Halperin, 2025-11-06 After reading two or three paragraphs the hair of my head stood up Nothing like this was ever seen or known from any heretic or disbeliever of this world and it certainly deserves to be burned The Hebrew Kabbalistic text called I Came This Day to the Spring Va avo ha Yom el ha Ayin created a scandal among the Jewish communities of Central Europe when it surfaced in manuscript in 1725 It was obviously linked to the cult of Sabbatai Zevi the would be Messiah who drove the Jewish world wild with excitement in 1665 and converted to Islam the following year Its author was the brilliant young rabbi Jonathan Eibeschuetz 1695 1764 soon to become one of the foremost preachers and rabbinic authorities of the era Now for the first time Eibeschuetz's extraordinary book a charter for the world religion of the future rooted in Kabbalistic Judaism but unlike any religion ever known is available in English translation by a leading scholar of Judaism and its Kabbalah It is not easy reading But David Halperin's full annotations will give readers the guiding thread they need to follow Eibeschuetz on his amazing journey to the spring of wisdom and beyond The New Brothers Grimm and Their Left Behind Fairy Tales

David T. Morgan, 2006 The New Brother's Grimm examines the twelve volumes of the very popular Left Behind series by Tim LaHaye and Jerry B Jenkins relating the story and the theological arguments of each book and then challenging those arguments One of the centerpieces of their interpretation of the Bible is that the church of Christ will be raptured to be with Christ for seven years During that time people who have been left behind will have an opportunity to accept Christ as savior but they will have to pass through the tribulation a time of unimaginable horror with Satan ruling the world At its end Christ will appear with his heavenly army and defeat the forces of Antichrist in the battle of Armageddon After that Christ will establish an earthly kingdom lasting exactly 1000 years during which Satan will be bound in the bottomless pit Ultimately the author suggests that the theological premises set forth in the series are at best dubious and at worst theological snake oil

Wright, 2025-04-01 Keeping the Republic Brief Eleventh Edition draws students into the study of American politics showing them how to think critically about who gets what and how while exploring the twin themes of power and citizenship With students living through one of the most challenging periods in American life this text is a much needed resource to help them make sense of politics in America today and become savvy consumers of political information Carefully condensed from the Full Edition by authors Christine Barbour and Gerald C Wright Keeping the Republic Brief Eleventh Edition gives your students the same continuity and crucial content in a more concise value oriented package Concerning the Prophets Daniel Epp-Tiessen, 2012-09-19 Epp Tiessen sheds light on the compositional history structure and theology of the book of Jeremiah by demonstrating that a large concentric unit of material focusing on true and false prophecy stands at the center of the book This unit titled Concerning the Prophets 23 9 utilizes the heritage of Jeremiah to contrast the nature of true and false prophecy in order to warn the Second Temple community of the disastrous consequences of false prophecy and to highlight the saving potential of true prophecy False prophecy leads to doom because it ignores the moral failings of the community promises well being in the face of catastrophe and reinforces the misleading theological certainties of Judah s pre 587 way of life In contrast the true prophet Jeremiah challenges the faith community to embrace the physical and spiritual dislocation of the Babylonian destruction Post disaster life stands under the saving purposes of YHWH but the only way forward is to learn the painful lessons of catastrophe and heed the prophetic summons to repent and embrace a Torah based way of life The Bounds of Agency Carol Rovane, 2019-03-26 The subject of personal identity is one of the most central and most contested and exciting in philosophy Ever since Locke psychological and bodily criteria have vied with one another in conflicting accounts of personal identity Carol Rovane argues that as things stand the debate is unresolvable since both sides hold coherent positions that our common sense she maintains is conflicted so any resolution to the debate is bound to be revisionary She boldly offers such a revisionary theory of personal identity by first inquiring into the nature of persons Rovane begins with a premise about the distinctive ethical nature of persons to which all substantive ethical doctrines ranging from Kantian to egoist can subscribe From this starting point she derives two startling metaphysical possibilities there could be group persons composed of many human beings and multiple persons within a single human being Her conclusions supports Locke s distinction between persons and human beings but on altogether new grounds These grounds lie in her radically normative analysis of the condition of personal identity as the condition in which a certain normative commitment arises namely the commitment to achieve overall rational unity within a rational point of view It is by virtue of this normative commitment that individual agents can engage one another specifically as persons and possess the distinctive ethical status of persons Carol Rovane is Associate Professor of Philosophy at Yale University Originally published in 1997 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
