The Middle Parts Of Fortune Frederic Manning, 2012-04-26 Hailed by Eliot Pound Lawrence and Hemingway and based on the author's own experiences The Middle Parts of Fortune is a breathtaking account of the Great War and the men who fought it The Middle Parts Of Fortune Frederic Manning, 2012-04-26 The drumming of the guns continued with bursts of great intensity It was as though a gale streamed overhead piling up great waves of sound and hurrying them onwards to crash in surf on the enemy entrenchments The windless air about them by its very stillness made that unearthly music more terrible to hear First published anonymously in 1929 because its language was considered far too frank for public circulation The Middle Parts of Fortune was hailed by T S Eliot and Ezra Pound by Lawrence of Arabia and Ernest Hemingway as an extraordinary novel Its author was in fact Frederic Manning an Australian writer who fought in the Battle of the Somme in 1916 and who told his story of men at war from the perspective of an ordinary soldier Never before published in Australia The Middle Parts of Fortune is now recognised as a twentieth century classic The Middle Parts Of Fortune Frederic Manning, 2001-05-07 First published anonymously in 1929 because its language was considered far too frank for public circulation The Middle Parts of Fortune was hailed by T S Eliot and Ezra Pound by Lawrence of Arabia and Ernest Hemingway as an extraordinary novel Its author was in fact Frederic Manning an Australian writer who fought in the Battle of the Somme in 1916 and who told his story of men at war from the perspective of an ordinary soldier The Middle Parts of Fortune is now recognised as a twentieth century classic The Bulletin ,2000-03 The Classical Review ,1908

Good-bye to All that Robert Graves, 2007 Bringing together three of Robert Graves most significant writings on the meaning of the Great War the original 1929 edition of Goodbye to All That the essay A Postscript to Goodbye to All That and the play But It Still Goes On this volume brings works that have been long out of print to a new audience These works explore the nature of personal literature written about the Great War as well as the cultural and emotional wasteland left in its wake The introduction by Steven Trout provides an invaluable context for Graves classic autobiography Classical Myths and Legends in the Middle Ages and Renaissance H. David Brumble, 1998-02-01 While numerous classical dictionaries identify the figures and tales of Greek and Roman mythology this reference book explains the allegorical significance attached to the myths by Medieval and Renaissance authors Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries for the gods goddesses heroes heroines and places of classical myth a The Middle Parts of Fortune Frederic Manning, 1977 Deep in the mud stench of the Somme Bourne is trying his best to stay alive There he finds the intense fraternity of war and fear unlike anything he has ever known Australian poet Frederick Manning's autobiographical novel was first published anonymously in 1929 due to the brutal honesty with which he wrote about the horror the boredom and the futility of war

The Idea of the Labyrinth from Classical Antiquity through the Middle Ages Penelope Reed Doob, 2019-03-15 Ancient and medieval labyrinths embody paradox according to Penelope Reed Doob Their structure allows a double perspective the baffling fragmented prospect confronting the maze treader within and the comprehensive vision available to those without Mazes simultaneously assert order and chaos artistry and confusion articulated clarity and bewildering complexity perfected pattern and hesitant process In this handsomely illustrated book Doob reconstructs from a variety of literary and visual sources the idea of the labyrinth from the classical period through the Middle Ages Doob first examines several complementary traditions of the maze topos showing how ancient historical and geographical writings generate metaphors in which the labyrinth signifies admirable complexity while poetic texts tend to suggest that the labyrinth is a sign of moral duplicity She then describes two common models of the labyrinth and explores their formal implications the unicursal model with no false turnings found almost universally in the visual arts and the multicursal model with blind alleys and dead ends characteristic of literary texts This paradigmatic clash between the labyrinths of art and of literature becomes a key to the metaphorical potential of the maze as Doob's examination of a vast array of materials from the classical period through the Middle Ages suggests She concludes with linked readings of four labyrinths of words Virgil's Aeneid Boethius Consolation of Philosophy Dante's Divine Comedy and Chaucer's House of Fame each of which plays with and transforms received ideas of the labyrinth as well as reflecting and responding to aspects of the texts that influenced it Doob not only provides fresh theoretical and historical perspectives on the labyrinth tradition but also portrays a complex medieval aesthetic that helps us to approach structurally elaborate early works Readers in such fields as Classical literature Medieval Studies Renaissance Studies comparative literature literary theory art history and intellectual history will welcome this wide ranging and illuminating book
