A Primer for Teaching African History Trevor R. Getz, 2018-03-15 A Primer for Teaching African History is a guide for college and high school teachers who are teaching African history for the first time for experienced teachers who want to reinvigorate their courses for those who are training future teachers to prepare their own syllabi and for teachers who want to incorporate African history into their world history courses Trevor R Getz offers design principles aimed at facilitating a classroom experience that will help students navigate new knowledge historical skills ethical development and worldviews He foregrounds the importance of acknowledging and addressing student preconceptions about Africa challenging chronological approaches to history exploring identity and geography as ways to access historical African perspectives and investigating the potential to engage in questions of ethics that studying African history provides In his discussions of setting goals pedagogy assessment and syllabus design Getz draws readers into the process of thinking consciously and strategically about designing courses on African history that will challenge students to think critically about Africa and the discipline of history

Lessons in Educational Equality Jody Heymann, Adele Cassola, 2012-02-17 All children and youth deserve the opportunity to improve their life chances by acquiring the knowledge and skills that will help them thrive in the future As the world lags far behind the Millennium Development and Education for All goals swift targeted and effective action is needed to improve both access and quality in education

Creating Effective Teaching and Learning Spaces: Shaping Futures and Envisioning Unity in Diversity and Transformation Zilungile Lungi Sosibo, Eunice Ivala, 2021-09-07 Higher education in post apartheid South Africa was always likely to attract academic interest and yet there remains a dearth of research on creating teaching and learning spaces suitable for students from diverse backgrounds Using examples from higher education institutions across the Southern African Developing Community SADC region this volume explores the ways teaching and learning spaces are being used to advance the transformation agenda of higher education in these regions and provides concrete recommendations for the future The book is sure to appeal to academics from a variety of disciplines from African American and ethnic studies to education and sociology It will be of particular interest to teacher trainers administrators and policy makers working in higher education and anyone else with a stake in managing cultural diversity in education

The New Black Middle Class in South Africa Roger Southall, 2016 Provides the most comprehensive account since the early 1960s of South Africa's black middle class 2016 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title The rise of the black middle class is one of the most visible aspects of post apartheid society in South Africa Yet while it has been a major actor in the country's democratic reshaping analysis of its role has been all but lacking Rather the image presented by the media has been of black diamonds consumers of the products of advanced industrial economies and of corrupt tenderpreneurs who use their political connections to obtain contracts This book seeks to complicate that picture with a much needed analysis that recounts its historical development in colonial society prior to 1994 before examining the size

shape and structure of the new black middle class in contemporary South Africa and its relation to its counterparts in the Global South Roger Southall is Professor Emeritus in Sociology University of the Witwatersrand Southern Africa South Africa Namibia Botswana Lesotho Zimbabwe and Swaziland Jacana
