Conversations with the Devil Jeff Rovin, 2007-03-06 A human soul hangs in the balance and thousands of years of religious teachings depict only the beginning of the fight for dominion over man Talks with a Devil P. D. Ouspensky, 2000 Ouspensky has written two stories The Inventor an allegory of a modern person faced with the consequences of the miracles of science and technology a devilish technology and The Benevolent Devil a story that takes place in Ceylon where a young man determines to do battle for his soul of course with the devil Talks With a Devil Peter Demianovich Ouspensky, 1972-01-01 I will start at a tragic moment in the life of this young man when he was travelling from one of the suburbs of New York to Manhattan with the intention of buying a revolver and then shooting himself on a lonely shore on Long Island in a spot which had remained in his memory from the times of boyhood excursions when he and his playmates pretending to be explorers had discovered unknown countries around New York His intention was very definite and the decision final All in all it was a very common occurrence in the life of a big city something encountered repeatedly in fact to be frank I have had to arrange similar events thousands and tens of thousands of times However this time such a common beginning had a quite uncommon sequel and a most uncommon result Nevertheless before turning to the outcome of the day I must tell you in detail all that led up to it Hugh was a born inventor From early childhood when walking with his mother in the park or playing with other children or simply sitting quietly in a corner building with bricks or drawing monsters he invented incessantly constructing in his mind a variety of extraordinary contrivances improvements for everything in the world He derived a special satisfaction from inventing improvements and adaptations for his aunt He would draw her with a chimney or on wheels For one drawing in which this not young maiden was portrayed with six legs and other variations the little Hugh was severely punished It was one of his first memories Not long after this Hugh learned first to design and then to make models of his inventions By this time he had learnt that live people cannot be improved upon Nevertheless his inventions were of course all pure fantasy when he was fourteen he nearly drowned himself trying out home made water skis of his own design At the time my story begins he was about twenty six years old He had been married for several years and worked as a draughtsman in a large engineering factory he lived in a flat of three minute rooms the size of ship s cabins in an enormous and ugly brick building in one of the suburbs of New York He was very dissatisfied with his life The slaves who toil in our offices and factories are invariably barely conscious of their enslavement If they have any dreams they are merely of ways of improving their slavery having a good time on a Sunday going to a dance in the evening dressing up like a gentleman and getting more money Even if they are dissatisfied with their life they think only of shortening the hours of work or increasing their salaries and holidays in a nutshell all the trappings of the Socialist Utopia They could never even mentally bring themselves to revolt against work itself It is their God and they do not dare oppose him even in thought But Hugh was made of other stuff He hated slavery He always said that being a slave to work was the wrath of God The very fibres of his being stirred with an awareness of this octopus penetrating him with its tightening stranglehold Quite apart from this the thought of embellishing his slavery would never have occurred to him nor was he the sort to delude himself with cheap distractions His mother died when he was sixteen and he was forced to leave school and become an apprentice in the drawing office of a factory at a salary of five dollars a week This was the beginning of his career Outwardly he differed little from the other apprentices in the drawing office He copied drawings of machines prepared paper and colours sharpened pencils and ran errands among the various departments of the factory But at heart he did not for a moment accept this life Hugh s background was different from that of the majority of those surrounding him and it played an important part in forming his attitudes His companions were the children of toil and want sons of factory workers like themselves and recent immigrants come to America to escape from hunger and cold the greed of landlords and from unemployment Their world was small limited narrow and dominated by the ever present struggle against hunger and want Quite different voices spoke within Hugh He belonged to an old American family descended from pioneers who had seen the virgin forest land of big lakes and rivers and who had fought the Indians Amongst his ancestors were members of Congress generals in the War of Independence and rich plantation owners of the Southern States His father had lost the last of the family fortune during the Civil War in which he had fought as an officer in the army of the South He had been wounded and taken prisoner but had escaped to Canada where he married a young French Canadian girl and died a few years later During his childhood Hugh s mother had told him of her own sea captain ancestors and of his father s of the splendour of life on the plantations which she herself had never seen of Hugh s great grandfather who had been Governor of South Carolina of the Mexican War of expeditions to the far West Hugh grew up with these tales and they constituted a part of his being It was hardly surprising therefore that the style of life conceived by his fellow workers should be too narrow for him In truth from the bottom of his heart he despised the factory workers and factory life with all that it could give him The factory itself however and the machines in it interested him deeply He would spend hours in front of some machine trying to understand it to get to the heart of it He collected the various catalogues and price lists which gave descriptions of machines studied diagrams drawings photographs spent whole nights with books on mechanics and mechanical engineering whatever he could lay his hands on And all the time new combinations of valves wheels levers new inventions each more amazing than the last floated through his head Not for a second though did he stop hating and resenting his slavery Often at night when the need to get up at six in the morning forced him to abandon his precious books for sleep he would make grim resolutions swearing he would rather die than surrender to the fate of such a life He was not deluding himself and was well aware of the obstacles which stood in his way To escape his bondage it was necessary to snatch time away from it yet always the iron hand of compulsory labour pressed on his shoulder Now and then this need let up for a few hours on rare occasions for several days only to clamp down on him more strongly later Hugh resented this and fought for every hour      Talks With the Devil Petr Dem'i[a]novich

A Book for T Laverne Zocco,2006-12 It is difficult to explain this book just as it was to explain A Conversation with Jesus a book for the unbeliever Suddenly it seemed a good idea to write a companion book to my recent book Conversation with Jesus and I thought a book titled Conversation with the Devil would make the set almost irresistible After all our Lord had a chance to get his message out through the unnamed Historian and it seemed fair to give Satan the chance to show himself too The Devil was the one who said adamantly I would rather rule in hell than serve in heaven and caused the cataclysmic battle with Michael the Archangel in which the Devil and his forces one third of fallen angels from the whole of the heavenly phalanx were defeated and taken to the edge of heaven and thrown over the edge And here the Historian now named Christian was called by a voice on the wind a voice he thinks is Jesus to come to the most desolate place in the world the fortress of Masada by the Dead Sea in the Judean Desert This book is for the believer to show how wary they must be from the enticements of Satan a powerful entity who has tried to hide the reality of his presence in stealing men s souls down the ages Well here he is real and talking     Talks with a Devil P. Colin Wilson,2019-02-21 One of the most original thinkers of the twentieth century Pyotr Demianovich Ouspensky was a complex and romantic soul A promising young intellectual in Tsarist Russia he won recognition as a novelist and philosopher yet descended into self chosen obscurity as a teacher of the Work the system of his great contemporary Gurdjieff Today it is as Gurdjieff s chief disciple that he is remembered yet Colin Wilson argues convincingly that he is to be considered a major writer and man of genius in his own right A nostalgic melancholy Russian on of Ouspensky s deepest instincts was that man can find his own salvation yet towards the end of his turbulent life he lost faith in the System and drank himself to death With sympathy and admiration Colin Wilson throws new light on this gentle man and deep thinker The Storm Is Over Now Danton L Ballard,2004-06 From the Gangs of Watts Los Angeles to an accuse Minister Behind Bars This is P O W In God s Army We all are soldiers once we accept Jesus Christ as our Personal Savior It s very important to know that what ever we did we will reap what we sow one way or another Pray for others and forgive others never think that you are better than anyone God is no respect of persons what he will do for you He ll do for everybody My story is not fiction but true facts I want the world to know that there are forces out there that torment and possess mankind If you have opened up any doors to the Devil it s time to close them by the blood of Jesus Christ God has made man with a strong Sex drives it s up to us to control it and not let it control us Man s main weakness is Sex Let s wake up men and take a stand for what s right and moral then we will have a better society to live in Don t allow youthful lust which destroys the soul destroy us I have no animosity against anyone of these people in this book I have forgiven them and myself They are in the hand of a Living God I m willing to continue on fighting against Sexual Immorality This fight is until death I will win with Jesus Christ as my Commander in Chief The only thing I desire is People being set free If you ll looking for the truth then read this book If you ll looking for lies this book is not for you Please pray for me and I will pray for you May Jesus Christ richly bless you and Deliver you from Sin

The Homiletic Review ,1889 The Devil's Feather Arman Ratip,2023-09-15 The story in Ratip s debut novel revolves around the struggle of Turan Akova who is a world renowned pianist composer to prevent and eventually eliminate the extraterrestrial devil s plans to dominate the world in a shocking and most audacious way This is a heart pounding suspense thriller with gruelling intensity A monumentally scary and chillingly tense story Italian poet Tasso s words best describe Turan Akova the hero of this novel Is it possible to transform a raging devastating destroying hurricane into a morning breeze a mad sea into a charming lake and lightning into a rose I am speaking of the Turk The Turk who is like a ruthless hurricane a terrific sea and a merciless lightning when attacking his enemy is a morning breeze and a clear lake with his friends or when facing a disarmed enemy To change this charming breeze into a hurricane this resplendent blue lake into a horrid sea this rose with its fragrance of nobility to lightning would be indeed a blunder that would offend Nature itself

Thomas Hughes,1923      Home-talks John Humphrey Noyes,1875      Breaking the Soul of a Folk Jonathan Burey, Shirley Burey,2012-09-26 This book play was written to give those who seek their purpose in society some hope to cope in a world that s so unevenly divided Life becomes difficult for those who understand their footprints must be left in the sands to remain hopeful We wrote Breaking the Soul of a Folk from our own experience This book play gives a face to the homeless and explains why we as a civilized nation should care We added our poetry and illustrations to give our readers a fuller picture of the concept s that we are trying to convey Finally we want our readers to UNDERSTAND that equality is for every woman and man as we continue to fight until leaders set their standards and qualifications to advance all races regardless of their previous economic condition So we included our play entitled In Search of My Soul to show our readers why we feel that we must stop designing standards to exclude the homeless and stop allowing programs funding that treat them as if they are criminals What our ancestor wrote earlier still holds true today This is that the homeless deserve the right to be treated with dignity and be afforded the right to seek their individual purpose You see even the homeless will have to come and be judged for one thing is for certain and that s DEATH which is everyone s FINAL CURTAIN      The Father's Will Nicholas E. Lombardo,2013-11-28 The night before his crucifixion in the garden of Gethsemane Jesus asks his Father to take away the cup of his suffering but then says not my will but yours be done Shortly afterward Judas arrives and his arrival reveals something important about the Father s will Yet much remains obscure The sheer fact of Christ s crucifixion shows only that God was not willing to spare his Son It does not shed any light on the positive content of the Father s will Drawing on philosophical analysis and historical critical exegesis The Father s Will sets out to clarify the Father s will for Christ and how it relates to his death on the cross Then after considering the theologies of Anselm and Peter Abelard it argues for the recovery of the early Christian category of ransom Since Christians look to the crucifixion to make sense of their suffering the Father s will for Christ relates to many existential questions it also shapes the place of God the Father in Christian theology and culture Interpreting the crucifixion as a ransom makes the goodness of God more evident It also makes it easier to see God the Father as the author of our salvation rather than a stern judge who must be placated And since the category of ransom traces back to Jesus saying in the Gospels about giving his life as a ransom for many it has great claim to interpret the crucifixion in the way Jesus himself interpreted it      The Devil's Trick John Boyko,2022-05-17 Forty five years after the fall of Saigon John Boyko brings to light the little known story of Canada s involvement in the American War in Vietnam Through the lens of six remarkable people some well known others obscure bestselling historian John Boyko recounts Canada s often overlooked involvement in that conflict as peacemaker combatant and provider of weapons and sanctuary When Brigadier General Sherwood Lett arrived in Vietnam over a decade before American troops he and the Canadians under his command risked their lives trying to enforce an unstable peace while questioning whether they were merely handmaidens to a new war As American battleships steamed across the Pacific Canadian diplomat Blair Seaborn was meeting secretly in

Hanoi with North Vietnam's prime minister if American leaders accepted his roadmap to peace those ships could be turned around before war began Claire Culhane worked in a Canadian hospital in Vietnam and then returned home to implore Canadians to stop supporting what she deemed an immoral war Joe Erickson was among 30 000 young Americans who changed Canada by evading the draft and heading north Doug Carey was one of the 20 000 Canadians who enlisted with the American forces to serve in Vietnam Rebecca Trinh fled Saigon with her husband and young daughters joining the waves of desperate Indochinese refugees thousands of whom were to forge new lives in Canada Through these wide ranging and fascinating accounts Boyko exposes what he calls the Devil's wildest trick convincing leaders that war is desirable persuading the public that it is acceptable and telling combatants that the deeds they carry out and the horrors they experience are normal or at least necessary In uncovering Canada's side of the story Boyko reveals the many secret and forgotten ways that Canada not only fought the war but was forever shaped by its lessons and lies
