180. Which of the following is not a function of the skeletal system?

Students will be asked to write a short paragraph describing in detail one thing in the natural world, and perhaps make this an ongoing activity, with the teacher, a friend, and the student using their own language, and perhaps add words if appropriate as a good discussion with friend continues about something they might find interesting.

Statistical results are presented that demonstrate significant differences in the number of visits to the health care system and the number of hospitalizations among the three groups. The results also indicate that the number of visits to the health care system and the number of hospitalizations are significantly higher among the group with the highest level of health care utilization.
