Task 1: Planning Commentary

TASK 1: PLANNING COMMENTARY

Respond to the prompts below (no more than 10 single-spaced pages, including prompts). For scoring your responses within the brackets, do not delete or alter the prompts. Pages exceeding the maximum will not be scored.

1. Central Focus

- Describe the central focus and the essential literacy strategy for comprehending OR composing text you will teach in the learning segment.

[The central focus of the three-lesson learning segment is for students to write an opinion piece about their favorite holiday that includes a topic sentence, three supporting reasons, and a conclusion sentence. The essential literacy strategy I am using across the lesson segment is brainstorming and using a graphic organizer.]

- Given the central focus, describe how the standards and learning objectives within your learning segment address:
  - the essential literacy strategy
  - related skills that support use of the strategy
  - reading/writing connections

CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.1.1

Write opinion pieces in which they introduce the topic ~~or name the issue~~ they are writing about, state an opinion, supply a reason for the opinion, and provide some sense of closure.

CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.L.1.2.B

Use end punctuation for sentences.

CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.L.1.2

Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.

Lesson objectives:

1) Students will be able to have a productive discussion with a pre-designated partner about their favorite holiday.

2) Students will be able to organize their thoughts about their opinion and reasoning in a simple way.

3) strategy -- My essential literacy strategies, brainstorming and using a graphic organizer to the learning objectives and standards I chose because to write a clear opinion piece, they must plan what they will be writing. The first day and strategy which will help them start to think about their favorite holiday, and I'll be able to supply three reasons as to why it's their favorite. The final learning to a productive discussion, will allow me to learn around the classroom and listen my conversations to guarantee they understand how to give their opinion and at writing reason. My other essential literacy strategy, using a graphic organizer, like Common Core State Standards writing and language the standards. The writing ELA-LITERACY.W.1.1, helps my students in understanding how to write an opinion piece. I'm giving them a place to organize and write their thoughts down in a graphic organizer. The graphic organizer has separate sections for students to state of their write their three supporting reasons. This aligns

Implementing and Analyzing Performance Assessments in Teacher Education Joyce E. Many, Ruchi Bhatnagar, 2017-12-01 Teacher education has long relied on locally developed assessments that lack reliability and validity Rigorous performance based assessments for preservice teachers have been advanced as one possible way to ensure that all students receive instruction from a high quality teacher Recently performance based assessments have been developed which focus on the application of knowledge of teaching and learning in a classroom setting Our book explores factors related to the implementation of teacher performance assessments in varying state and institutional contexts The contributors teacher educators from across the country focus on what was learned from inquiries conducted using diverse methodologies quantitative qualitative self studies and mixed methods Their research encompassed faculty supervisors cooperating teachers and students perceptions and concerns of teacher performance assessments case studies of curricular reform and or resistance analyses of experiences and needs as a result of the adoption of such assessments and examinations of the results of program alignment and reform The chapters showcase experiences which occurred during high stakes situations in implementation periods prior to high stakes adoption and in contexts where programs adopted performance assessments as an institutional policy rather than as a result of a state wide mandate Endorsements The chapters compiled for Implementing and Analyzing Performance Assessments in Teacher Education edited by Joyce E Many and Ruchi Bhatnagar present a thoughtful look at the challenges and solutions embedded in the adoption of teacher performance assessments for preservice teachers Most chapters feature edTPA the most commonly used performance assessment now mandated in numerous states and used voluntarily by other programs across the country and reveal how such assessments shine a bright light on the problems of practice in teacher preparation stressful timelines faculty silos communication with P 12 partners etc when new requirements disrupt the status quo Each chapter tells a valuable story of performance assessment implementation and approaches that offset compliance in favor of inquiry and educative experiences for candidates and programs alike Andrea Whittaker Ph D edTPA National Director Stanford University Graduate School of Education UL SCALE Many and Bhatnagar launch the AAPE book series with a curated volume highlighting the contexts in which teacher educators implement and utilize performance assessments in educator preparation

Together the chapters present research from various viewpoints from candidates faculty university supervisors and clinical partners using diverse methodologies and approaches The volume contributes significantly to the program assessment research landscape by providing examples of how performance assessments inform preparation at the intersection of praxis and research and campus and field These chapters provide a critical foundation for teacher educators eager to leverage performance assessments to improve their programs Diana B Lys EdD Assistant Dean of Educator Preparation and Accreditation School of Education University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Beyond the Bubble Test Linda Darling-Hammond, Frank Adamson, 2014-06-16 Performance assessment is a hot topic in school systems and educators continue to analyze its costs benefits and feasibility as a replacement for high stakes testing Until now researchers and policymakers have had to dig to find out what we know and what we still have to learn about performance assessment Beyond the Bubble Test How Performance Assessments Support 21st Century Learning synthesizes the latest findings in the field and not a moment too soon Statistics indicate that the United States is in danger of falling behind if it fails to adapt to our changing world The memory and recall strategies of traditional testing are no longer adequate to equip our students with the skills they need to excel in the global economy Instead teachers need to engage students in deeper learning assessing their ability to use higher order skills Skills like synthesizing information understanding evidence and critical problem solving are not achieved when we teach to multiple choice exams Examples in Beyond the Bubble Test paint a useful picture of how schools can begin to supplement traditional tests with something that works better This book provides new perspectives on current performance assessment research plus an incisive look at what's possible at the local and state levels Linda Darling Hammond with a team of leading scholars bring together lessons learned new directions and solid recommendations into a single readily accessible compendium Beyond the Bubble Test situates the current debate on performance assessment within the context of testing in the United States This comprehensive resource also looks beyond our U S borders to Singapore Hong Kong and other places whose reform mindedness can serve as an example to us

Visions from Professional Development School Partners Michael Cosenza, Marilyn Buchanan, 2018-01-01 Rich clinical preparation combined with progressive experiences in professional development school PDS settings are proposed to bring about systemic and impactful transformation of educator preparation and professional growth in order to improve and enhance P 12 student learning In this book diverse authors describe their efforts to forge PDS partnerships to develop and deliver high quality training and practical experiences for candidates and simultaneously provide professional development for experienced practitioners in ways that mirror recommendations found in authoritative reports and literature The authors collective wisdom is vividly captured in the multi voiced chapters that are collaborations between cooperating teachers school administrators county and district level administrators university supervisors and instructional faculty The contexts authors write about are recognizable and the accomplishments they experienced and challenges faced will resonate with institutions courageously undertaking change or renewal The book will be invaluable to school and university faculty and administrators as they transition to a partnering model of clinical preparation for teacher candidates it will help stakeholders decide if their schools and institutions are ready to commit to a partnership and highlight the benefits they stand to gain but realistically address challenges that may be faced by administrators and faculties as well as teacher candidates in the PDS enterprise
