Robert Kemp Philp, 1855 Evangelical Magazine and Missionary Chronicle, 1847 The Evangelical Magazine and Missionary Chronicle, 1847 Miss MacIntosh, My Darling Marguerite Young, 2024-04-09 This novel is one of the most ambitious and remarkable literary achievements of our time It is a picaresque psychological novel a novel of the road a journey or voyage of the human spirit in its search for reality in a world of illusion and nightmare It is an epic of what might be called the Arabian Nights of American life Marguerite Young s method is poetic imagistic incantatory in prose of extraordinary richness she tests the nature of her characters and the nature of reality Miss MacIntosh My Darling is written with oceanic music moving at many levels of consciousness and perception but the toughly fibred realistic fabric is always there in the happenings of the narrative the humor the precise details the definitions of the characters Miss MacIntosh herself who hails from What Cheer Iowa and seems downright and normal with an incorruptible sense of humor and the desire to put an end to phantoms Catherine Cartwheel the opium lady a recluse who is shut away in a great New England seaside house and entertains imaginary guests Mr Spitzer the lawyer musical composer and mystical space traveler a gentle man wholly unsure of himself and of reality his twin brother Peron the gay and raffish gambler and virtuoso in the world of sports Cousin Hannah the horsewoman balloonist mountain climber and militant Boston feminist known as Al Hamad through all the seraglios of the East Titus Bonebreaker of Chicago wild man of God dreaming of a heavenly crown the very efficient Christian hangman Mr Weed of the Wabash River Valley a featherweight champion who meets his equal in a graveyard these are a few who live with phantasmagorical vividness in the pages of Miss MacIntosh My Darling The novel touches on many aspects of life drug addiction woman s suffrage murder suicide pregnancy both real and imaginary schizophrenia many strange loves the psychology of gambling perfectionism but the profusion of this huge book serves always to intensify the force of the central question What shall we do when fleeing from illusion we are confronted by illusion What is real what is dream Is the calendar of the human heart the same as that kept by the earth Is it possible that one may live a secondary life of which one does not know In every aspect Miss MacIntosh My Darling stands by itself in the lyric beauty of its prose its imaginative vitality and cumulative emotional power It is the work of a writer of genius People and Things from the Blount County, Alabama, Blount County Journal 1909 - 1918 Robin Sterling, 2015-04-26 The Blount Count Journal published in Oneonta from 1909 to 1918 Compared to other Blount County papers the Journal was only a small blip on the journalistic radar in Blount County However it is an often overlooked and untapped source of great genealogical and historical knowledge While some of the articles mirror those published in its contemporary publications often the Journal captured other obituaries and news missed by the Democrat Most of the original copies of the Journal were found in the court house in Oneonta These were reviewed for notices of births marriages obituaries and interesting news items Missing issues from the court house were reviewed at the State Archives in Montgomery This book will add to the body of knowledge of Blount County Alabama and will serve as a useful tool for area genealogists and historians Temple Bar ,1865
