Fossilized Second Language Grammars Florencia Franceschina,2005-01-01 This monograph is a theoretical and empirical investigation into the mechanisms and causes of successful and unsuccessful adult second language acquisition Couched within a generative framework the study explores how a learner s first language and the age at which they acquire their second language may contribute to the L2 knowledge that they can ultimately attain The empirical study focuses on a group of very advanced L2 speakers and through a series of tests aims to discover what underpins their near mastery of grammatical gender and other grammatical properties The book explores an account of persistent selective divergence based on the idea that child and adult learners are fundamentally similar except that in adults the L1 plays the role of a fairly rigid filter of the linguistic input The impossibility of representing the new target language other than by using the building blocks of the previously established L1 is argued to be the main reason why near but not totally native like language representations are formed and become established in adult L2 learners Focus on Earth Science ,2001 Artificial or Constructed Wetlands María del Carmen Durán-Domínguez-de-Bazúa,Amado Enrique Navarro-Frómata,Josep M. Bayona,2018-06-15 Artificial or constructed wetlands are an emerging technology particularly for tropical areas with water scarcity For big cities the sustainable management of water resources taking into account proper use is always challenging The book presents case studies illustrating the above As plants and microorganisms are a fundamental part of the correct functioning of these systems their contribution to the degradation of the organic matter and to the removal and transformation of the pollutant compounds present in the wastewaters is also a highlight of this book

Brave New Digital Classroom Robert J. Blake, 2008 Brave New Digital Classroom deftly interweaves results of pedagogical research and descriptions of the most successful computer assisted language learning CALL projects to explore how technology can best be employed in the foreign language curriculum to assist the second language acquisition process Directed to all language teachers whether at the school or the postsecondary level with or without prior experience this book focuses on how to use new technologies effectively Blake urges teachers to move beyond a simple functional competence of knowing how to use the tools toward first a critical competence realizing what the various tools are good for and ultimately a rhetorical competence of knowing how the tools will help transform the learning environment This book examines the effective use of a range of technologies from Internet sites through computer mediated communication such as synchronous chatting and blogs to distance learning At the end of each chapter questions and activities demonstrate the interactionist learner centered pedagogy Blake espouses An invaluable reference for experienced researchers and CALL developers as well as those of limited experience Brave New Digital Classroom is also ideal for graduate level courses on second language pedagogy It will also be of interest to department chairs and administrators seeking to develop and evaluate their own CALL programs
