Here are 6 sentences about castles. They need separating into 2 different paragraphs. Rewrite them in your book as 2 paragraphs. You can also give each paragraph a sub-heading if it helps.

The best place for a king to build a castle was on high ground because that was the easiest place to defend.

Many castles were near to rivers so that they had a fresh water supply.

Building castles on high ground also gave a good view of the area and approaching enemies.

Nottingham castle was built near to the River Trent so that it had a good supply of water.

Building castles near to rivers also meant it was easier to transport the materials by water than on dirt tracks.

The Normans made their own hills from earth, known as a motte, and built their castles on top of them.
