Johri, 1998 This richly illustrated book provides comprehensive data on the geographical distribution vegetative and floral morphology anatomy embryology chromosome number chemical features and important genera and economic importance of 334 families of the dicots and the monocots Evolutionary and phylogenetic tendencies are discussed especially for the taxa of disputed taxonomic assignment Special features like endemism and threatened species are pointed out for selected taxa The book will be useful for scientists and advanced students of the plant sciences specializing in plant taxonomy and phylogeny It can also serve as supplementary reading for researchers and students in the agricultural sciences Diversity and Classification of Flowering Plants Armen Leonovich

Takhtadzhian, 1997 The culmination of more than fifty years of research by the foremost living expert on plant classification Diversity and Classification of Flowering Plants is an important contribution to the field of plant taxonomy In the last decade the system of classifying plants has been thoroughly revised Instead of describing every individual family Takhtajan includes descriptions in keys to families which he calls descriptive keys The advantage of descriptive keys is that they give both the characteristic features of the families and their differences The delimitation of families and orders drastically differs from the one accepted by the Englerian school and from the one accepted in Arthur Cronquist's system Takhtajan favors the smaller more natural families and orders which are more coherent and better defined where characters are easily grasped and which are more suitable for information retrieval and phylogenetic studies including cladistic analysis because it reduces polymorphic codings

Taxonomy of Flowering Plants C.L. Porter, 1959 The Evolution and Classification of Flowering Plants Arthur Cronquist, 1988 This book provides a short version of the general classification of flowering plants together with an exposition of the theory underlying the system
