Proceedings of the 20th European Conference on Management, Leadership and Governance Mafalda

Patuleia,2024 Oceanic Strategy Vidhan Pathak,Raghvendra Kumar,2024-12-03 This book introduces the concept of oceanic strategy expanding beyond traditional maritime and naval perspectives to include political economic socio cultural and ecological dimensions It highlights the Indian Ocean Region as a critical arena for global power competition where the abundance of resources strategic significance and emerging interests have made it a new frontier for opportunity growth and conflict By incorporating aspects like oceanic security resource exploration the blue economy and hydrography the book presents a broader view of strategic thought and the role of oceanic spaces in national and global geopolitics Focusing on key players such as India China the US and other traditional and emerging powers the book analyses the reorientation of national interests and the intensifying struggle for dominance in the Indian Ocean It argues that control over this region is crucial for attaining influence in 21st century geopolitics The work also addresses non traditional security threats like piracy and transnational crime situating the Indian Ocean at the heart of modern geopolitical discourse This book is an essential resource for students and scholars of international relations strategic studies and political science offering critical insights into the evolving power dynamics shaping the future of the Indian Ocean Region Smart, Sustainable Manufacturing in an Ever-Changing World Konrad von Leipzig,Natasha Sacks,Michelle Mc Clelland,2023-03-03 This book presents recent developments research results and industrial experience to increase the knowledge base of academics and industry In a small world where trade is the new global driving force conquering countries and continents alike international competitiveness is becoming the ultimate challenge It requires high quality products manufactured with state of the art technologies at low cost under the assumption of highly efficient operations management as well as clear corporate goals and strategy This in turn is based on improved engineering training and education relevant applied research and an active interaction between academia and industry The Blue Economy in Sub-Saharan Africa DONALD SPARKS,2021-06-16 The blue economy comprising coastal and marine resources offers vast benefits for sub Saharan Africa of the 53 countries and territories in the region 32 are coastal states there are 13 million sq km of maritime zones more than 90% of the region s exports and imports come by sea and the African Union hails the blue economy as the new frontier of African renaissance Despite their importance the region s coastal and marine resources have been neither fully appreciated nor fully utilized They are only now being recognized as being key to Africa s potential prosperity As the region grows it has in general not taken adequate safeguards to protect these valuable resources That is partly because some of the problems pollution for example are regional and know no borders All too often short term gains are made at the expense of the long term overfishing for example This book provides for the first time a study of the constraints and opportunities the blue economy offers for sub Saharan Africa It includes an introduction and overview sectoral analyses including tourism fisheries mineral resources culture shipping and maritime safety country case studies and analyses of regional and international efforts towards better coastal zone and marine management The Economics of Defense Industry Thomas-Durell

Young,2023-10-17 This book on the economics of defence industry assesses a series of historical and contemporary case studies that consistently demonstrate the need for governments to recognise and thereafter factor the financial needs of a narrow industrial sector that is capital intensive technologically advanced and that requires a highly skilled labour force Since the end of the cold war Western governments have systematically reduced financial support to their domestic defence industry and have seemingly ignored planning and funding industrial mobilisation In all cases government policy has been to encourage industries to consolidate capacity to become financially viable in a sector that has seen diminished demand The 2022 Russian invasion of Ukraine has caused Western governments to reassess their previous assumptions Efforts to increase industrial capacity have been met with the iron laws of economics whereby businesses need to show return on investments The chapters in this volume posit that efforts to rationalise industrial capacity and innovation to meet short term financial efficiencies inevitably results in limited expensive and long delays in increased production in times of international crisis This book serves as an essential guide for academics researchers and students interested in defence economics industrial economics international relations and industrial policy The chapters in this book were originally published in various issues of Defense Security Analysis Farmer's Weekly ,1926 Contemporary Issues in South African Military Psychology Nicole Dodd,Petrus C. Bester,Justin van der Merwe,2020-05-13 Contemporary Issues in South African Military Psychology is a well timed extremely thought provoking imperative particular to the African context and deals with a highly contemporary issue within the people management and the management studies fields specifically in the military field and context This is specifically of importance as military psychology is a behavioural science that combines theory and practical application Prof Karel Stanz University of Pretoria Handbook of Disaster Research Havidán Rodríguez,William Donner,Joseph E. Trainor,2017-11-16 This timely Handbook is based on the principle that disasters are social constructions and focuses on social science disaster research It provides an interdisciplinary approach to disasters with theoretical methodological and practical applications Attention is given to conceptual issues dealing with the concept disaster and to methodological issues relating to research on disasters These include Geographic Information Systems as a useful research tool and its implications for future research This seminal work is the first interdisciplinary collection of disaster research as it stands now while outlining how the field will continue to grow Merchant Ship Types Alexander Arnfinn Olsen,2023-01-24 Merchant Ship Types provides a broad and detailed introduction to the classifications and main categories of merchant vessels for students and cadets It introduces the concept of ship classification by usage cargo type and size and shows how the various size categories affect which ports and channels the types of vessels are permitted to enter Detailed outlines of each major vessel category are provided including Feeder ship General cargo vessels Container ships Tankers Dry bulk carriers Multi purpose vessels Reefer ships Roll on roll off vessels The book also explains where these are permitted to operate the type of cargoes carried and specific safety or risk factors associated with the vessel class as well as their main characteristics Relevant case studies are presented The textbook is ideal for merchant navy cadets at HNC HND and foundation degree level in both the deck and engineering branches and serves as a general reference for insurance law logistics offshore and fisheries

We Refuse Kellie Carter Jackson,2024-06-04 An unsparing erudite and incisive Jelani Cobb staff writer The New Yorker reframing of the past and present of Black resistance both nonviolent and violent to white supremacy Named a Best Book of 2024 by Smithsonian Kirkus Chicago Review of Books Emancipator Ms Magazine Black resistance to white supremacy is often reduced to a simple binary between Dr Martin Luther King Jr s nonviolence and Malcolm X s by any means necessary In We Refuse historian Kellie Carter Jackson urges us to move past this false choice offering an unflinching examination of the breadth of Black responses to white oppression particularly those pioneered by Black women The dismissal of Black violence as an illegitimate form of resistance is itself a manifestation of white supremacy a distraction from the insidious unrelenting violence of structural racism Force from work stoppages and property destruction to armed revolt has played a pivotal part in securing freedom and justice for Black people since the days of the American and Haitian Revolutions But violence is only one tool among many Carter Jackson examines other no less vital tactics that have shaped the Black struggle from the restorative power of finding joy in the face of suffering to the quiet strength of simply walking away Clear eyed impassioned and ultimately hopeful We Refuse offers a fundamental corrective to the historical record a love letter to Black resilience and a path toward liberation

Y'all Have Sinned Eddie Huff,2022-06-01 Recently Black America has been portrayed as the most maligned and persecuted people group in history and the perpetrators have been identified as Europeans and their descendants While the treatment of black people worldwide and in America by Europeans was terrible to say the least it is the lack of forgiveness for those past sins which holds the descendants of African slaves in bondage today Facing the truth about our own sins and forgiveness is the key to true freedom and prosperity for all of mankind and especially those in America black white brown and anyone else
