reading of culture which fosters social process and transition thus promoting transcultural rather than intercultural modes of communication Writing and reading across borders becomes a dialogue which reveals both differences and similarities More than a decolonizing form of deconstruction intertextuality is a strategy for communicating meaning across cultural boundaries The Quarterly Review William Gifford, Sir John Taylor Coleridge, John Gibson Lockhart, Whitwell Elwin, William Macpherson, William Smith, Sir John Murray IV, John Murray, Rowland Edmund Prothero (Baron Ernle), George Walter Prothero, 1912
