Japanese Cinema and Punk Mark Player, 2025-05-15 In Japanese Cinema and Punk Mark Player examines how the do it yourself ethos of punk empowered a new generation of Japanese filmmakers during a period of crisis and change in Japan s film industry Drawing on rare materials and first hand interviews with key figures from the jishu eiga self made film tradition including Ishii Gakuryu formerly Ishii Sogo Yamamoto Masashi Tsukamoto Shin ya and Fukui Shozin Player explores how punk s bricolage style was leveraged to create exciting intermedial film aesthetics These aesthetics were influenced by rock music graffiti art street performance handmade animation television and other mass media By considering the practical phenomenological and political ramifications of combining diverse media elements Player offers in depth analyses of films such as Burst City 1982 Robinson's Garden 1987 Tetsuo The Iron Man 1989 and more He further traces the changing sociocultural position of Japan's punk generation throughout the 1980s from its euphoric early 80s peak to the growing disillusionment caused by its mainstream co-optation and convergence

Introduction to Solar Radio Astronomy and Radio Physics A. Krüger, 2012-12-06 1 1 Short History of Solar Radio Astronomy Since its birth in the forties of our century solar radio astronomy has grown into an extensive scientific branch comprising a number of quite different topics covering technical sciences astrophysics plasma physics solar terrestrial physics and other disciplines Historically the story of radio astronomy goes back to the times of James Clerk Maxwell whose well known phenomenological electromagnetic field equations have become the basis of present time radio physics As a direct consequence of these equations Maxwell was able to prognosticate the existence of radio waves which fifteen years later were experimentally detected by the famous work of Heinrich Hertz 1887-88 However all attempts to detect radio waves from cosmic objects failed until 1932 which was mainly due to the early stage of development of receiving techniques and the as yet missing knowledge of the existence of a screening ionosphere which was detected in 1925 Therefore famous inventors like Thomas Edison and A E Kennelly as well as Sir Oliver Lodge were unsuccessful in receiving any radio emission from the Sun or other extraterrestrial sources Another hindering point was that nobody could a priori expect that solar radio emission should have something to do with solar activity so that unfortunately by chance some experiments were carried out just at periods of low solar activity This was also why Karl Guthe Jansky at the birth of radio astronomy detected galactic radio waves but no emission from the Sun

The History of Modern Japanese Education Benjamin C. Duke, 2009 The History of Modern Japanese Education is the first account in English of the construction of a national school system in Japan as outlined in the 1872 document the Gakusei Divided into three parts tracing decades of change the book begins by exploring the feudal background for the Gakusei during the Tokugawa era which produced the initial leaders of modern Japan Next Benjamin Duke traces the Ministry of Education's investigations of the 1870s to determine the best western model for Japan including the decision to adopt American teaching methods He then goes on to cover the eventual reverse course sparked by the Imperial Household protest that the western model overshadowed cherished Japanese traditions Ultimately the 1890 Imperial Rescript on Education integrated Confucian teachings of loyalty and filial piety with Imperial ideology laying the moral basis for a western style academic curriculum in the nation's schools

Jochen Harms, 2025-11-11 Since 1971 I have been practicing Shotokan Karate just as taught technically by the Japan Karate Association JKA Already in the early 1970s I had the good fortune of witnessing Karate demonstrations by Hiroshi Shirai Keinosuke Enoda Koichi Sugimura Yasuyuki Fujinaga and Hideo Ochi and I early on asked myself what made the difference in Karate technique when performed by these JKA masters compared to our execution here in Germany even though we practiced the same Shotokan style Were the differences merely the visual distinctions of the physical physiognomy of the Japanese compared to us Europeans or were there essential differences in the execution of the Karate techniques I was able to answer this question for myself through training at the JKA Honbu Dojo and at the Hozoji Dojo of Norihiko Iida Rea's
