Women, Film, and Law Suzanne Bouclin, 2021-03-15 Entertainment and profit constitute the driving force behind popular representations of women in correctional facilities But the creative influence of film and television also generates legal meaning The women in prison WIP genre can leave viewers feeling both empathetic toward the women portrayed in these representations and troubled about the crimes for which they have been convicted Focusing on five exemplary WIP films and a television series Ann Vickers Caged Caged Heat Stranger Inside Civil Brand and Orange Is the New Black Women Film and Law asks how fictional representations explore shape and refine beliefs about women who are incarcerated From melodrama to exploitation and from theatre screenings to on demand film television programs and music videos these texts bring into view the legal economic and political structures that criminalize women differently from men and that target those women who are already marginalized Women Film and Law convincingly argues that popular depictions of women s imprisonment can illuminate the multiple forms of social exclusion and oppression experienced by criminalized women Perceiving

Gender Locally, Globally, and Intersectionally Vasilikie (Vicky) Demos, Marcia Texler Segal, 2009-06-26 Addresses questions about how feminist scholars conceptualize gender and view it in relationship to other attributes of individuals and of social systems This book strives for intersectional analyses broadening that approach beyond the gender race and class paradigm to include sexuality employing a variety of methodologies Inclusive Texts in Elementary Classrooms Amy J. Heineke, Aimee Papola-Ellis, 2022 Learn how to put children s diverse and storied experiences at the center of the curriculum Schools are more diverse than ever before but the texts and materials that typify classroom curricula continue to prioritize so called mainstream stories and perspectives These canonical texts often exclude the nuanced identities and rich lived experiences of the very children sitting in today s classrooms But kids thrive when they see themselves in texts and learn about the world around them by connecting with the experiences of others Based on the authors work with elementary school teachers over the last decade this resource offers strategies for moving away from canonical texts The authors present a four part framework for selecting using and engaging students with texts that promote children s identity development literacy engagement and comprehension and learning across the content areas The practical text provides guidance for setting learning goals that align with relevant standards and curricular directives as well as classrooms examples teaching strategies and reflective questions Book Features An actionable way for teachers to move from theory to practice using what we know about culturally relevant practice and critical literacy to create instruction that enhances children s classroom experiences and learning An inclusive and intersectional approach that supports all teachers in enhancing their classroom libraries and curricular resources for the benefit of all students Specific ideas for texts and authors as well as more generalizable themes and ideas that will guide future exploration and use of texts in classrooms Tangible strategies and rich classrooms examples from 20 expert teachers spanning diverse elementary school settings Reflective questions to help practitioners personalize the content to their own contexts

My Maddy Gayle E. Pitman,2020-05-25 A loving affirming ode to parents who are gender fluid or gender nonbinary My Maddy has hazel eyes which are not brown or green And my Maddy likes sporks because they are not quite a spoon or a fork Most mommies are girls Most daddies are boys But lots of parents are neither a boy nor a girl My Maddy shows how some of the best things in the world are not one thing or the other They are something in between and entirely their own Randall Ehrbar PsyD offers an insightful note with more information about parents who are members of gender minority communities including transgender gender nonbinary or otherwise gender diverse people ALA s 2021 Rainbow Book List Top Ten Title for Young Readers

A Generation Abandoned Peter D. Beaulieu,2017-04-26 A Generation Abandoned explores the disruptive cultural events especially of the past half century as these have undermined the confidence of the young in themselves and in civil society and finally in our place in the universe The overall theme is the contrast between this sense of abandonment and our inborn and neglected orientation toward personal worth and the common good the natural law Much of what is peddled as social evolution today is shown to be a throwback to darker times The analysis submits to a refreshingly conversational tone but also draws incisively from a very broad pallet of history literature theater theology and simplifying and illuminating anecdotes some of them first hand An early chapter outlines the perfect storm of the 1960s Later chapters expose the word games of the cultural elite the saga of the family through history and now its abrupt erosion and the difference between any meandering arc of history and a more grounded arc of relations our rationalized culture of death versus a flourishing human ecology

Research Anthology on Inclusivity and Equity for the LGBTQ+ Community Management Association, Information Resources,2021-09-24 For many decades the LGBTQ community has been plagued by strife and human rights violations Members of the LGBTQ community were often denied a right to marriage healthcare and in some parts of the world a right to life While these struggles are steadily improving in recent years disparities and discrimination still remain from the workplace to the healthcare that this community receives There is still much that needs to be done globally to achieve inclusivity and equity for the LGBTQ community The Research Anthology on Inclusivity and Equity for the LGBTQ Community is a comprehensive compendium that analyzes the struggles and accomplishments of the LGBTQ community with a focus on the current climate around the world and the continued impact to these individuals Multiple settings are discussed within this dynamic anthology such as education healthcare online communities and more Covering topics such as gender homophobia and queer theory this text is essential for scholars of gender theory faculty of both K 12 and higher education professors pre service teachers students human rights activists community leaders policymakers researchers and academicians

Transformative Leadership in Education Carolyn M. Shields,2024-11-06 Framed by real stories and grounded in research the third edition of Transformative Leadership in Education presents an alternative approach to leadership that is engaged active and courageous. Noted scholar Carolyn M Shields once again explores the concept of transformative leadership theory and its potential to create learning environments that are inclusive, excellent, equitable and socially just as required by the United Nations Sustainable Development Goal 4 even in the face of the volatile, uncertain, complex and ambiguous world of education today. Chapters combine contemporary research findings with stories of schools, leaders, students, teachers and community members to demonstrate that transformative leadership can promote academic achievement, family and community empowerment, democratic engagement and global citizenship. This exciting text will appeal to all aspiring and practicing leaders who want to create organizations that are equitable, inclusive and excellent and that prepare students to be successful, caring and engaged citizens of the global community. New in this edition: Discussion of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goal 4 to ensure inclusive, equitable and quality education and lifelong learning for all; Updated end of chapter guiding questions to help readers reflect on their own practice and to apply the concepts in their own contexts; Enriched discussion of the interrelationships among the eight tenets of transformative leadership and leading for social justice with a separate chapter for each tenet; Elaborated discussion of the need for reflection, grounding and action on the part of transformative leaders; Updated and expanded discussion of current topics such as refugees, transgender students and historical roots of concepts like Islamophobia and anti-Semitism; A survey to identify leadership beliefs and actions about equity and inclusion; Support Materials to prompt further dialogue and reflection, downloadable at www.routledge.com/9781032734002.

Keywords for Children's Literature Philip Nel, Lissa Paul, 2011-06-13. The study of children's literature and culture has been experiencing a renaissance with vital new work proliferating across many areas of interest. Mapping this vibrant scholarship, Keywords for Children's Literature presents 49 original essays on the essential terms and concepts of the field. From Aesthetics to Young Adult, an impressive multidisciplinary cast of scholars explores the vocabulary central to the study of children's literature. Following the growth of his or her word, each author traces its branching uses and meanings, often into unfamiliar disciplinary territories. Award-winning novelist Philip Pullman writes about Intentionality; Education expert Margaret Meek Spencer addresses Reading; literary scholar Peter Hunt historicizes Children's Literature; Psychologist Hugh Crago examines Story; librarian and founder of the influential Child_Lit listerv Michael Joseph investigates Liminality. The scope, clarity and interdisciplinary play between concepts make this collection essential reading for all scholars in the field. In the spirit of Raymond Williams' seminal Keywords, this book is a snapshot of a vocabulary of children's literature that is changing, expanding and ever unfinished.

J. Lindemann, PhD, 2022-02-15 Named a Best Nonfiction Book of 2022 by Esquire A sociological study of reality TV that explores its rise as a culture dominating medium and what the genre reveals about our attitudes toward race gender class and sexuality What do we see when we watch reality television In True Story What Reality TV Says About Us the sociologist and TV lover Danielle J Lindemann takes a long hard look in the funhouse mirror of this genre From the first episodes of The Real World to countless rose ceremonies to the White House reality TV has not just remade our entertainment and cultural landscape which it undeniably has Reality TV Lindemann argues uniquely reflects our everyday experiences and social topography back to us Applying scholarly research including studies of inequality culture and deviance to specific shows Lindemann layers sharp insights with social theory humor pop cultural references and anecdotes from her own life to show us who we really are By taking reality TV seriously True Story argues we can better understand key institutions like families schools and prisons and broad social constructs such as gender race class and sexuality From The Bachelor to Real Housewives to COPS and more so much more reality programming unveils the major circuits of power that organize our lives and the extent to which our own realities are in fact socially constructed Whether we're watching conniving Survivor contestants or three year old beauty queens these guilty pleasures underscore how conservative our society remains and how steadfastly we cling to our notions about who or what counts as legitimate or real At once an entertaining chronicle of reality TV obsession and a pioneering work of sociology True Story holds up a mirror to our society the reflection may not always be
