The Naughty And The Innocent 21 Stories:

Gender and Female Villains in 21st Century Fairy Tale Narratives Natalie Le Clue, Janelle

Vermaak-Griessel, 2022-02-11 For every hero there is a villain and for every villain there is a story But how much do we really know about the villain Filling a gap in the field of gender representation and character evolution the chapters in this edited collection focus on female villains in the fairy tale narratives of 21st Century media Strange Tales: a Girl Like Her and a Crocodile

Nayla Khan, 2015-07-25 Laila Ahmed is sceptical about all things Muslim by birth solicitor by profession and self confessed degenerate Laila is convinced that love is not for her but on a whim she signs up to a dating site Along comes a Muslim man spiritual cultured and charming Almost everything Laila wants in a mate The fact that he is also married is one problem She should tell him shes not interested But there is something strangely irresistible about him What is in Lailas destiny A quick fling real love or a broken heart Incorrigibles and Innocents

Lara Saguisag, 2018-10-05 Nominated for Eisner Award Winner of the 2018 Ray and Pat Browne Award Winner of the Charles Hatfield Book Prize from the CSS Histories and criticism of comics note that comic strips published in the Progressive Era were dynamic spaces in which anxieties about race ethnicity class and gender were expressed perpetuated and alleviated The proliferation of comic strip children white and nonwhite middle class and lower class male and female suggests that childhood was a subject that fascinated and preoccupied Americans at the turn of the century Many of these strips including R F Outcault s Hogan s Alley and Buster Brown Rudolph Dirks s The Katzenjammer Kids and Winsor McCay s Little Nemo in Slumberland were headlined by child characters Yet no major study has explored the significance of these verbal visual representations of childhood Incorrigibles and Innocents addresses this gap in scholarship examining the ways childhood was depicted and theorized in late nineteenth and early twentieth century comic strips Drawing from and building on histories and theories of childhood comics and Progressive Era conceptualizations of citizenship and nationhood Lara Saguisag demonstrates that child characters in comic strips expressed and complicated contemporary notions of who had a right to claim membership in a modernizing expanding nation Human Minds and Animal Stories

Wojciech Małecki, Piotr Sorokowski, Bogusław Pawłowski, Marcin Cieński, 2019-02-07 The power of stories to raise our concern for animals has been postulated throughout history by countless scholars activists and writers including such greats as Thomas Hardy and Leo Tolstoy This is the first book to investigate that power and explain the psychological and cultural mechanisms behind it It does so by presenting the results of an experimental project that involved thousands of participants texts representing various genres and national literatures and the cooperation of an internationally acclaimed bestselling author Combining psychological research with insights from animal studies ecocriticism and other fields in the environmental humanities the book not only provides evidence that animal stories can make us care for other species but also shows that their effects are more complex and fascinating than we have ever thought In this way the book makes a groundbreaking contribution to the study of relations between literature and the nonhuman world as well as to the study of how literature changes our minds and society As witnessed by novels like Black Beauty and Uncle Tom's Cabin a good story can move public opinion on contentious social issues In Human Minds and Animal Stories a team of specialists in psychology biology and literature tells how they discovered the power of narratives to shift our views about the treatment of other species Beautifully written and based on dozens of experiments with thousands of subjects this book will appeal to animal advocates researchers and general readers looking for a compelling real life detective story Hal Herzog author of Some We Love Some We Hate Some We Eat Why It's So Hard To Think Straight About Animals Porn Generation Ben Shapiro,2013-02-05 Shapiro captures a generation through first person reporting interviews with refugees from the porn industry conversations with psychologist educators and students and a telling cultural critique After Innocence Terry Otten,1982 The fear of falling the awareness of lost innocence lost illusions lost hopes and intentions of civilization in decline these are the themes which link literature to theology both concerned with the shape of human destiny Otten discusses the continuing viability of the myth of the Fall in literature He relates a wide variety of romantic and modern works to fundamental issues in modern Christianity Raising Your Kids Right Michelle Ann Abate,2010-07-14 Dr Seuss's classic character the Lorax has delighted children for decades while passing along a powerful message about environmental responsibility The book's young readers and their parents would likely be surprised by the emergence of a new character Truax a kindly logger created by a longtime employee of the wood products industry who not surprisingly has a far different viewpoint to share Yet the Truax character and the book of the same name is just one example of a growing genre of conservative themed narratives for young readers spawned by the continuing strength of the American political right Highlighting the works of William Bennett Lynne Cheney Bill O'Reilly and others Michelle Ann Abate brings together such diverse fields as cultural studies literary criticism political science childhood studies brand marketing and the cult of celebrity Raising Your Kids Right dispels lingering societal attitudes that narratives for young readers are unworthy of serious political study by examining a variety of texts that offer information ideology and even instructions on how to raise kids right not just figuratively but politically Fairy Tales Hans Christian Andersen,1904

Author Richard Leppert relates the visual history of how the naked body intersects with the foundational characteristics of what it is to be human measured against a range of basic emotions happiness delight and desire fear anxiety and abjection and read in the context of changing social and cultural realities The bodies comprising the Western nude are variously pleased or tormented ecstatic or bored pleased or horrified In short as this volume amply demonstrates the nude in Western art is a terrain on whose surface is written a summation of Western history its glory but also its degradation The Horror Sensorium Angela Ndalanian,2012-10-03 Horror films books and video games engage their audiences through combinations of storytelling practices emotional experiences cognitive responses and physicality that ignite the sensorium the sensory mechanics of the body and the intellectual and cognitive functions connected to them Through analyses of various mediums this volume explores how the horror genre affects the mind and body of the spectator Works explored include the films 28 Days Later and Death Proof the video games Resident Evil 4 and Doom 3 the theme park ride The Revenge of the Mummy transmedia experiences associated with The Dark Knight and True Blood and paranormal romance novels featuring Anita Blake and Sookie Stackhouse By examining how these diverse media generate medium specific corporeal and sensory responses it reveals how the sensorium interweaves sensory and intellectual encounters to produce powerful systems of perception Youth Cultures in America Simon J. Bronner,Cindy Dell Clark,2016-03-21 What are the components of youth cultures today This encyclopedia examines the facets of youth cultures and brings them to the forefront Although issues of youth culture are frequently cited in classrooms and public forums most encyclopedias of childhood and youth are devoted to history human development and society A limitation on the reference bookshelf is the restriction of youth to pre adolescence although issues of youth continue into young adulthood This encyclopedia addresses an academic audience of professors and students in childhood studies American studies and culture studies The authors span disciplines of psychology sociology anthropology history and folklore The Encyclopedia of Youth Cultures in America addresses a need for historical social and cultural information on a wide array of youth groups Such a reference work serves as a corrective to the narrow public view that young people are part of an amalgamated youth group or occupy malicious gangs and satanic cults Widespread reports of bullying school violence dominance of athletics over academics and changing demographics in the United States has drawn renewed attention to the changing cultural landscape of youth in and out of school to explain social and psychological problems Cyberbullying and Sexting Elizabeth Agnew,2024-02-08 Drawing on two empirical studies and influential theoretical frameworks this book provides a critical overview of the key regulatory challenges concerning cyberbullying and sexting behaviours among young people persons under 18 years The author explores issues such as conceptualising the behaviours examining the prevailing presence of sexism myths and stereotypes surrounding gender roles and identity and the limitations of criminal law as an effective regulatory tool In doing so identifying peer based sexting behaviours as part of a continuum of sexual behaviour is promoted alongside the need to consider interventions beyond the legal landscape and in line with the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child In the main priority is given to non legal responses and the need for more effective and comprehensive gender sensitive education programmes The book therefore provides a more developed conceptual understanding of sexting and cyberbullying behaviours among young people

My Mind, Their Thoughts Ishani Agarwal, Malcolm Mistry, 2019-12-05 My Mind their Thoughts an anthology published under True Dreamster publication is a collection of poetry quotes open letters and prose about Real life incidents that depict love tragedy and grief survival and loss It is a journey through the numerous knots that we tie in life and the ones we tangle and untangle them through personal experience It explores the realities of mental illness and suicide social taboos and violence against women pain and darkness what people face in life self love and healing in all its naked glory My Mind their Thoughts resonates directly with the poet s heart conveying to the readers that there is a way to break free from every struggle in life but sometimes some of these struggles are what we are made of
